

Local Dettings.

To Correspondents. We are in receipt of a new novel, entitled "Charm without Bitch," which we have not had time, as yet, to examine...

The druggist who insists now is lost for the winter. He should bring together some sweet oil and turpentine and bring out his cough cure at once.

Personal. We are pleased to see that Ex-Sheriff, Wm. Frank Ford, who was disabled a few weeks ago by the capture of his buggy, has sufficiently recovered from his mishap to attend to business.

Mrs. John Ryan & Co. will please accept our thanks for the very handsome volume of specimen type, cuts, and ornaments most so lately sent. The book is very useful to all printers.

Committed to Jail. On Monday last, Justice John Shadrack committed to jail, John L. Slateman, colored, charged with being a dangerous lunatic.

No Sale. The De Butt's property, which was offered at trustee's sale, on Tuesday last, by Messrs. Harris and Key, was withdrawn by account of insufficient bids.

Registration Officer Appointed. His Excellency, Gov. Hamilton, has appointed Mr. Henry A. Ford officer of registration for the 3rd election district of this county to fill the place vacated by the death of Joseph S. Ford.

Proposed Harbor Appropriations. In the estimates before the present Congress for cleaning out and making navigable the different harbors of the country, we notice Mr. Bay is a candidate for a $15,000 appropriation and St. Jerome's, in the lower part of the county, an aspirant for as much more.

Beatty Organs and Pianos. We learn that Major Beatty, of Washington, New Jersey, is receiving hundreds of orders for his Pianos and Organs for Christmas presents. We advise our readers to order early and avoid the rush.

Accident to a Finger. We regret to learn that Mr. Jas. C. Bean, of the 2nd district, whilst engaged fanning wheat last week, had his right forefinger caught in the cogs of the fan, and so badly lacerated that he amputated it on the spot.

Removal. Pleasant Hayden, our excellent and accommodating barber, has removed his shop from his old place of business to the new building lately erected by Dr. Spalding as a Drug Store and dwelling. Hayden occupies the Southernmost room, which has been tastefully fitted up, where he will be pleased to meet his old friends and customers.

May Seals. We have so wish to be intrusive, but we would like much to arrest the attention of the Editors of the Current Journal and the Maryland Independent long enough (they appear at present to be run-mad about politics) long enough to remind them, that Leonardtown has provided herself with May seals, capable of weighing from 2lbs. to four tons. Anything like this in Post Tobacco or Prince Frederick?

Lost and Found. A young friend of ours, who shall be nameless, met with the misfortune last week of losing his pocket-book, which contained his entire reserve fund for Christmas, and long and useful was the countenance he wore in consequence. Picture No. 1. The pocket-book, near the worn for absence, was subsequently found, and now the face of this young man looks "like a friend on Denmark," is lighted up with smiles of happiness and positively beams on the "gracious season" consisting. Picture No. 2, and "rah! for Christmas!"

Holiday Goods. As usual, Wm. J. Edelen & Co. have filled their store with a large assortment of goods, especially for the holidays. Besides staple and fine family groceries, fine old whiskeys, wines, rum, ready-made clothing, boots and shoes, and the indispensable good things for the Christmas dinner, they have a great variety of articles suitable for Christmas presents for the young and old, the grave and gay, the lively and severe. A large number of additional clerks have also been appointed, so that customers may be waited on with despatch.

Might Have Done Worse. A friend, who was complaining in our presence the other day of the steep rates for cattle freight from Patuxent to Baltimore, stated that he had recently paid $1 on a small calf. A bystander remarked, "Well, you might have done worse. If you had shipped by the Potomac, it is an even chance that you would have paid on somebody else's calf and that the freight would have exhausted the whole of it." As both shores patronize the Beacon, we thought it best not to commit ourselves by a laugh and we thereupon acquiesced our freight settlements by a call for "more copy."

Out of Order. The attention of our County Patrons is called to the condition of the Court House Pump, which has failed for several weeks past to afford an adequate supply of water for the use of the Jail and the different offices in the Court House. The trouble is, we hear, with the stock of the pump, which requires mending or replacing. Having, with many other families in this section of the Town, a personal interest in the pump aforesaid, we petition on behalf as well as public grounds to have it put in order.

At this bilious season the system needs cleaning to ward off the dread disease attending an early attack, and nothing can do it more effectually than J. M. Laroque's Anti-Bilious Bitters, manufactured by W. E. Thornton, Baltimore, Md. Sold by all druggists. $1 a bottle, or 25 cents a package.

Return of Dr. Spalding. Dr. A. Jack Spalding, whose visit to Baltimore in search of relief from a severe rheumatic attack, was referred to in our last, returned to his home in this place in Saturday night's boat, and though not much improved at his arrival, is now, we are glad to hear, comparatively relieved of pain and in a fair way of recovery. The attention and kindness of Baltimore friends to him during his visit to the city is spoken of by the Dr. in the warmest terms of gratitude. Though still a prisoner to the crutch, we notice that he is again visiting patients.

We have received from Messrs. E. Whitman, Sons & Co., an elegantly printed and well illustrated Catalogue, a book of 100 pages, full of instructive reading to farmers and horticulturists. It contains cuts and full descriptions, price, etc., of nearly all the implements and machines in use at the present time, many of which are novelties, a list of field and garden seeds and directions when and how to sow and cultivate the same, also a great variety of other articles in every day use. This is a work highly creditable to the popular firm, and it is advisable that every farmer should possess a copy, which will be supplied free by request of persons who desire to patronize this house. Enclose five cents for postage and get a copy.

Christmas Counter. The stores are beginning to remind us by their preparations and the displays they are making, that Christmas is on hand - only a few days off. There are other indications. There is a demand for eggs, also preparations for apple-toddy. We notice, moreover, that the juveniles are becoming inquisitive and are to be seen looking in at the store-windows and holding private consultations on the streets. Well, Christmas comes but once a year, and once we have all boys and girls our selves, nevertheless, it may be well to remark, that as Christmas comes this year on Sunday, it is expected that a proclamation will soon be issued by the President or Governor or both forbidding on Christmas day and during the holidays the use of fire-crackers or other explosive missiles under the severest penalties. Fire-crackers are contrary to the Constitution, subversive of our rights in the territories and directly in the teeth of the Dred Scott decision. All good boys will therefore avoid them.

Those Interested. We call the attention of our readers to the advertisements of Mr. T. M. Camalleri & Co., Mrs. D. C. Hammett, and of the "Excelsior" Clothing House of Baltimore. Parties wishing to purchase Christmas novelties, etc., would do well to call on Mrs. Hammett or Mr. Camalleri. They take pleasure in showing their goods and their prices are within the reach of all. St. Mary's countians visiting Baltimore, and wishing a good article of clothing, should go to the "Excelsior" on the corner of Baltimore and Light Streets. We guarantee that they will be suited both in quality and price. While our readers, however, are dealing with our above mentioned patrons, we do not wish them to forget that Capt. A. A. Lawrence has on hand, at the Big Brown Store, one of the finest stocks of Christmas goods ever brought to this village. The Captain always sells at bottom prices and in courtesy and polite attention to the wants of his customers cannot be excelled. He has also procured the assistance of Mr. E. F. Jones, an experienced salesman, who is anxious to receive calls from his many friends and the public generally. The advertisement of Messrs. Tucker & Bro. speaks for itself. Comment on our part is unnecessary.

Orphan's Court. Courts met on Tuesday last, the 13th instant, present Judges Milburn, Love and Tippet. Among other proceedings, were the following: James R. Alvey was appointed administrator of James Carter. The Court appointed John C. Herbert and T. W. Goods to appraise the personal estate of said deceased. The re-nunciation of Mrs. J. S. Tenneson to W. B. Tenneson was filed. The Court then appointed W. B. Tenneson administrator of A. C. Tenneson. Order for sale granted to W. B. Tenneson, adm. of A. C. Tenneson. The Court also granted an order for sale to Jas. R. Alvey, administrator of James Carter. The resignation of Peter R. Graves as messenger to the Court, being read in and accepted, the Court thereupon appointed John W. Gatson as his successor. Citations were issued to the Sheriff against John Hewitt, R. M. Edwards, Dan. Hammett and wife, John L. Greenwell, Wm. B. Redmond, Robt. Tarlton and Jas T. Milburn as witnesses in case of John B. Raley vs. Thos. Dent, adm. of Benj. Hewitt. Also, to Thos. Dent, adm., to return account of sales by the 2nd Tuesday in January, 1882. Also, citation to Robt. J. Bean to answer certain questions pertaining to case of Jas. H. Kliff vs. Thos. Dent, adm. of Benj. Hewitt. The Court then adjourned to the 2nd Tuesday in January, 1882.

Peterson's Magazine for January is the most popular number ever issued of that popular lady's book. There are two steel engravings, "Happy As A Queen," and "Playing At Doctor," the latter one of the most amusing of its kind we have almost ever seen. Besides these, there is a double-size, steel, Paris fashion plate, elegantly colored, a picture in itself; and also a very beautiful colored pattern for working in crewel: a "Sun Flower" design, an embellishment alone as expensive as the finest chamois. In all, there are about fifty engravings in the number, counting the wood engravings. The stories are all original, and by such writers as Mrs. Ann S. Stephens, Mrs. R. Harding Davis, Frank Lee Benedict, "Josiah Allen's Wife," Jane G. Austin, etc., etc., a galaxy that no other lady's book can show. There is also an illustrated article on "Paris And The Parisians," quite superior to what we generally see in magazines. With this number, appears a Supplement, a full-size diagram pattern for a Coat-Bodice for a lady, the best thing in fashion. This alone is worth the price of the number. "Peterson's" claims to combine more than any other monthly, being a magazine not only of literature, but of art and fashion also. Where only one magazine is taken, this seems to us, is the one to take. Where several are taken, "Peterson's" should be one of them. The price is astonishingly low, viz.: $2.00 a copy, for one year, postage paid. To clubs, it is lower still, viz.: four copies for $6.50, with an extra copy gratis to the person getting up the club, or five copies for $8.00, and both an extra copy and a superb premium mesozoid. "Hark, Don't Wake Them," or an elegant Photograph Album. Specimens of the magazine sent gratis to persons wishing to get up clubs. Every body ought to take "Peterson's" for 1882. Address CHAS. J. PETERSON, 306 Chestnut St., Philadelphia, Pa.

In Baltimore City on Thursday, the 8th instant, in St. Ignace Church by the Rev. Father John A. Morgan, S. J., brother of the groom, JOSEPH F. MORRIS to Miss LEIGH EDLEEN, both of this village.

At her residence in the 7th district, on Monday last, the 12th instant, Miss MARTHA FARR, May she rest in peace!

In the 10th, SARAH ELIZABETH, beloved wife of W. Scott Hammett, aged 35 years, 10 months and 5 days. May she rest in peace!

On Monday, December 12th, on St. George's Island, Capt. R. PIRAM CHESSEE, in the 80th year of his age.

At the residence of her husband near Park Hall, December 1st, 1881, after a brief illness, NANNIE E., beloved wife of J. Clark Cwood, aged 22 years and two months.

The mysterious tide of death has suddenly taken from us a most amiable and devoted lady. Alas! we are to give her up! A pearl of womanhood to hear no more the sweet accents of that friendly voice—to look no more upon that cheerful countenance. How selfishly we would call her back although "Nep I will say it myself, that work, of her irrepressible gain. But her task is finished, the gentle spirit has taken its flight assisted by the Omnipotent hand to a higher and purer world.

"Give sorrow words; the grief that does not speak Whispers the o'-fraught heart, and bids it break."

She was a devoted wife, mother and sister; a lively companion; full of courage and hope and possessing a youthful buoyancy that made her like a beam of sunshine.

She is not dead but lives. Like a dream she has passed away but it is only the body that is dead. Her character, full of many virtues, so simple and beautiful, will ever be enshrined in the hearts of all who knew her.

Our friends and devoted brothers and sisters and attached friends, be comforted for "God disposes of things aforesaid."

Weep not, therefore, that one so eminently worthy of divine favors should, in the bloom of womanhood and in the beginning of a happy and useful life, bid adieu to the cares, turmoil, and troubles of this life to be united with the saints of Heaven that attend around Him whose presence is everlasting bliss.

DR. BULL'S COUGH SYRUP. The great superiority of DR. BULL'S COUGH SYRUP over all other cough remedies is attested by the immense popular demand for that old established remedy.

NO Road Reports will be passed for any work done on Public Roads after December, 10th, 1881.
