rushed, but winter is setting in and quarrying will in some instances be suspended. This, it is thought, will make a scarcity of stock, especially of the fine dark grades.

A series of revival meetings will begin Monday evening, December, in the Congregational church. Rev. C. W. Longren is to be assisted by Rev. G. W. Gallagher of Montpelier. These two pastors will also soon open meetings in Worcester.

The third session of the Barre Entertainment association is to be a lecture by Rev. Robert Collyer December 7.

The services on Thanksgiving day in the opera house drew out a fair sized audience. Revs. Longren, Cummings, Smithers and Abbey conducted the services. A concert was given in the evening by the Presbyterian Sunday-school.

"Jimmie" Albin, Frank Murray and Antonio Burk were arrested Thursday night for "going through" a cigar drummer's sample cases at the depot. Friday Albin's case was nolle prossed, Burk was convicted and the town grand juror was confident of finding Murray guilty before sunset.

Active preparations are going on for the four days' militia fair which is to open at the opera house Thursday, December 8.

M. G. Gould is to be organist at St. Monica's Catholic church.

An alarm of fire about 2 a. m. Tuesday called the fire department to a small house in Fosterville, occupied by a Jew, but nearly everything was destroyed.

Alfred Lane and two sons are building a Barre granite residence for a son of Justice A. M. Jackman at Bridgeport, Conn.

Erwin Williams has moved his family from Warren to this village.

Mrs. Eliza Fisher of Cabot is to reside here during this winter with Fred Fisher, her son.

E. L. Smith and Co. are cutting a large obelisk or shaft monument for the Hills family at St. Louis. It comprises eight pieces, 50 feet high over all, and the bottom base is 11 feet and 6 inches square. They have eight or ten other large jobs under way, one being a prettily carved cottage monument for St. Louis parties, and a shaft monument, with a 9 foot square base, for New York parties. They are working 60 men all told, more than at this season in any other year.

The general impression among the granite manufacturers is that nearly as many men are now at work in town as there were before the strike, and they are putting in full time.

A new roadway is being made from Bridge street to the Burnham meadow by cutting off the side of a bank.

The ladies' annex to the public library are to hold their annual meeting at 3 p. m. Saturday.

MONTPELIER.

Hon. T. J. Boynton, chairman of the State democratic committee, gave the address at the democratic celebration in Lyndonville Friday night.

The remains of Mrs. M. C. Booker arrived Friday morning from Washington, D. C., and were taken to Plainfield for burial. Rev. G. W. Gallagher conducted the service there. Deceased was a sister of Mrs. A. N. Blanchard.

The Washington county jail is empty.

Deputy sheriff F. H. Atherton of Waterbury is circulating a petition among the lawyers of this town, asking Sheriff E. W. Howe to again appoint him a deputy.

The foundation and underpinning is completed for the proposed Methodist parsonage, and the building is to be completed by May 1.

The Military band is to furnish a part of the music for the Spencer Rifles fair which opens in Barre Thursday evening, December 8, and the orchestra is to play for a leap year ball in Barre Thursday evening of this week.

Homeo G. Brown of Minneapolis, Minn., spent Sunday with his parents Col. A. C. and Mrs. Brown, shook hands with old friends during Monday, and started on the afternoon mail on his return trip via Montreal.

H. J. Copeland gave an interesting talk on his travels in New York city Sunday evening in Trinity church.

Evangelical meetings began Monday evening in Bethany church.

Christmas is to be observed at Trinity Methodist church with a tree and cantata. A rehearsal of the latter is to be held Friday evening in the vestry.

The Epworth league now has 83 members.

G. W. Parmenter bought nearly a ton of butter last week, paying from 22 to 24 cents per pound.

Frank McGill, of Stewart & McGill, is nursing a badly sprained ankle, caused by jumping from a delivery wagon.

A son was born Monday to A. W. and Mrs. Ferrin.

The social gathering of Montpelier district, for the benefit of Presiding Elder A. B. Leeux, will be Thursday afternoon and evening, December 8, at his residence.

It is said that Thomas Gisbourne is to move his wood working business early next year from its present quarters in the Cotton Manufacturing plant, and that the United States Clothes Pin factory are to go into the vacated quarters.

Presiding Elder Traux is to hold revival meetings at North Duxbury, Waitsfield charge, each evening this week, preach at Williamstown Sunday forenoon and evening, and at East Brookfield in the afternoon.

WATERBURY.

The mixed train collided with a string of freight cars that broke from the rear of a freight train on the Falls hill. The engineer jumped and was badly bruised. The trains were delayed several hours by the wreck.—Miss B. Harrington of Marshfield, is in town.—Willis Crossett, aged 40 years, died from heart disease. He was a member of the G. A. R., and leaves a widow.—Miss Josephine Taylor is taking lessons in elocution in Boston.

Miss Maria Poor is quite ill and not expected to live.—Cassius Russell and family of Burlington are visiting Charles Conant.—John Griggs and family spent Thanksgiving in Fayston.—A union Thanksgiving service was held at the Congregational vestry Thursday evening. Rev. W. H. Davenport preached the sermon.—Miss May Wrisley is visiting in Burlington.—Mrs. Hiram Ward of Moretown spent Thanksgiving at Mr. Wyman's and Elisha Moody and wife went to E. Stayton's in Stowe.

Miss Jenny Morse has gone to spend the winter with Mr. Childs in Moretown.—Miss Flora Scougal of Jonesville spent Sunday in town.—Rev. L. H. Elliott, agent of Vermont Bible society, preached at Windsor last Sunday.—Ormel Coffrain and wife of Bristol, Conn., arrived in town last Saturday.—George Evans and Miss Haskins of Moretown who have been visiting Fred Howland of Montpelier and Mrs. Howland of Lisbon, N. H., are visiting Mrs. W. P. Dillingham.

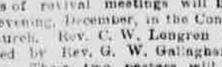
EAST MONTPELIER.

Mrs. Clara Vincent and Mrs. Ila Sparrow are very ill.—Dr. J. S. Dodge of Lincoln, spent Thanksgiving with his sister, Mrs. H. H. Templeton.—Henry Foster went to Boston last week.—The Universalist society hold a fair at the East Village hall, Wednesday and Thursday of this week.—There is to be a box sociable at Willis Tracy's, on Thursday evening.—E. A. Pierce

Yes.

Franklin Fountain Pen.

Patented March 27, 1888.



One filling does for a week's writing. Pen is best quality Gold, Iridium Pointed, and will last a lifetime if used carefully. The Franklin Pen never floods or leaks, and writes the instant pen touches the paper. PRICE, EACH, $2.50.

In order to introduce this new pen and make it widely known without delay, the manufacturers have made us a special rate that we may use the pen as a premium.

Every Subscriber One Pen

until Jan. 1st, 1893. Every one sending us $2.50 may have The Weekly Free Press one year and this pen sent post paid from our office in Burlington.

After a ten days trial any one dissatisfied may return the pen and may have back $1.50 in money or their subscription will be extended for a year and six months, as they may choose.

But no one will want to return the pen. It is first class in every respect. The pen will be sent filled, ready for use. A this fluid ink should be used in it and it will work without a hitch.

Only one pen to each subscriber. If you want more you must get it through some neighbor, who is also a subscriber, or is ready to become one.

If you have ever priced fountain pens you know that no guaranteed pen can be bought under $2.50. This pen is guaranteed. If out of order it will be fixed free of charge. At the same price you also get the best weekly paper published in Vermont!

Those who have already renewed their subscription so that they stand paid up to Oct. 1st, 1893, can secure the pen on payment of $1.50.

Those who have paid for some months ahead can secure the pen for $1.50, if they send enough more to extend their subscription to Oct. 1st, 1893.

FREE PRESS ASSOCIATION.

begins his school at district No. 5, this week.—Miss H. E. Dingwall finished her school in district No. 1, last Wednesday.

WARREN.

Will Herman, only son of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Harmon, died November 19 after a brief illness, aged 20 years and 4 months. The funeral was largely attended on Monday, Rev. W. H. Douglass officiating.—Dr. E. W. Stayton is in Boston this week.—Mr. and Mrs. Walter Barney from Barre spent a portion of last week at George B. Newcomb's.—Mr. Charles Fitch and family have returned to Burlington.—Rev. R. E. Johnson has bought the house recently occupied by G. P. Stearns.

WATERBURY CENTRE.

There was a good attendance at the closing exercises of the G. M. S. last week Wednesday evening.—The Hutchings place was sold at auction the 23d to Mr. Dufer. Consideration $2,000.—F. M. Bryan, who has assisted with the Colby Wringer company of Montpelier, was at home Thanksgiving.—School in the Burt district opened Monday with Jay Conley as schoolmistress.—The winter term in district No. 10 opened this week with no change of administration.—A. Lane of Stowe has purchased the Truman Colby place on the river.

NORTHFIELD.

The remains of Frank, son of Conductor Lorenzo Kent, who was drowned while skating at White River Junction, were brought here for burial Saturday afternoon.—"Ten Nights in a Bar Room" is to be presented Friday and Saturday evenings in Cossett hall under the auspices of Johnson post and the relief corps.—Clarence H. Joslin and Minnie Hastings were married Wednesday at Burlington and have gone to Connecticut.—The old and young folks ball given by the militia Thursday night, was attended by 50 couples.—Augustus Howe, a farmer on east hill, died in this village Friday of heart disease in apoplexy, aged 72 years.—Mrs. Thomas V. Avery, who lately completed her duties as matron of the home for Destitute Children at Burlington, is with her father, Mrs. E. Hunting, to remain until the last of December when she goes to reside in Minneapolis.—Mrs. Mary Adams, who died of heart disease Wednesday, while on a passenger train going to Montpelier, was buried Saturday.—William M. Davis was visited Friday evening by a nurse party of friends at his home. The occasion was his 70th birthday, and gifts and good wishes were numerous.—Hon. C. T. Hagan and family of St. Albans, spent Thanksgiving at the home of Hon. F. Thrasher.—R. B. Tanner of New York, is visiting J. C. B. Thayer, his father.

WEST BERLIN.

Rufus Young and wife of Andover visited at O. B. Cole's last week.—A. George and family returned from Barre Saturday.—T. Cole declares that while on his way home from a Thanksgiving dinner at the Corner, he saw a red-headed party dye.—The boiler for heating purposes at the store shed has been removed and a larger one is being put in.

MORETOWN.

Mrs. Russell Sawyer is in Barre.—The Epworth league will give an entertainment at the town hall Thursday evening, November 31.—A basket dance was held at Phillips' hall Tuesday evening.—Lena Evans is in town for a few days.—George Towle and family of Peterboro, N. H., are visiting at A. E. Lovejoy's.

PLAINFIELD.

A Universalist sociable is to be held at the Grand Army hall Thursday evening, December 1. Ice cream and cake will be served, also a short entertainment is to be given.—The funeral of Mrs. Melvin Hooker from Washington, D. C., was held at the Congregationalist church Friday last, Rev. Mr. Gallagher officiating.—Schools commenced in town Monday, November 28. Mr. Lunsmore and Miss Wells are the teachers.

WORCESTER.

Ira Brown is very sick.—Mrs. Arthur Maxham of Barre has been visiting M. P. Kent, her father.—Miss Lillian Vail gave a party to 15 of her young friends Thursday evening. All report a good time.—School in district No. 1 finished Friday. Miss Folsom is to teach in the upper room this winter.—Lester Harris has moved into Mr. Harriman's house.—Ira Brown is sick with typhoid pneumonia, also the little son of Leonard Bruce.—The next grange is to be with I. E. Wheeler December 16.—Fred Alexander has moved into the house vacated by Mr. Harris.—Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Wheeler celebrated the 40th anniversary of their marriage Friday evening. Mr. Wheeler married Charlotte Hutchinson Nov. 25, 1852, and by this union they had three sons, George of Barre, Clarence, who lives with his parents, and Eri of Calais. There were over 100 present and the evening was spent in singing, speaking, reading letters and social intercourse. Dr. O. S. Wheeler, brother of Mr. Wheeler, of Athol, Mass., gave an interesting talk. They received several nice presents. Among them were a silver cake basket from the grange; a check for $5 from D. A. Cook of Providence, R. I.; a gold ring and watch chain from George Wheeler and wife; $20.50 from the company, and several other nice presents. All report a very fine time.

WAITSFIELD.

Clem Joslin and Miss Hattie Avery celebrated Thanksgiving by getting married. The happy couple took a trip to Burlington and vicinity.—Dr. Gorham of Bellows Falls was in town after a horse purchased of William Hesselton.—Orvill J. Gale and wife have a boy.—A harvest supper was held at the Congregational church Tuesday evening.

WINDHAM COUNTY.

A white squirrel was recently shot in Vernon.

The new Methodist parsonage at Bellows Falls is completed.

The Windham County Association of Congregational Ministers met Tuesday, November 22, with Rev. Frank F. Lewis at Putney.

A panther has been seen near Bellows Falls several times recently, and parties of local sportsmen have been trying to capture it.

Windham County Pomona Grange will hold its annual meeting for the election and installment of officers, with Protective Grange, Brattleboro, Thursday, December 1.

The records of the town of Bellows Falls show that in 1772 it was voted to pay four men, who had advanced the money for the town, the sum of $100, the same being in full payment for cost of living of the town minister and his family for the preceding six months.

Chief of Police Thompson of Bellows Falls went to Posten Friday and brought back Ed. Johnson, who was wanted for stealing a pocketbook from John O. Spring. He left in company with George Howard, and claims Howard put him up to the job. Howard was drowned in Boston last week Tuesday by falling off a drawbridge. Johnson will be held to await the action of the grand jury.

Jonas Allen is one of Townshend's most active and well-preserved old men, and belongs to a remarkably long-lived race. Lieut. Jonas Allen was the first settler of Royalston, Mass., and lived to be 96 years old. His son, Dea. Benjamin, raised 10 children on the old homestead and in 1823 moved to Putney, where he died at the age of 89. Of the 10 children six were alive at the beginning of the past month and their average age was over 80 years. Jonas Allen, one of the six, now 80 years old, visited all his brothers and sisters this summer and since his return has received word that his brother Nathaniel died in East Boston, aged 77 years.

WESTMINSTER.

Rev. C. W. Thompson and wife started for Louisiana last Friday. They will spend the winter in a town near New Orleans.—Joel H. Holton and family were in town over Sunday.—George W. Bidwell entertained a number of friends Thanksgiving day.—Miss Gertrude M. Farr instructor in bookkeeping and stenography at Cushing's academy, accompanied by Miss Edith E. Bride of Ashburnham, Mass., and Evelyn L. Taft of Bennett Square, Pa., spent the Thanksgiving vacation at her old home, where she was joined by her brother W. V. Farr of the Burlington Free Press.—H. C. Baxter & Bro. have nearly finished boxing their sweet corn.—Miss Grace Nutting, Charlie Farr and Arthur Dascomb, were home from Meriden, N. H., over Sunday.—Mr. Ward of Northfield, Mass., supplied the Congregational pulpit last Sunday.—Rev. P. F. Barnard and wife have gone to his parish in Dummerston for the winter.—Albert L. Miner and David Underwood have entered the Baltimore Medical college.

WINDSOR COUNTY.

Windsor will have a trades carnival December 6.

The foundry at Springfield is running over-time to fill many large orders.

E. D. Martin is now operating his new box factory at North Springfield.

Rev. B. C. Lansing, who formerly preached at Quechee, is now supplying the Congregational church at Hartland.

The Congregational church at Hartford has extended a call to Mr. Robert C. Denison, Mo., a graduate of the last class of Andover Theological seminary.

A. M. Marvin, 25 years old, a farmer living in Ludlow, was thrown from a load of wood and killed instantly, about 5 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. He leaves a widow.

READING.

A Thanksgiving service was held at the Baptist church at Felchville in the forenoon and services were held at the Union church in the evening, when a sermon was read by Miss Maude Kendall.—Mr. and Mrs. Mahoney attended the funeral of her sister at Brandon last week.—Mrs. Harriet Amsden has gone to Windsor to spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Coy.—J. M. Stearns, jr., of Brooklyn, N. Y., is visiting his uncle, Honestus Stearns.—Mrs. Curtis Giddings is at Ludlow.—Mrs. Wardner spent a few days at Windsor last week.—Miss Ella Huey has returned from Springfield.—Mr. Hank White is employed at an auction sale at Newport, N. H., this week.—Mrs. H. Stearns is visiting in Massachusetts.—Miss Maude Kendall has gone to Washington, Vt., to teach a winter term of school.—The winter school opened at Felchville this week with Miss Ina Davis as teacher.—Mrs. Dr. Morgan is teaching at Amsden.—Mr. Michael Lunt has bought the Erastus Meacham place—consideration, $100.—Mr. Dexter Buck has bought the house in Felchville owned by Everett Knights for $500 and is moving into the same.

Cutting Down Wages and Orders.

To the Editor of the Free Press:

I notice in a recent issue of your paper that the Lonsdale company of Providence, R. I., had notified their employes of an increase in wages. The Knitting company of this town cut the wages of the female help from eight cents to three cents per dozen on stockings. The Knitting Machine company of Franklin had orders for 150 machines and the order was cancelled on Thursday. The company that runs the Hosiery Mill where the cut down occurred last week is a democratic company. The writer hopes the workmen will get all the free trade that they want. DENNIS WELCH.

Franklin Falls, N. H., Nov. 21, 1892.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

BURLINGTON MARKETS.

Local Retail Markets.

BURLINGTON, Nov. 29, 1892.

The local markets contain many delicacies for the season of good cheer. Following are the quotations as corrected by some of Burlington's prominent merchants:

TEAS, COFFEES AND SPICES.

Roberts & Perkins.

Teas: Formosa Oolongs, 40, 50, 60, and 70; English Breakfast, 50 and 60; Gunpowder, 50c; Young Hyson, 50c; Japans, 30, 40, 50, 60 and 70c. Coffees: Old government Java 35c, Mocha 35c, Standard Java 30c, Golden Rio 25c, Maracibo 25c, mixed ground 20c, powdered Mocha and Java 40c, Dandelion 20c, new era 25c, Cereal, 20c, German chicory 15c. Spices: Pepper 40c, allspice 40c, cinnamon 60c, ginger 30c, cloves 50c, mustard 30c, Cayenne pepper 50c, white pepper 50c, mace $1.20, nutmegs $1.20.

DAIRY PRODUCTS.

Barber & Tobey.

Dairy butter is 28 cents a pound. Creamery butter, 32 cents; Cheese is 10 to 11c cts. a pound. Eggs 32 cents a dozen. Finest cheeses are as follows: Pine apple cheese, 50@$1.00 each according to size; Roquefort cheese, 20 cents a pound; English dairy, 21 cents; Edam, $1.00 each; Neufchatel, 6 cents a package; Cheddar cheese, $1.00 a piece. Milk, 7 cents a quart. Pure Jersey cream, 40 cents a quart. Paragon cheese, $1.50 per jar; American club house cheese, 40 cents per jar.

FLOUR, SUGAR AND VEGETABLES.

Dolan Brothers.

St. Louis flour, $5.00 to $5.75 a barrel; Michigan, $5.75; Spring patents, and Minnesota patents are $5.75 a barrel. Buckwheat is 3½ to 4 cents a pound. Rye flour, 3 to 3½ cents a pound. Maple sugar, 10@12 cents a pound; maple syrup, $1 to $1.25 a gallon. Granulated sugar is 6 cents a pound, coffee A extra light brown, 5@5½ cts. Beef and potatoes, 3@4 cents. White clover honey is 18 cents a pound; celery 5 and 8 cents a bunch; squash, 3 cents a pound; cabbage, 5 cents a pound; potatoes, 40 cents to $1 a bushel; sweet potatoes 3 cents a pound.

FRUITS.

Jones Brothers.

Pineapples, 50 to 60 cents a dozen. Oranges, 50@60 cents a dozen. Best quality dates are 10 cents a pound. Smyrna figs, 15 to 20 cents a pound. Messina lemons, 30@40 cents per dozen. Evaporated peaches, 20 cts. a pound. Evaporated red raspberries 30 cents a pound. Evaporated black raspberries 35 cents a pound. Apricots, 35 cents a pound. Dates, 10 to 20 cents a pound. Peanuts 10 cts. a quart. English walnuts, 20 cents per pound. Nuts all kinds, assorted, 20 cents a pound. Honey, 15 to 18 cents per pound. Catawba grapes, 40 to 50 cents a basket. Malagas, 75 cents per pound. Cranberries, 10 to 12 cents per quart.

MEATS.

Albert E. Jones.

Mutton, hind quarters, 10 to 12c a pound, forequarters, 06 cents per pound; mutton chops, 20 cents. Spring lamb, hind quarters, 20 cents, fore quarters, 15 cents, lamb chops, 20 cents. Beef, best cuts, Western, for porter houses, is quoted at 20 cents a pound; sirloin at 18 cents; round at 15@18 cents a pound; roast, 12 to 15 cents a pound. Vermont beef is quoted at 18 to 20 cents a pound. Hams, sugar cured, are 15 cents a pound; breakfast bacon is 15 to 18 cents; California hams, 10 to 12½ cents a pound; smoked shoulders, 10 cents. Tripe, 10 to 12½ cents; dried beef, 20 cents per pound. Frankfurts and lambs' tongues are 15 cents a pound. Corn beef is 8 to 12½ cents. Pork roast is 12 to 15 cents a pound, steak 15 cents; salt pork is 10 cents a pound; lard is 10 cents; roast veal is 10 to 15 cents; veal cutlet, 15@20 cents; chicken sausage 15 cents a pound; bologna sausage, 15 to 20 cents; German bologna sausage, 10 to 15 cents; Albany sausage, 15 cents; bologna, 15 cents. Turkeys, 20 to 25 cents. Fowls, 20 to 25 cents. Spring chickens 25 cents per pound. Lard 10 to 12 cents per pound.

Wholesale Produce Market.

BURLINGTON, Nov. 29, 1892.

Prices in the wholesale market remain much the same though butter is lower and eggs are higher. Quotations are as follows:

Provisions—Butt pork 25 to 27 cts; creamery butter 30@32 cents; choice dairy 27 cents; new potatoes 75 cents; onions 75 cents per bushel; beans $1.75@$1.80 a bushel; lemons, 12@25 cents.

Hay—Loose, $14@$15 a ton; baled, $12@$13.

Grain—Oats, 35 to 38 cents a bushel; rye, 65 cents; buckwheat, 50 cents per bushel; corn, 60 cents per bushel; corn, Western, 65 to 67 cents; Northern, 60 to 65 cents.

Feed—Middlings, $22@23 a ton; shorts, $18; bran, $18; corn meal, $24@26.

Meats—Beef, Vermont dressed, 7@8 cents per pound; Western dressed, 6@7 cents per pound; 6@7c per pound; veal, 10 cents; lambs, 10 cents; chickens, 18 cents; fowls, 20 cents; turkeys, 18 to 20 cents; dressed pork, 6@7 cents.

New York Produce Market.

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.

FLOUR—Receipts, [illegible] barrels; exports, [illegible] barrels. Low extras, [illegible]; city mills extra, [illegible]; winter patents, [illegible]; Minnesota patents, [illegible]; winter straights, [illegible]; winter extras, [illegible]; winter patents, [illegible]; Minnesota bakers', [illegible]; winter low grades, [illegible]; Minnesota patents, [illegible]; Minnesota bakers', [illegible]; winter red, [illegible]; Minnesota red, [illegible]; Minnesota rye mixes, [illegible]; Minnesota rye, [illegible]; Minnesota bakers', [illegible]; Southern flour, [illegible].

WHEAT—Receipts, [illegible] bushels; exports, [illegible] bushels; sales, [illegible] bushels futures and [illegible] bushels spot; spot market [illegible] to [illegible] cent higher; No. 2 red, [illegible] in elevator, [illegible] afloat, [illegible] delivered; No. 1 northern, [illegible]; No. 2 Milwaukee, [illegible]; No. 1 Milwaukee, [illegible]; No. 1 hard, [illegible]; No. 1 Duluth, [illegible]; No. 2 Chicago, [illegible]; No. 3 Milwaukee, [illegible]; No. 3 Chicago, [illegible]; No. 4 Milwaukee, [illegible]; No. 4 Chicago, [illegible]; rejected, [illegible]; ungraded, [illegible]; No. 2 November, [illegible]; December, [illegible]; May, [illegible]; No. 1 hard December, [illegible]; May, [illegible]; No. 1 northern December, [illegible]; May, [illegible]; No. 2 December, [illegible]; May, [illegible]; No. 3 December, [illegible]; May, [illegible].

CORN—Receipts, [illegible] bushels; exports, [illegible] bushels; No. 2 [illegible] in elevator, [illegible] afloat; steadier and [illegible] cent higher; [illegible] sales, [illegible] bushels futures and [illegible] bushels spot; spot market [illegible] cent higher; No. 2 November, [illegible]; December, [illegible]; May, [illegible]; No. 2 November, [illegible]; December, [illegible]; May, [illegible]; No. 2 November, [illegible]; December, [illegible]; May, [illegible].

OATS—Receipts, [illegible] bushels; exports, [illegible] bushels; [illegible] bushels futures and [illegible] bushels spot; spot market [illegible] cent higher; No. 2 [illegible] in elevator, [illegible] afloat; No. 2 November, [illegible]; December, [illegible]; May, [illegible]; No. 2 November, [illegible]; December, [illegible]; May, [illegible]; No. 2 November, [illegible]; December, [illegible]; May, [illegible]