

THURSDAY MORNING, October 7th, 1889.

EXPLANATORY.—From pressure on our space this week, we have been compelled to crowd out, not only certain editorial tracts of our own, which the world can well contrive to do without, but also articles of more importance, among others, an excellent contribution from our fair Washington correspondent.

Democratic Rally on Saturday

In addition to the presence of Gov. Hamilton at our meeting in Leonardtown on Saturday next, the 9th inst., we are able to state positively that Gen. Chapman, Hon. E. W. W. Bowie, Hon. T. J. Keating and Dr. Henkle will also be present.

Committee on Reception.—James H. Wilson, J. T. M. Raley, Giles F. Dyer, Jas. A. Camaler, John G. Perry.

Committee on Arrangements.—Jno. F. Fenwick, Herbert F. Moore, Robert A. Young, B. R. Abell, Dr. J. Randolph Walton.

Committee on Finance.—J. Frank Ford, J. Simms Fenwick, Charles J. Norris, Thos. Boyd, Enoch B. Abell.

THE GOVERNMENT VS THE PEOPLE.

The multiplication of national office-holders and the vast increase of their influence in the country by their activity in politics have of late years attracted much attention among thoughtful men and are at last beginning to excite alarm.

After such a confession as this from Judge Black, Garfield's adviser, what must the country think of a man who deliberately swore before the Poland committee January 14th, 1873,

"I never owned, received, or agreed to receive any stock of the Credit Mobilier or of the Union Pacific Railroad, nor any dividends or profits arising from either of them?"

St. James's, Oct. 14th, 1889.

Editors.—I noticed in the Baltimore Daily Sun of the 23rd of September, ult., a card from Hon. John N. Graves in which he attempts to make correction of the report made by this paper of the proceedings of the Convention held at Laurel on the 19th of September. In that card he claims that I did not put the name of Hon. Fred. Stone in nomination, but that he did, and that I was guilty of the crime of not mentioning his name.

BLACK ON GARFIELD.—

We promised in our last paper to publish the letter of Judge Black, addressed to the late democratic meeting in New York, if we could make room for it. We find that we shall be forced to content ourselves with extracts, and these we make from those portions of the letter which refer to Mr. Garfield's connection with the Louisiana fraud and the Credit Mobilier corruption fund.

Mr. Tilden was elected in 1876.—A false return was the only recourse against him. I do not believe that Gen. Garfield, if left alone, would commit an election fraud any more than he would steal a horse or a sheep.

managers of his party demanded his aid in a great swindle he could not refuse. Under that coercion he went down to Louisiana and there found it absolutely certain that the Tilden electors had been 'duly appointed' at a legal and full poll, so peacefully conducted that there was not even a squabble about it in the whole State.

Upon the Credit Mobilier, Judge Black also says:

This liability to be rushed into evil courses by his party associates has brought him much odium, which he does not deserve in the transactions of the Credit Mobilier. The stock distributed by Oakes Ames was intended to influence the legislation of Congress corruptly.

When the laws can act, every other mode of punishing supposed crimes is itself an enormity. "On crime," Hancock would not voluntarily commit the "crime" of "crime" if he were willing, nay, anxious to do it and to have it done, and his very enormity seemed to accord with the very spirit of the man.

When the laws can act, every other mode of punishing supposed crimes is itself an enormity. "On crime," Hancock would not voluntarily commit the "crime" of "crime" if he were willing, nay, anxious to do it and to have it done, and his very enormity seemed to accord with the very spirit of the man.

After such a confession as this from Judge Black, Garfield's adviser, what must the country think of a man who deliberately swore before the Poland committee January 14th, 1873,

St. James's, Oct. 14th, 1889.

Editors.—I noticed in the Baltimore Daily Sun of the 23rd of September, ult., a card from Hon. John N. Graves in which he attempts to make correction of the report made by this paper of the proceedings of the Convention held at Laurel on the 19th of September.

After such a confession as this from Judge Black, Garfield's adviser, what must the country think of a man who deliberately swore before the Poland committee January 14th, 1873,

Red, White and Blue!

For the evening year Apply to THOS. A. LYVCH, Great Mills, Md.

Monday, Oct. 11th, 1889.

Managers of his party demanded his aid in a great swindle he could not refuse. Under that coercion he went down to Louisiana and there found it absolutely certain that the Tilden electors had been 'duly appointed' at a legal and full poll, so peacefully conducted that there was not even a squabble about it in the whole State.

Upon the Credit Mobilier, Judge Black also says:

This liability to be rushed into evil courses by his party associates has brought him much odium, which he does not deserve in the transactions of the Credit Mobilier. The stock distributed by Oakes Ames was intended to influence the legislation of Congress corruptly.

When the laws can act, every other mode of punishing supposed crimes is itself an enormity. "On crime," Hancock would not voluntarily commit the "crime" of "crime" if he were willing, nay, anxious to do it and to have it done, and his very enormity seemed to accord with the very spirit of the man.

After such a confession as this from Judge Black, Garfield's adviser, what must the country think of a man who deliberately swore before the Poland committee January 14th, 1873,

St. James's, Oct. 14th, 1889.

Editors.—I noticed in the Baltimore Daily Sun of the 23rd of September, ult., a card from Hon. John N. Graves in which he attempts to make correction of the report made by this paper of the proceedings of the Convention held at Laurel on the 19th of September.

After such a confession as this from Judge Black, Garfield's adviser, what must the country think of a man who deliberately swore before the Poland committee January 14th, 1873,

Red, White and Blue!

For the evening year Apply to THOS. A. LYVCH, Great Mills, Md.

Monday, Oct. 11th, 1889.

Managers of his party demanded his aid in a great swindle he could not refuse. Under that coercion he went down to Louisiana and there found it absolutely certain that the Tilden electors had been 'duly appointed' at a legal and full poll, so peacefully conducted that there was not even a squabble about it in the whole State.

Upon the Credit Mobilier, Judge Black also says:

This liability to be rushed into evil courses by his party associates has brought him much odium, which he does not deserve in the transactions of the Credit Mobilier. The stock distributed by Oakes Ames was intended to influence the legislation of Congress corruptly.

When the laws can act, every other mode of punishing supposed crimes is itself an enormity. "On crime," Hancock would not voluntarily commit the "crime" of "crime" if he were willing, nay, anxious to do it and to have it done, and his very enormity seemed to accord with the very spirit of the man.

After such a confession as this from Judge Black, Garfield's adviser, what must the country think of a man who deliberately swore before the Poland committee January 14th, 1873,

St. James's, Oct. 14th, 1889.

Editors.—I noticed in the Baltimore Daily Sun of the 23rd of September, ult., a card from Hon. John N. Graves in which he attempts to make correction of the report made by this paper of the proceedings of the Convention held at Laurel on the 19th of September.

After such a confession as this from Judge Black, Garfield's adviser, what must the country think of a man who deliberately swore before the Poland committee January 14th, 1873,

Red, White and Blue!

For the evening year Apply to THOS. A. LYVCH, Great Mills, Md.

Monday, Oct. 11th, 1889.

Managers of his party demanded his aid in a great swindle he could not refuse. Under that coercion he went down to Louisiana and there found it absolutely certain that the Tilden electors had been 'duly appointed' at a legal and full poll, so peacefully conducted that there was not even a squabble about it in the whole State.

Upon the Credit Mobilier, Judge Black also says:

This liability to be rushed into evil courses by his party associates has brought him much odium, which he does not deserve in the transactions of the Credit Mobilier. The stock distributed by Oakes Ames was intended to influence the legislation of Congress corruptly.

When the laws can act, every other mode of punishing supposed crimes is itself an enormity. "On crime," Hancock would not voluntarily commit the "crime" of "crime" if he were willing, nay, anxious to do it and to have it done, and his very enormity seemed to accord with the very spirit of the man.

After such a confession as this from Judge Black, Garfield's adviser, what must the country think of a man who deliberately swore before the Poland committee January 14th, 1873,

St. James's, Oct. 14th, 1889.

Editors.—I noticed in the Baltimore Daily Sun of the 23rd of September, ult., a card from Hon. John N. Graves in which he attempts to make correction of the report made by this paper of the proceedings of the Convention held at Laurel on the 19th of September.

After such a confession as this from Judge Black, Garfield's adviser, what must the country think of a man who deliberately swore before the Poland committee January 14th, 1873,

Red, White and Blue!

For the evening year Apply to THOS. A. LYVCH, Great Mills, Md.

Monday, Oct. 11th, 1889.

Managers of his party demanded his aid in a great swindle he could not refuse. Under that coercion he went down to Louisiana and there found it absolutely certain that the Tilden electors had been 'duly appointed' at a legal and full poll, so peacefully conducted that there was not even a squabble about it in the whole State.

Upon the Credit Mobilier, Judge Black also says:

This liability to be rushed into evil courses by his party associates has brought him much odium, which he does not deserve in the transactions of the Credit Mobilier. The stock distributed by Oakes Ames was intended to influence the legislation of Congress corruptly.

When the laws can act, every other mode of punishing supposed crimes is itself an enormity. "On crime," Hancock would not voluntarily commit the "crime" of "crime" if he were willing, nay, anxious to do it and to have it done, and his very enormity seemed to accord with the very spirit of the man.

After such a confession as this from Judge Black, Garfield's adviser, what must the country think of a man who deliberately swore before the Poland committee January 14th, 1873,

St. James's, Oct. 14th, 1889.

Editors.—I noticed in the Baltimore Daily Sun of the 23rd of September, ult., a card from Hon. John N. Graves in which he attempts to make correction of the report made by this paper of the proceedings of the Convention held at Laurel on the 19th of September.

After such a confession as this from Judge Black, Garfield's adviser, what must the country think of a man who deliberately swore before the Poland committee January 14th, 1873,

Red, White and Blue!

For the evening year Apply to THOS. A. LYVCH, Great Mills, Md.

Monday, Oct. 11th, 1889.

Managers of his party demanded his aid in a great swindle he could not refuse. Under that coercion he went down to Louisiana and there found it absolutely certain that the Tilden electors had been 'duly appointed' at a legal and full poll, so peacefully conducted that there was not even a squabble about it in the whole State.

Upon the Credit Mobilier, Judge Black also says:

This liability to be rushed into evil courses by his party associates has brought him much odium, which he does not deserve in the transactions of the Credit Mobilier. The stock distributed by Oakes Ames was intended to influence the legislation of Congress corruptly.

When the laws can act, every other mode of punishing supposed crimes is itself an enormity. "On crime," Hancock would not voluntarily commit the "crime" of "crime" if he were willing, nay, anxious to do it and to have it done, and his very enormity seemed to accord with the very spirit of the man.

After such a confession as this from Judge Black, Garfield's adviser, what must the country think of a man who deliberately swore before the Poland committee January 14th, 1873,

St. James's, Oct. 14th, 1889.

Editors.—I noticed in the Baltimore Daily Sun of the 23rd of September, ult., a card from Hon. John N. Graves in which he attempts to make correction of the report made by this paper of the proceedings of the Convention held at Laurel on the 19th of September.

After such a confession as this from Judge Black, Garfield's adviser, what must the country think of a man who deliberately swore before the Poland committee January 14th, 1873,

Red, White and Blue!

For the evening year Apply to THOS. A. LYVCH, Great Mills, Md.

Monday, Oct. 11th, 1889.

SUCCESS! WE ARE MARCHING ON! LARGE SALES! INCREASING IN POPULARITY! Finest Goods on the Continent! BEST MADE! MODERATE CHARGES! Celebrated for True Representation! New York One-Price Cash Clothing House 184 West Baltimore St., Opposite Light, Baltimore, Md.

LOCAL DOTTINGS. Commissioners' Court. We have been somewhat remiss in giving details of the proceedings of our Board of County Commissioners, owing to other demands upon our space.

LOCAL DOTTINGS. Commissioners' Court. We have been somewhat remiss in giving details of the proceedings of our Board of County Commissioners, owing to other demands upon our space.

LOCAL DOTTINGS. Commissioners' Court. We have been somewhat remiss in giving details of the proceedings of our Board of County Commissioners, owing to other demands upon our space.

LOCAL DOTTINGS. Commissioners' Court. We have been somewhat remiss in giving details of the proceedings of our Board of County Commissioners, owing to other demands upon our space.

LOCAL DOTTINGS. Commissioners' Court. We have been somewhat remiss in giving details of the proceedings of our Board of County Commissioners, owing to other demands upon our space.

LOCAL DOTTINGS. Commissioners' Court. We have been somewhat remiss in giving details of the proceedings of our Board of County Commissioners, owing to other demands upon our space.

LOCAL DOTTINGS. Commissioners' Court. We have been somewhat remiss in giving details of the proceedings of our Board of County Commissioners, owing to other demands upon our space.

LOCAL DOTTINGS. Commissioners' Court. We have been somewhat remiss in giving details of the proceedings of our Board of County Commissioners, owing to other demands upon our space.

LOCAL DOTTINGS. Commissioners' Court. We have been somewhat remiss in giving details of the proceedings of our Board of County Commissioners, owing to other demands upon our space.

LOCAL DOTTINGS. Commissioners' Court. We have been somewhat remiss in giving details of the proceedings of our Board of County Commissioners, owing to other demands upon our space.

LOCAL DOTTINGS. Commissioners' Court. We have been somewhat remiss in giving details of the proceedings of our Board of County Commissioners, owing to other demands upon our space.

LOCAL DOTTINGS. Commissioners' Court. We have been somewhat remiss in giving details of the proceedings of our Board of County Commissioners, owing to other demands upon our space.

LOCAL DOTTINGS. Commissioners' Court. We have been somewhat remiss in giving details of the proceedings of our Board of County Commissioners, owing to other demands upon our space.

LOCAL DOTTINGS. Commissioners' Court. We have been somewhat remiss in giving details of the proceedings of our Board of County Commissioners, owing to other demands upon our space.

LOCAL DOTTINGS. Commissioners' Court. We have been somewhat remiss in giving details of the proceedings of our Board of County Commissioners, owing to other demands upon our space.

LOCAL DOTTINGS. Commissioners' Court. We have been somewhat remiss in giving details of the proceedings of our Board of County Commissioners, owing to other demands upon our space.

LOCAL DOTTINGS. Commissioners' Court. We have been somewhat remiss in giving details of the proceedings of our Board of County Commissioners, owing to other demands upon our space.

LOCAL DOTTINGS. Commissioners' Court. We have been somewhat remiss in giving details of the proceedings of our Board of County Commissioners, owing to other demands upon our space.