WOMAN NOMINATED FOR FEDERAL JOB IN SAN FRANCISCO

APPOINTMENT THAT CAUSES A SURPRISE TO CALIFORNIA DEMOCRATS.

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, June 16.—John B. Sanford, editor and proprietor of the Ukiah Dispatch, Democrat, the oldest member of the California legislature in point of service, was nominated today by the president for register of the land office at San Francisco.

Mrs. Grace Caukin, of Sonoma, was nominated for receiver of public moneys at San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 16.—Mrs. Caukin, if confirmed by the senate, will be the first woman in California to hold an appointive office under the present administration. She is secretary of the Democratic central committee and known as the original Wilson woman of northern California and organizer of the Woman's Wilson league. She was the first woman to come forward after women got a vote to attend meetings and take active part in politics.

BUTTE'S MEN GO BACK TO WORK TROUBLE BREWS

MINERS' UNION OFFICIALS AWAY FROM SCENE AND OUT OF SIGHT.

BUTTE, Mont., June 16.—With Governor Stewart in the city conducting an investigation of the lawlessness of the last two days and all local authorities making every effort to restore calm in the ranks of Butte's 9,000 miners, the city was quiet today.

Men were at work in all the mines. In the Speculator, one of the largest mines in the city, 90 per cent of the day shift was reported at work.

In the Black Rock and the Butte and Superior, nearly all the shift went down this morning. It was at these properties that the trouble was precipitated last Friday. No officials of the Butte union of the Western Federation of Miners were present to protest against the men who failed to show their union cards.

Officials of the union have not appeared since they fled, when the parade was broken up on Miners' Union day. It is believed no protest will be made for the present, thus avoiding further trouble and keeping the mines in operation until some understanding can be reached.

In the meantime the seceders from the union are planning to get out a large vote on Wednesday, when the miners will cast their ballots on this question:

"Shall we refuse to show Western Federation cards at all the mines?"

A committee of the seceders called on the chief of police today, urging him to trace the miner to whom was entrusted $1,200, the contents of the miners' union safe, which was blown open by the seceders Saturday night.

FORMER VICE-PRESIDENT BURIED AT OLD HOME

BULLION STRIKE IS NOT SUSTAINED

The recent strike at Bullion was given wide publicity and the Free Press in its published statements but gave the news that was obtainable. It now develops that while the body of ore is large the values are nil, and a number of assays taken by different people give a return of no values in either copper or gold and but a fraction of an ounce in silver. These assays were taken from the surface and a number of experts who have been out to the strike all say that the ore zone has every appearance of making good, but there is no getting away from the fact that the ore does not carry any value on the surface. It remains to be seen whether development at depth will prove that the values have leached out on the surface and that the values will increase with depth. It is another instance where an excitement was created before any development work had been done, and it is these ill-timed excitements that injure a camp.

The strike is located but a few miles from the Bullion camp, and the main thing that influenced the public to believe in the rumor was the fact that Bullion is an old established camp, where it has been demonstrated that the ore carries values at great depth and in almost every instance where the ore was found on the surface the values increased in the shaft. This report going broadcast that the strike is a bloomer is apt to give the camp a black eye and Bullion does not deserve it. There is more ore in sight and on the dumps of Bullion than in the mapority of camps in the state. A steady stream of teams and trucks are on the road from the camp to the railroad carrying ore that gives a good substantial return to the miners, and what is still better, every day's work is developing more ore.

FIRST RATE ADVICE TO SCHOOL TEACHERS

State Superintendent Hyatt has sent out a circular letter advising school teachers to keep the newspapers posted as to what the schools are doing. Publicity, he tells the teachers, is beneficial to the schools. And he adds that it will do the teachers good to study and to acquire the newspaper style of telling things.

Mr. Hyatt's head is level. The average school teacher writes in the stilted fashion of the Correct Letter Writer. If beyond the influence of that noble work, Addison or Steele or Mrs. Jamieson are models. The result is painfully apparent in the pupils, most of whom can't write at all.

"The so-called "newspaper English" is the best English. It is the live language of live persons. It is the mirror of present-day thought, which is the sole function of living speech. It is written every day by men who have both the sense and the scholarship to perceive its appropriateness and its virility. It is sneered at only by educated dunces, whose feeble thoughts must be dressed out in swelling phrases to conceal their lack of wit, originally or usefulness.

The style of the pedant is too common in our schools. It is a very absurd style. It is never used by men in whose skulls are tucked away big brains and the spoils of many forays into the fields of knowledge and of great literature.—San Francisco Examiner.

ARTILLERY DUEL GOING ON WITH MOSLEM TROOPS

ALBANIA CAPITAL BRAVELY DEFENDED WITH GREAT BRAVERY.

(By Associated Press.)

DURAZZA, Albania, June 16.—Another attack on the Albanian capital was made by Muselman insurgents, when heavy artillery was brought to bear on the defending force commanded by Prince William.

The guns of the attacking force were soon located in the vicinity of Razbul, and artillerymen of the garrison quickly found range. The opposing forces then engaged in an artillery duel. Bluejackets from the international fleet took positions in the neighborhood of the foreign legations, and erected barricades around the royal palace.

BEER BOTTLES TO HAVE NEW LABELS

FEDERAL LAW REQUIRES THAT THE CONTENTS BE GIVEN IN A CORRECT MANNER.

Notices are being prepared by S. C. Dinsmore, state food and drug commissioner, also head of the weights and measure department, for the benefit of the manufacturers in Nevada of the federal net weight law which goes into effect September 1, says the Reno Journal.

The new law will prohibit the sale of a quart of beer, a quart of milk, a pound of tea or a pound of baking powder or any other product when the net weight or net contents is not what it is represented to be. In certain respects this law has been in existence for several years, being covered by the state law, but the federal restrictions are slightly more stringent than the Nevada statutes.

Containers of articles of food or drink must actually contain one pound or one quart when sold as a quart or pound.

"When one purchases a quart of beer one really receives one and one-half pints of beer," declared Commissioner Dinsmore yesterday in explaining the federal requirements after September 1. "We will send all manufacturers in the state notice of the federal net weight law and rules of the state commission. This will enable the manufacturers to buy containers for their products which will actually hold one quart or one pound or whatever size desired, or have prepared the proper labels to designate the weight or measure of the contents of containers which are now represented to contain one quart or one pound, but which really contain less than a quart or pound."

In accordance with the federal requirements the customary beer bottle, best known as the quart bottle, will bear the label announcing it contains in beer but one and one-half pints. The enlargement of the bottle will not be undertaken it is believed, although such action would not be adverse to the wishes of those who indulge in this beverage.

HAULS MAIL AND PARCELS POST TONOPAH TO MANHATTAN.

Advices from Washington this morning notified Charles Wittenberg that he had been awarded the contract for carrying the mails between Tonopah and Manhattan, the service to begin on the first of July. This contract is based on a rearrangement of the service owing to the heavy run of parcel post matter and the new contractor proposes putting on a special light truck to accommodate that class of business.
