CONVENTION OVER.

State Sunday School Meeting at Vergennes an Unqualified Success.

SUSTAIN PROHIBITORY LAW

Resolutions Calling For More Thorough Work Adopted—Officers and Delegates Chosen—Closing Address by Mr. Lawrence—Liquor Dealer Imprisoned.

Vergennes, Nov. 8.—The State Sunday School association closed its 23d annual convention at this town. The convention has been a complete success, both in point of attendance and also in carrying out the excellent program prepared for the occasion.

The meeting yesterday morning was opened by a conversation meeting led by Rev. W. A. Davison of Bennington, which revealed an earnest desire and determination on the part of the delegates who attended to enter more heartily into the Sunday school work. This meeting was followed by an address on "Organization and Preparation" by Miss Lucy Strong of Springfield, Mass. The address was full of practical suggestions to Sunday school workers. She said "proper preparation is the solution of most of the problems of Sunday school work. Preparation is necessary first because of the limited time given to teachers the lesson, second because there are so few teachers, and because the teacher is the Bible student in the Sunday school who should be fully trained to be the leader and guide in the study of God's word. Fourth, because we are dealing with immortal souls."

At the business meeting which followed the address the following were elected as officers for the coming year: D. M. Camp of Newport, president; J. M. Greenwood of Chester, G. W. Nettle, Burlington, vice-presidents; George L. Story of Milton, general secretary and field worker; C. C. S. Pease of Cornwallis, treasurer; Jesse L. Weeks of Middlebury, auditor; L. W. Hockey of Brattleboro, N. G. Williams, Bellows Falls, Miss D. P. Adams of Springfield, Mass., Miss M. T. Merrill of Woodstock, H. S. Taylor of St. Johnsbury, Prof. A. F. Hall of Middlebury, Rev. H. H. Jefferson of Shelburne Falls and Prof. H. M. Seely of Middlebury, executive committee. The following officers were elected: D. M. Camp, member of the Sabbath Reform committee; Normal Board, Rev. R. J. Parrott of Salisbury, Prof. W. R. Ransom of Johnson and Dr. Edward Ellery Stations River, superintendent of home department, Rev. H. A. Peirce of Burlington.

Delegates to International convention, Denver, Colo., June 26-30, 1902, Rev. G. L. Story, D. M. Camp, L. W. Hockey, Hon. B. F. Adams, Bennington, W. Grigg of Glen Eden, Rev. H. L. Kellogg, Rev. W. T. Willey, J. E. Pratt, Rev. W. S. Ferguson, Rev. E. A. Blanchard, Prof. Jesse Boyden, Hon. E. M. Shaftsbury, G. F. Nortel and Rev. R. G. Lawrence.

Delegates to Washington, D. C., to the International Normal Sunday School Teachers' association, December 2-4, 1901: Rev. G. L. Story, Rev. J. Hall Lodge, G. F. Nortel, C. C. Pease, Miss Kate Lodge, Rev. Lyman Wait, passed thanking the people of Vergennes and citizens generally for their generous hospitality, the cheerful rooms for the musical portion of the convention, the young people for their services.

Resolved, That we recommend to the Sunday school workers throughout the state the observance of a normal week with teachers and officers, and the adoption of a course of study for the normal work of the Sunday school. The Bible text for the study, Deut. 6:6-9. The Bible study in connection with preparing the lesson. Be what you want your scholars to be. If you want them to be good winners, expect to be. If you want to win souls, do personal work. Then, too, you must love your scholars. If your scholars know you love and sympathize with them, you can lead them where you will."

SENTENCED TO RUTLAND.

Joseph Canton of Barre Violated Nuisance Act—Other Dealers Guilty.

Montpelier, Nov. 8.—The case of State vs. Joseph Canton for keeping a liquor nuisance was taken up when County Court came in this morning and the State rested its case at about 11 o'clock. Witnesses for the State were Deputy Sheriff Wilbur Shepard, Deputy Sheriff H. D. Camp, deputy Sheriff Burt Slayton, Chief of Police Patrick Brown, officers Perry and Chapman and Mr. Kelley. The respondent offered no evidence and the arguments were made so that the case went to the jury at 12:30. Some time was spent in the afternoon by the jury came in and reported a verdict of guilty. The case of State vs. Harry Barrette is now on trial. The respondent is a young man charged in complaint with selling liquor to Edward Lang's son Merton. Police with selling cider from the cellar of Edward Lang's in Plainfield.

At law all person except the court room is ordered vacated on account of the nuisance. The evidence in this case shows that there were quite a number of people in and out of the place during the two months they had been there. Counsel for the defendant claim that there was no evidence that the cider was sold to Merton Lang, but the evidence shows that Merton Lang was in the place and was seen to come out with a pitcher in his hand and go home. The case will go to the jury this afternoon.

ALL WRONG.

The Mistake Is Made By Many Burlington Citizens.

Don't mistake the cause of backache.

To be cured you must know the cause.

It is wrong to imagine relief is cure.

Backache is kidney ache.

You must cure the kidneys

A Burlington resident tells you how this can be done.

Mr. Henry L. Bartholomew, machinist of 187 Bank street, says: Doan's Kidney Pills put me on my feet after a severe attack of kidney complaint. A pain centered in my loins and all that part of my body ached if I stooped or straightened from sitting position. For five years I was subject to spells of this kind which were always worse during bad weather when one is liable to contract colds. When the last attack occurred I went to Henderson's drug store and got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills. I have already told you that they put me on my feet. I most heartily endorse Doan's Kidney Pills."
