ALLIES ALLEGED TO TAMPER WITH MAIL

(By Associated Press.)

BERLIN, Aug. 6.—The government reports the possession of constantly increasing evidence that the allies are tampering with mail, not only for Germany from neutral countries, but also for neutral countries from neutral countries.

Private letters from Brazil to Switzerland, from America to Switzerland, and from Spain to Switzerland, have arrived, it is said, opened and bearing a label with the words: "Ouvert par l'Autorite Militaire." Protests that this is a breach of international law have been unavailing thus far.

ENGLISH COINAGE BEING PLANNED

MOVEMENT WILL BE AID TO SILVER

HERMAN ZADIG AS OPTIMISTIC AS EVER REGARDING THE OUTLOOK FOR TONOPAH

Herman Zadig, the San Francisco mine promoter and broker, who arrived in Tonopah yesterday on an inspection trip, gave the Bonanza the following interview:

"While the stock market has been very dull, I feel just as optimistic regarding the future of Tonopah and Goldfield as ever. A letter from London which I saw a few days ago renders me very confident as to the outlook. It states that English people with money to invest are eager to place it in gold or silver properties, particularly in the United States. They believe that silver is due for a material advance before long.

The letter states that a movement is on foot to pay all workmen in silver instead of paper money, which will necessitate extensive coinage. Mr. Zadig also states that there is a plan being prepared to hold a convention of all mining exchanges in San Francisco during the month of September about the time that the mining engineers will hold their session.

He said: "The day before I left San Francisco Mr. Cutting appeared before the governing board and explained the importance of holding such a meeting. It was partly decided at that session to send W. C. Ralston east to interview the presidents of the various exchanges. The New York Consolidated exchange has already sanctioned the movement and I believe that if the board decides to send Mr. Ralston east he will succeed in bringing the convention about. I think such a meeting will be of great interest and benefit to the brokerage business. I can see no reason why a mining stock exchange shouldn't be factor in development of the country looked upon as just as important as the New York Stock exchange or the Chicago Board of Trade.

"While here I visited the Rescue, North Star, Tonopah Bonanza and Umatilla, as well as went through the West End. While I have no important developments to announce, I should say that I look for something new in each of these properties at almost any time. I think and consider these stocks are good buys at the present low prices.

"My visit to the West End was certainly a surprise. I had no idea that they had such an immense body of ore. The stockholders certainly ought to be congratulated for having the property under the charge of such a man as Mr. Chandler. I am not saying this to boost Mr. Chandler. He doesn't need any boosting. I am only saying this to let the stockholders who do not know about the property realize that they are interested in a big proposition, and that it is under the charge of a man who knows his business. I am leaving for Goldfield and when I return I hope that the mine superintendents and the brokers will be too busy to talk to me."

SHOOTING AFFRAY AT SEVEN TROUGHS CAMP

Word has been received here from Seven Troughs that Sam O'Connell had been shot by a man named Earle, better known as the "Cyanide Kid." It is said that O'Connell had a lease on a tailings dump and Earle claimed he was trespassing and shot at him. Earle claims that he fired only into the ground, after he had warned O'Connell not to enter the premises. Earle was arrested and his preliminary has been set for next Monday. District Attorney Powell will represent the state and L. G. Campbell of this place the defendant at the examination.—Humboldt Star.

The jury impaneled by Coroner Dunseath to inquire into the death of Jack Wiley, who shot himself through the heart Wednesday afternoon in his room at the A. B. C. lodging house, late yesterday afternoon brought in the following verdict:

His dying request was that he should be buried here. Relatives in the east sent money and local friends assisted. The funeral took place this afternoon at 2 o'clock from Wonacott & Cavanaugh's undertaking parlors and the interment was in the Tonopah cemetery. The services were conducted by Rev. R. W. Bayless.

Mrs. J. F. Brady, who was so seriously burned several days ago by the ignition of gasoline in which she was cleaning garments at the home of her sister, Mrs. Lou Walker, will shortly be able to leave her bed. WOMEN OF JAPAN TAKE THE INITIATIVE

(By Associated Press.)

TOKIO, August 6.—Japanese women have taken the initiative in two important activities. The first is the formation of a woman's exchange which is devoted to the encouragement of the making of articles for home use. The women have opened an exhibition in one of the big department stores and have sent out requests to the women of the country to send in their home-made articles to the exhibition. The contributions are sold and the profits are forwarded to the exhibitors. The project was originated by Baroness Uryu, wife of Admiral Uryu, who recently returned from the exposition at San Francisco, and is supported by a number of prominent Japanese ladies.

DELAY CAUSED TO PLANS OF FLORENCE

NEW SHEAVE WHEEL AND SKIPS DESTROYED IN FIRE AT TONOPAH

The completion of the installation of the new gallows frame on the main working shaft of the Florence mine will be delayed about thirty days as a direct result of the fire that recently destoyed the Campbell and Kelly foundry and machine shop in Tonopah. The sheave wheel for the new frame and the new two-ton skips for the shaft had just been completed by the workmen employed there but had not been dispatched from the plant, with the result that they were badly damaged and will have to be duplicated. General Superintendent Harry B. Clapp estimates that deliveries will be made and the new frame completed within the time named, says the Tribune.

The operations in the mine during June yielded 40 tons of ore averaging in value around $18 per ton, which was marketed through the Western Ore Purchasing company. The shipments were extracted from stopes A, B, and C on the "new" vein on the 250-foot level north of the shaft in the old Florence Consolidated lease territory. Work in stope A was recently stopped, the ore being extracted up to the top of the shoot, more than 140 feet above the level. Operations, however, continue in B and C stopes, which are yielding about four feet of ore assaying from $15 to $28 per ton.

PRINCE CONSOLIDATED FORWARDS 51 CARS

The shipments forwarded to the Utah smelters by the Prince Consolidated company this week amounted to 51 carloads, two of which were high grade lead ore. Good progress is being made with the work of sinking the shaft from the lower level of the mine and the depth attained yesterday below this level was 110 feet. The pumps are handling about 100 gallons of water per minute.—Pioche Record.

Alexander C. Young, who had a meteoric career in Reno several years ago as an alleged lawyer and newspaper man, is once more in trouble at Sacramento, where he has been arrested on a charge of issuing fraudulent checks. DEATH OF A FORMER RESIDENT OF TONOPAH

MRS. MARY O'DONNELL PASSES AWAY AT LOS ANGELES RECENTLY

Mrs. Mary O'Donell, who left here about six weeks ago, passed away at Los Angeles, last Saturday, says an exchange. It will be remembered that she left here with her son George in hopes of receiving benefit through climatic change. While she rallied for a brief period she soon relapsed into her former condition, growing gradually weaker until the end came.

Mrs. O'Donnell was born in Virginia August 6, 1843. She is survived by her sons George and Tom, both of whom are well known here. The funeral services were held in Los Angeles Monday and interment made in the Odd Fellows' cemetery there.

During her residence here of about two years, Mrs. O'Donell made many friends with her neighbors who readily recognized in her an exceptionally strong character and patient sufferer and the news of her death will be received with sorrow.

J. C. ROBERTSON GUILTY

The man who originates a Ford story is a criminal, the fellow who passes it along is beyond the possibility of redeeming grace, but, for a chance, here is one that Jim Robertson pulled off this morning in his brokerage office when asked what sort of a car he intended to purchase: "The only one I can—afford."

EUROPEAN WAR PUTS MANY MEN TO WORK

(By Associated Press.)

YORK England, Aug. 6.—Even in the remotest villages the European war has brought the pressure of wartime business, and the workman who is not occupied to the limit of his endurance is idle from choice rather than from lack of opportunity. The charcoal burners, for instance, were never so busy at their smoky forest occupation; they can scarcely finish the charges in their ovens fast enough for the makers of black powder. The osier beds which border hundreds of small streams in the interior of England are shorn close for the first time owing to the demand for osiers to make the baskets and cases in which shells are packed for transportation to the front.

AMUSEMENTS

BUTLER THEATER

Tonight's program at the Butler will consist of a five-reel Paramount production "The Morals of Marcus." In this delightful film production Marie Doro lifts her pretty self into engaging eminence as one of the greatest stars of the present day. Although at many moments throughout the production the tears start unbidden, the major element of the play is humorous, and the finale is such that one leaves the theater feeling that he has been privileged to look upon a beautiful bit of life and goes away better for the privilege. The production has been superbly mounted under the direction of Charles Frohman, and is altogether an auspicious occasion. The story is one of the most popular plots of modern literature, concerns the sweetly, pathetic heroine, slender built and soulful eyes, and her strange experiences in the home of the great strong man—Sir Marcus, where she spends her time peeping into the hearts and nibbling at the serious affairs of life. The varied environment of the production contrasting its exotic atmosphere of the Turkish harem with the freedom of English manners and customs adds another attraction to the picturesqueness of the subject.

The special reel will be the Pathe Weekly, which will be run ahead of the feature.—Adv.
