THE undersigned having lately erected and got in full and successful operation, a splendid Steam Saw Mill, on Big Black, between Bowles' and Williams' Ferry; about 25 miles North-east from Canton; beg leave to inform those who wish to purchase lumber of any description, that they are now prepared to execute orders for any amount at the shortest notice, and at as low rates as it can be obtained in the country.—They will sell lumber and deliver it in rafts at any point on Big Black when a sufficient quantity may be required to justify the expense. SHARON COLLEGE AND FEMALE ACADEMY.

THESE Institutions have just closed their Collegiate term under the most promising circumstances. The Trustees are confident that the recent examinations gave full and entire satisfaction to the numerous and intelligent assembly, which witnessed it, of the ability and faithfulness of the Instructors who are employed in the Institutions. They therefore confidently expect a continuance and an increase of that patronage which has been heretofore so liberally bestowed. The next term commences the first Monday in October and terminates with the last week of February.

Rev. Alexander Campbell, President of both Institutions.

College Department.

Rev. Richard Beard, Professor of Ancient Languages.

Wm. L. Williford, Professor elect of Mathematics and Natural Philosophy.

John F. Little, Teacher of the Preparatory School.

In the Female Department.

Rev. H. W. Smith, Principal.

Dr. C. S. Brown, Assistant Teacher.

Mrs. H. W. Smith, Instructress in French, Italian, and the Ornamental Branches.

Miss Stratton, Assistant.

Mr. C. Brachus, Teacher of Music.

As both Institutions were founded by the same persons and are under the direction of the same Board of Trustees, it was thought better to have them under the supervision of the same presiding officer. In other respects, however, they are totally separate. No intercourse is tolerated, on any account, between the pupils of the two, unless by the direction and under the management of the Faculty and Trustees. The Trustees wish the public to know that this regulation will be strictly enforced.

The rules of both Institutions are designed to be strict, but not unreasonable, and a strict conformity to them will of course be exacted as far as possible from every pupil both Male and Female.

It is wished, however, and intended by the Trustees and Faculty, to make the government of the Institutions parental. Kindness and tenderness are to be mingled with strictness, and even with punishment, when punishment is necessary. The principles and precepts of our holy religion are required to be taught and practised in the Institutions, and for this purpose, the Bible is made a text book, but every thing sectarian is excluded.

The Trustees are sorry to learn that reports have gone abroad, unfavorable to the moral character of these Institutions, and to feel themselves under the necessity of adding that such reports are utterly without foundation. On the other hand they are satisfied that public confidence in the character, management, and prospects of the Institutions, as far as they are known, has never been so great as it is now, and they are fully satisfied that this confidence is not misplaced.

In conclusion, the Trustees would suggest that they feel themselves to have engaged an arduous, but good work.

The unparalleled pecuniary difficulties of the country must of necessity embarrass and retard them very much in carrying out their plan. They nevertheless do not despair of placing these Institutions among the very first of this great valley. They are confident of deserving the patronage of a liberal and intelligent public, and are equally confident that they will receive it.
