The Baptist Churches.

...Editor of The Post.

San Antonio, Texas, February 20.—A ...tion has come from several brethren that all the Baptist churches of Texas be urged to devote the fourth Sunday in February and the first Sunday in March to special prayer to our heavenly Father for the State Sunday school work, and to contributions towards payment of its debt. Coming from those who will participate in this special service I am constrained to believe that this is another voice from God in this behalf. Will the churches accordingly please enter into this special effort? Is it too much to ask for the first time (I suspect) in the thirty-six years of this Sunday school work that the churches that founded it should give two days specially to its needs? The first Sunday in March still remains in which to work. Please make the best possible use of it.

We beg the pastors of Texas to set earnestly and with all their might this great work before their people and secure the largest results possible. Your servant for Christ's sake, E. C. Everett,
Corresponding Secretary and Superintendent.

VETERANS OF CONFEDERACY.

GREEN'S BRIGADE IS IN ANNUAL REUNION AT BELTON.

A Cordial Welcome Was Extended to the Old Soldiers—Eloquent Response by Captain Boyd.

Belton, Texas, February 21.—The seventeenth annual reunion of Green's brigade began today with the following programme: 8:30 a. m., music at Central hotel by Second regiment band; at 9 a. m., brigade formed at the hotel and was escorted to the opera house by the Wedemeyer Guards; at 9:30 a. m., meeting was called to order by J. Mayrant Smith, commander of Bell County camp No. 122; invocation by Rev. R. K. Malden, pastor of the First Baptist church; address of welcome by W. A. Messer on part of the city and in behalf of the camp by Captain James Boyd; response by Major J. M. Crosson of Ballinger for brigade.

The address of Mayor Messer was well timed and appropriate; Captain James Boyd followed with an address that was replete with historical facts and incidents from the first American soldiers of the revolution to the present day, closing with an eulogistic peroration on the bonds that now bind the broken ranks of the Confederate soldiers. "Dixie" by the band brought the old-time "rebel yell." Major J. M. Crosson of Ballinger responded in behalf of the brigade from first to last he held the undivided attention of all. He began by saying: "Comrades, I greet you. I am glad to see so many here with heads erect as they were when the bolts of volleyed thunder went wildly screaming o'er impurpled field in a tempestuous storm of fire." His tribute to the Southern women was sublime. To the Federal soldier he gave a cordial greeting. "In all our reunions those who wore the gray meet those who wore the blue as patriots of a common country, for this is an era of peace and good will. Comrades, with us there is snow in the hair; we are dropping from the ranks one by one; soon we will be floating, floating, floating out on the sea of eternity; but in our hearts the fire of passion has long ceased to burn and we cherish no resentment against the men who faced us in battle's horrible carnage; charity has thrown a mantle of forgiveness over those who fought under the Stars and Stripes. The bloody shirt was never waved by the brave men who fought on either side, but by those who never heard the fierce hissing of the minie ball. We have been called rebels; so were the men of '76 'rebels' and their fame is as enduring as the stars. It is, has been and always will be a glorious title; when beneath some grassy mound I am sleeping I want no prouder epitaph than, 'here lies a ragged rebel.' Home, no sorrow, no sighing, no tears, no death, but home, sweet home; beautiful home, glorious, everlasting home; home with each other; with the good, with the angels—home with God."

Judge W. H. Estill, a schoolmate of Tom Green, gave a sketch of his life from boyhood.

The afternoon session was devoted to routine business. Tonight a grand concert was given, after which a banquet will be tendered the brigade.

TROY.—Burglars raided Gray, Little & Co.'s store, securing about $100 worth of goods of various sorts. No clue.

WORRIED WOMEN.

Women Worry About Little Things More Than They Ought.

Not enough iron in their blood.

What has iron to do with it? The iron of iron, red, strengthening, nourishing blood is one of the chief builders of nerve power.

Iron makes strength.

Weakness causes worry.

Women who are weak and nervous are thin, pale or yellow-faced. They lack the rounded form of beautiful womanhood. They are irritable and hard to please. They suffer from headache, backache, rheumatism, neuralgia. They feel weak, tired, unhappy, miserable.

Their pale color proves that they need iron to color their blood. Their irritability and nervousness, that they need it to tone up and strengthen their nerves. Their thinness, that they need it to cure their dyspepsia.

They can get what iron they need, in its best form, from Dr. Harter's Iron Tonic.

Not an empirical solution of iron salts, but a scientific preparation of tested value. A preparation that for forty-two years has been curing the sick by hundreds of thousands.

Health comes with plenty of iron in the blood. So does a strong constitution. The strength of iron is made from iron.

Dr. Harter's Iron Tonic banishes pain, brings back roses to faded cheeks, builds up nerves, conquer sickness.

A worthy lady of South Portsmouth, Va., Mrs. M. J. Weel, corroborates the above in these words: "For many, many years my blood was iron poor, though I did not know it. I used to have fresh, rosy cheeks and a plump, rounded form, but by degrees my good looks faded away until I began to look like a ghost. I lost strength and ambition and suffered from pains in my stomach, head, heart, back, muscles and bones. I gave myself up in despair. Finally a good friend induced me to try Dr. Harter's Iron Tonic. From the good symptoms which at once began to show themselves I saw what had been wrong with me. I had suffered from want of iron, and it remained for Dr. Harter's Iron Tonic to supply it and cured me. I am now in good health and feel better than I have for years."

Here is evidence from near at hand:

"Dallas, Texas, Dec. 16, 1897.

"Dallas News: Gentlemen—I can cheerfully recommend Dr. Harter's Iron Tonic to any one as a strengthening tonic. After suffering some months with slow fever I used one bottle and can now thank this splendid remedy for the fact that I am living and well. Very respectfully,

"(MISS) MARGARITE GREEN,
"No. 112 Ervay St."
