ELECTION TO BE CONTESTED

Quo Warranto Proceedings Filed In the District Court.

JUSTICE J. J. HUSSEY THE RELATOR.

Many Fraudulent Votes Alleged To Have Been Cast For City Marshal Charles Heim.

The election in the city of Houston, recently held wherein [illegible] being in the [illegible] warrants issued [illegible] Charles Heim.

Yesterday afternoon Messrs. [illegible] filed in the district court of Harris county a petition against the said Charles Heim, wherein it is alleged that the said Heim was not legally elected city marshal of the city of Houston, and that he is now holding said office and usurping the same, and that he should be ousted therefrom and his place and office declared vacant, and that the plaintiff herein be adjudged entitled to said office, and be given the same, and be duly installed therein, and that he be given such other and further relief as he may be entitled to in the premises.

The petition alleges that the said Heim was not legally elected city marshal, because a large number of persons who were not legal voters, and who had no right to vote at said election, did vote for said Heim, and that the said Heim was not the person who had the legal number of votes cast for him for said office, but that the plaintiff herein was the person who had the legal number of votes cast for him for said office, and that he was the person who should be declared elected to said office.

The petition further alleges that a large number of persons who were not legal voters, and who had no right to vote at said election, did vote for said Heim, and that the said Heim was not
