"CHAUTAUQUA CIRCLE."

A Very Interesting Meeting of the Presbyterian Society.

BRIEF SUMMARY OF A YEAR'S WORK.

The President, Mrs. W. B. Slosson, Is Handsomely Remembered by the Class—Stereopticon Views.

The Presbyterian Chautauqua Circle gave a very pleasant and enjoyable "close of the year" entertainment on Friday night in the chapel of the First Presbyterian church. Over 400 ladies and gentlemen were present, representing most of the literary societies of the city and their invited guests.

Rev. William Hayne Leavell, pastor of the church, spoke of the efficient work done during the year under the presidency of Mrs. W. B. Slosson, whom he had, as he said, fortunately served as instructor after her return last year from her summer outing North. Dr. Leavell said the organization of the two classes the first of the year had been a surprise to all, and he was pleased to add that Mrs. Slosson had in addition to her literary work endeared herself most warmly to her class, and as an evidence of this fact he had been handed two elegantly bound volumes of Barry's "Little Minister" presented by her class as a slight token of appreciation, which he then handed to her with the characteristic remark: "Mrs. Slosson, your classes present you with two beautiful volumes of the 'Little Minister' and have selected me the 'Big minister' to make the presentation, which I do with the greatest of pleasure and assure you that I most heartily appreciate the good work accomplished by you and in only predicting greater success in your work for the coming Chautauqua year."

Mrs. Slosson was taken completely by surprise and in a feeling manner thanked the class for the unexpected token of their confidence and affection, saying she should always prize the beautiful token as a mark of their appreciation and kindness as evidence of a work appreciated.

Dr. Leavell then outlined the work for the year, referring to the pleasure in having those interested in him as the means of carrying the large share of the load of hard reading which it was their privilege to assume. The Dante class then presented to the assembled guests of the class, Mrs. W. B. Slosson, who rose from her seat and responded in a very happy way to the presentation address of the President and Secretary of the Dante class, and then the President called upon the Secretary of the Browning class for a report of the work done by that class, which was very interesting and showed a good deal of work. The Browning class then presented to their president, Mrs. Slosson, a beautiful bouquet of roses, which she very gracefully acknowledged, saying that the roses reminded her of the Browning class, and that they were sweet and fragrant, but had thorns, and she was reminded of the Browning class in that they had given her some thorns to her pleasure. Mrs. Slosson then presented the President of the Chautauqua Circle, Mrs. Hughes, who responded in a few well chosen words, and then the President called upon the Secretary of the Chautauqua Circle for a report of the work done by the Circle during the year, which was very interesting and showed a good deal of work. The Secretary then read the following report:

[illegible]

[illegible] and have read what is called for in American course and have taken [illegible] to read. These of you (and we hope all) who have followed well will be able to tell what it is to be a student for a year, or for the Fourth of July oration, or to be able to converse intelligently on any one of the books we have read, and we will take no fear to you, dear friends, and will take no fear to you, dear friends, that we have read a good deal and have read well. We have had one could name superlatively or very thoroughly. The course is very comprehensive and also. Some day to tell [illegible] can not complete the course in four years. But year by year we can go on and do a little more each year, and so of last as much search at our leisure from time, each book a complete and [illegible] of a series. If you have not one course of one book and then go on, you will find [illegible] given you for all the work and [illegible] done. They tell us [illegible] course, and if the course is not completed the work is as useful [illegible] in every [illegible] reading? Yes, it is dry and heavy, [illegible] compared with the light truth that an hour's reading would blow away, and dry compared with the real, [illegible] compared with the light of today. In that sense it is heavy with good [illegible] grain and dry and rare with the sunlight of love and charitableness. Mostly, on our morrows. The books for this year [illegible] but one written by the very [illegible] are to be done until July 1.

Only if it is called, and it is true that [illegible] something in the most good [illegible] The membership fee is 50 cents, [illegible] Each full and no other dues.

The books are worth the money, and in addition the magazine are [illegible] Taylor magazines to members for [illegible] and the books [illegible] each. The [illegible] are [illegible] by two or more using the same [illegible] and only two books must be bought at once. Two combine and each give $1 [illegible] magazine and each [illegible] book will be all for three months.

We did not begin until January 20, so we have done the work of nine months [illegible] and we have not gone so thoroughly [illegible] we would have if we had an old Chautauqua year by the book [illegible] the average and no member of the class when asked to take a paper has ever said "I can't" even when the subject was poor improving. We went over in class reading either by the questions in programme, by questions by the teacher or by topics, all of the five books excepting about 50 pages of the last book, that were not included in class. We preceded by short papers both the literary and literature part of the magazine articles. There was a series of papers on Indian [illegible] and people that we had papers written upon, as American poets, [illegible] journalists, women writers, the [illegible] American colleges and American magazines. One of our book was by Carl Schurz upon "American Industries" and we read or had papers on it, not [illegible] learned, but it is convenient for reference if it gave the growth of various trades, and we had papers upon Pontiac, Eli Whitney, Colonial Architecture, Samuel Slater, Arkwright, Strikes, Labor Organizations and such topics. In history we had Causes of Emigration, France during the revolutionary war, English influence on early wars, the Monroe doctrine, the Mississippi valley, the Louisiana purchase, [illegible] of the interior States and sketches of all the presidents—Twenty-four in all—also sketches of Alex Hamilton, Aaron Burr, Jefferson Davis, Henry Clay and others.

In literature quotations every night at roll call, and brief sketches of many authors and selections from their works, with longer papers upon Prescott, James Russell Lowell, Irving, Hawthorne, Mrs. Margaret Fuller Ossoli and others.

We had sketches of Oliver Hunnard, Joel Barlow, Brook Farm and Robert Owen, Peter Cartright and the Pioneers of Ohio Valley.

We have observed the birthdays with biographical sketches and extracts from their writings of Franklin, Lanier, Lincoln, Washington, Lowell, Longfellow, Shakespeare, Michael Angelo and Emerson, making nine papers upon memorial days.

In addition, as loyal Texans, we gave an open meeting on Texas day and had sketches of fifteen Texas heroes, papers upon ten resources of the State, a history of the city, and history of the State, and a paper upon its schools. Its authors, old missions and battle of San Jacinto. Some native Texans said they learned more of Texas than they ever knew before, and we were all wiser. The class is mixed, has school boys and graduates of universities and colleges, school girls and grandmothers, business men and ladies of leisure, but is thoroughly delightful and harmonious, and has the earnest gratitude of their president, who acknowledges the aid she has received from the faithful secretary, the class in general and the accommodating librarian of the Lyceum library.

At the conclusion of the review of the work, Dr. Leavell introduced to the audience Captain L. T. Noyes of Houston, who entertained the audience for more than an hour with his beautiful stereopticon views, giving life-like pictures on the canvas of American scenes, commencing on the Pacific coast, then the Yosemite valley, Salt Lake, Denver, St. Louis, Chicago, with World's Fair scenes; then the East—New York, Philadelphia and Boston, back to the scene of the landing of the pilgrims at Plymouth Rock—an evening's study of American geography restayed by Captain Noyes to the interested audience, as scene followed scene in rapid succession.

This part of the programme was highly appreciated by the audience, and at its close Captain Noyes received the thanks of those present, neatly expressed by the pastor. Dr. Leavell, who again extended an invitation to friends of the circle in the city to give him or the president their names and become members for 1896, to commence in October, 1896, for the "Chautauqua year." This closed the pleasing exercises of the circle for the first year, admitted by all to have been a very successful one.

The following are the names of the Houston class of twenty-five members: Mesdames De Merritt, Tankersley, Vandevoort, Watkins, Byers, Gibson, Brannigan and Slosson, Misses Alice and Emma Bartell, Gribble, Grant, Cage, Suttle, Michaux, Irwine, Williamson, Messrs. Bradley, Scott, Thacker, Vinson, De Merritt, Watkins and Bettis.

AFRO-AMERICAN FAIR.

The Arrangements Progressing Well—The Prizes for the Military.

The promoters of the Afro-American State fair, to be held in this city August 25 to 29, inclusive, have been zealously working this week to get everything in readiness for the opening of the fair. The directorate, composed of Ed Banks, Emmett J. Scott, H. T. P. Williams, Willy Hubert, W. H. Smith, Hilliard Taylor, B. E. Sparks and Mr. Davis, met this week and arranged the prizes to be offered. A full set of military uniforms, donated by Adjutant General Mabry, will be the first prize for the best drilled company, and a silk flag for the second best. A prize will also be awarded the best drilled drum quartet. One hundred dollars in cash is the prize for the best uniformed band in attendance, $50 the second and $25 for the third. In addition to these prizes are being offered the usual premiums in every department.

The board of lady managers, which met last week, [illegible] and elected a vice president for each county, [illegible] the promotion of the enterprise.

Many of the [illegible] of the fair will be those made by the women of the State, who are [illegible] and a [illegible] programme, under direction of Wiley University, Marshall, will be given in the auditorium of the university department. It will be a [illegible] of Afro-American women and will also exhibit an old time negro plantation home, as it makes a substantial [illegible].

[illegible] J. Will Jones and F. I. Hughes, [illegible] are [illegible] and rooting interest in the fair. [illegible] will come down the [illegible] large numbers of thousand [illegible] to be housed [illegible] in the interest of [illegible].

[illegible] will have their special [illegible] here for the fair and will participate in the parade on the opening day.

The State Teachers' association in session at Dallas this week, passed a resolution favoring the fair and pledging royal support. An invitation was sent President McKinley this week [illegible] the attendance, besides the invitation to Gov. Governor Culberson. Also [illegible] General Mabry, Booker T. Washington, Bishop H. M. Turner and a number of distinguished colored men of National reputation have been invited.

A large attendance is now assured, as every railroad in the State has agreed to [illegible] special rates for the occasion. Excursions from several points will bring thousands to the city. Every indication is now for success, and the managers are well pleased at the prospect. There will be no abatement of hard work and every energy will be exerted to bring about a result creditable alike to the promoters and to the colored citizens of Texas.

LOCAL RELIGIOUS NOTES.

The Subject at the First Presbyterian Church This Morning.

Rev. Mr. Hayne Leavell, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, will preach today at 11 a. m. on the "Christian Position of Woman." This sermon is delivered by request.

By request, Rev. J. C. Mason, pastor of the Central Christian church, will today preach again from the subject, "The Wheat and the Tares." At 8 p. m. his subject will be "How to Win."

The anniversary services of the Fourth Missionary Baptist church (colored), known as Watts' Chapel, will be held this Sunday in the church from 10 a. m. to 10:30 p. m.

This church was organized and founded by Rev. H. Watts eighteen years ago. He collected personally the first subscription of $2 for the purchase of the ground and since then by hard and faithful work has built up a membership of 400, the congregations averaging from 300 to 800 people.

The Sunday school, superintended by Alexander Starks, has an average attendance of 300 scholars, who are instructed by ten teachers selected by the pastor. All persons who are interested in the behalf of Christianity are invited to attend these services. Rev. H. Watts deserves great credit for the success he has achieved in building up a church which has done so much good in the colored community, being free from all mixed debt, and which has been secured by giving the best years of his life to the work of God and his fellow countrymen.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

Mr. Joseph Jamison will address the meeting for men only this afternoon at 4 o'clock. Good music. All men invited.

On July 4 there will be given a joint picnic at La Porte, under the auspices of the Houston and Galveston associations. A match game of baseball between the two associations will be played and other outdoor athletics, such as putting the shot, hammer throwing, pole vaulting and long leaping. The event is looked forward to with much enthusiasm by the two associations and their friends.

FEMALE DISEASES

Caused by Catarrh of the Pelvic Organs, Dr. Hartman Says.

If there is a disease which is more prevalent than all others it is chronic catarrh. Over half the people have it in some form or another; and yet probably not a tenth of these people know that their disease is catarrh.

One person has dyspepsia, another bronchitis, another Bright's disease, another liver complaint, another consumption, another female complaint. These people would be very much surprised to hear that they are all suffering with chronic catarrh. But it is so, nevertheless. Each of these troubles, and a great many more, are simply catarrh—that is, chronic inflammation of the mucous lining of whichever organ is affected. Catarrh of the pelvic organs is a very common kind of catarrh, which leads to a condition known as female disease. Nearly every woman suffers from female complaint, a kind of catarrh of the pelvic organs. These women should write Dr. Hartman, Columbus, Ohio, a description of their symptoms and he will give prompt answer with directions for treatment free.

Any internal remedy that will cure catarrh in one location will cure it in any other location. This is why Peruna has become so justly famous in the cure of female complaints, being a catarrh medicine that locates in the pelvic organs. It cures catarrh wherever it may be located. It cures catarrh. It does not profess to cure cancer. Send to Dr. Hartman for a free book on female diseases.

RIPANS TABULES

Willie Harmon, conductor on the East Washington street and North Indianapolis line of Electric Street Railroads, Indianapolis, says of Ripans Tabules, under date of September 12, 1895: "I am 24 years old, was raised in the country and have lived in Indianapolis about two years. Living in the country one has regular meals and regular times for eating them. In the street railroad business, it's 'catch as catch can' in getting one's meals. This irregular treatment of my stomach began to give me trouble and six months ago I was at my wits' end. Everything I ate disagreed with me. I tried two first class physicians, one after the other. No relief. I got worse. Tried patent medicines. No improvement. One day I bought a box of Ripans Tabules. With the first one I began to improve. Relief was immediate. I have bought a second box. I think I am cured, but I want the remedy handy. I have recommended the Tabules to a number of persons. I believe in them."

Ripans Tabules are sold by druggists or by mail if the price (50 cents a box) is sent to the Ripans Chemical Company, No. 10 Spruce street, New York. Sample vial 10 cents. For sale by A. E. Kiesling, druggist, 502 Main street.
