WHAT DOTH HE PROFIT?

THERE is a little runt of a Populist who now claims to be a Democrat, and he runs a weakly newspaper in Carson City, to which he pays more attention and devotes more time than he does to the performance of duties for which he is adequately, even ultra-liberally, paid by the United States. He uses this rag to develop his political prestige, sending it through the mails for less than the cost of the sullied paper upon which it is printed. This fellow should be neglected by the newspapers of Nevada which hold political views differing from those which provide him with the pork, pie and piffle. Let's quit quoting him, for any comment, favorable or adverse, is water upon his wheel. If the administration is willing to permit a person to hold a federal position and at the same time devote his energies to a private enterprise, it might be well to rule that postmasters be permitted to similarly engage themselves.

CLEAR AWAY THE DISHES

ONCE upon a time the fathers of our country voted in convention assembled in Independence Hall in Philadelphia that, instead of colonies, they represented thirteen free and independent states, and the clangor of the Liberty Bell ruffled the calm flowing Delaware. Each year the episode is celebrated and Tonopah does its part nobly. It flings banners to the breeze. It has music by the band and oratory and sports and patriotic ebullescence of all kinds.

But that has nothing to do with the fact that the celebrators are better cooks that dishwashers. They prepare the fiesta but do not remove the crumbs and fragments of the loaves and fishes. It is now nearly half a year since Independence Day was last celebrated and there still remain the rags of bunting on electric light poles and there are wires still pendant from building to building. If there is any money left in the Fourth of July fund it might be well expended in getting rid of the unsightly fragments of the feast of fun we had last summer.

OUR OLD HOME TOWN

ONE may take journeys nowadays at the movies without leaving his abiding place. The most pleasing trip is not to a hitherto unvisited region, but one back to his erstwhile place of residence, around which cling sacred memories. There are many people in Tonopah who hitherto lived in the beautiful metropolis of the state, Reno. They were able to journey back yesterday when the Hughes pictures were presented at the Butler. There were the stately buildings, the familiar faces, the waving tree limbs and the green sward. It was almost like really going home. The screen is proving not merely an educator but a reminder, a something that fills the void where treasured recollections are realized and makes the sigh of longing one of satiation.

IN LATIN AMERICA

NOTHING has recently occasioned greater amusement in the east than President Wilson's declaration apropos of the Latin-American republics, that "For the first time in my recollection they are beginning to trust in us and want us, and one of my chief concerns has been to see that nothing was done that did not show friendship and good faith on our part."

In the light of his own invasion of Vera Cruz, his unreasoning decree that "Huerta must go," his employment of force in San Domingo and Haytj, even compelling the latter country by force of arms to change its constitution to suit his views, and his present menacing attitude toward Nicaragua, Mr. Wilson's declarations strike the people who are in close touch with Latin-America, and the views of the people there, as ludicrous. The view entertained here—it is more than a view, it is a conviction—is that no president has done so much, or done it so effectively, as Mr. Wilson, to alienate Latin-American friendship and to destroy confidence in the good faith of the United States among the people of South and Central America.

CLIPPED AND CREDITED

Germany claims that her military position is unimpaired. She can't claim that for her prestige.—Birmingham Ledger.

But just think of the loss we would all sustain if Mary Pickford and Blanche Sweet should be elected to congress.—Waco Times Herald.

Henry Ford has sued the Chicago Tribune for $1,000,000 for libel. Gee, Henry, are you ever going to expect the newspaper to pay you for the privilege of advertising yourself?—Houston Post.

The crown prince hasn't been fired yet. Maybe the kaiser is afraid of family trouble.—Toledo Blade.

After this cruel war is over it will take a mighty long time to find out why it ever was.—Cincinnati Tribune.

We see by the papers that Senor Villa has made another successful attack on New London.—Boston Transcript.

We have an idea that King Constantine of Greece would give his kingdom for a Ford and a passport.—Boston Journal.

Another thing—if the Rumanians capture Transylvania, how would they like to trade is for Pennsylvania?—Dallas News.

Our observation is that a woman doesn't recognize the eight hour law when she is getting ready to start her six children to school.—Galveston News.

If it is true that Henry Ford is now making a million dollars a week, he will make two millions the week he collects what he has sued the Chicago Tribune for.—Dalls News.

The French have shot a German woman guilty of espionage, as the Germans shot Edith Cavell in Belgium, but the English papers have not yet begun to denounce the French for their barbarity.—Philadelphia Ledger.

WHEN WILL JOHNNY COME MARCHING HOME?

—Carter in New York Evening Sun.

THE STROLLER

BY L. B. (LETSON BALLJET)

For some years I have occasionally written short articles for publication in various papers under this head. Some have been intended to amuse, and some to make the readers think. Never are they intended to offend. Friendship comes from kindness, and I think I have many friends among the readers of this paper, and I hope to make more. If my views differ from yours, I grant you the right to your views just as freely as I claim the right to my own. If your politics differ from mine, you have every right to your own convictions, the same as I have to mine, and I will still be your friend, without regard to politics, religion, race, color, nationality or occupation. I shall pay for this space at advertising rates and thus be sure it will not be crowded out by more important matter.

MR. CHAS. SLAVIN, sheriff and
• • •
ASSESSOR, Tonopah, Nevada.
• • •
MY DEAR Charlie:
• • •
YOU HAVEN'T answered my last
• • •
LETTER YET, and there are
• • •
SOME MORE questions I want to
• • •
ASK YOU. I have been told
• • •
ONE HUNDRED times that Billy
• • •
WALKER, your deputy assessor,
• • •
ASSESSED every automobile in
• • •
NYE COUNTY at 80 per cent of the
• • •
FACTORY COST, except his own
• • •
FIFTEEN HUNDRED dollar car.
• • •
WHICH he put in his mother's
• • •
NAME so that she could demand
• • •
WIDOW'S EXEMPTION on $1000.
• • •
IS IT TRUE? I see by the
• • •
PUBLISHED tax list that Billy
• • •
ASSESSED himself as worth 100
• • •
DOLLARS only. That's why I ask.
• • •
OTHER PEOPLE pay $48 taxes on
• • •
FIFTEEN HUNDRED dollar cars
• • •
WITHOUT drawing a salary from
• • •
THE COUNTY. I have been told
• • •
THAT WALKER gets paid for
• • •
THE USE OF his machine besides
• • •
HIS SALARY. Is it true?
• • •
IF HIS CAR earns money why
• • •
SHOULDN'T HE pay taxes too?
• • •
COULDN'T the county taxes
• • •
BE REDUCED on other people
• • •
IF YOU'D make Billy Walker
• • •
PAY TAXES like other people?
• • •
I HEARD that Billy Walker
• • •
HAS MONEY in the bank and
• • •
THAT HE LENDS money to county
• • •
OFFICIALS when they are short.
• • •
(AT INTEREST, of course.)
• • •
SHOULDN'T his bank account
• • •
AND MONEY loaned out be taxed?
• • •
IF YOU'D find some of these
• • •
THINGS you could help
• • •
REDUCE TAXES. When I told
• • •
THE CITIZENS that I could
• • •
INCREASE EFFICIENCY in office
• • •
I ALSO SAID I'd show them
• • •
SOME OF THE leaks that were
• • •
EXISTING.
• • •
I THANK you.
