PATSY BOWLER CALLED OUT TO STUMP STATE

LOCAL ATTORNEY DEPARTS THIS MORNING FOR NORTHERN PART OF NEVADA

Goldfield republicans engaged in a rousing meeting last night, according to Attorney P. M. Bowler of this city, who delivered the principal address of the evening at the meeting in the southern city. Senator N. V. Morehouse was scheduled to deliver the main address but he was called to Las Vegas yesterday morning. Mr. Bowler was then secured and he journeyed to the southern camp yesterday.

Bowler left this morning for Reno where he will report to the republican state central committee and deliver several addresses in that vicinity during the closing days of the campaign. The state central committee endeavored to secure Mr. Bowler's services several weeks ago, but the press of business prevented him from taking the stump.
