AMUSEMENTS

HENRY B. WALTHALL AT THE BUTLER TODAY

Henry B. Walthall's splendid acting has never been more strongly emphasized than in the characterization of the man who took the greatest sporting chance in "A Splendid Hazard," which will be shown at the Butler today. The story tells briefly of the search of Karl Breitman, a man who believes himself to be the direct descendant of the former emperor, for a treasure buried on the island of Corsica which was to be used in restoring Napoleon from exile. Breitman, believing himself to be Napoleon VII, intended to take the treasure, overthrow the government of France and establish once more the Napoleonic regime. Run through this photodrama is a tremendous love story, a story of a woman's sacrifice for a man, a story of unrequited love. There is also in it all the thrill of adventure for which the Harold MacGrath stories are famous. Henry B. Walthall, who has not been seen here in some time, will be remembered from "The Birth of a Nation," from Joseph Dowling, who appeared in "The Miracle Man," will be seen in this production. You will see some people scaling in a story so unusual as it is truly startling.

Added to the feature will be the latest Pathe News.

Coming Monday, the great Nazimova, in "Madame Peacock."

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to express our thanks and appreciation for the many kind acts and sympathy shown us during our late bereavement. Also for the beautiful floral offerings.

CHARITY SOCIETY WELL ATTENDED

The reception and card party given last night at the K. of C. hall by the St. Vincent de Paul society for charitable purposes, was well attended, and a neat sum was realized. After the whist tournament ended the floor was cleared and dancing indulged in until midnight. Following is a list of the winners who participated in the tournament:

Ladies—First, hand-painted sandwich tray, Mrs. Charles Erickson; second, olive dish, Mrs. Jack Klinger; third, ramisole, Mrs. Ralph Sweet.

Men—First, Mineworkers' $5 coupon, Horace Campbell; second, box of stationery, Frank T. Miller; third, silk neckties, Mark Bradshaw.

Luncheon, with coffee, was served during the intermission.

VERY FEW BILLS ARE INTRODUCED

CARSON CITY, Nev., Jan. 27.—Short sessions marked the progress of the legislative branches yesterday morning. Few bills made their appearance and they were sent to committees.

Senator Penrose introduced two bills, Nos. 8 and 9. The first provides for the investment of banks in irrigation bonds when such bonds are offered by duly organized irrigation districts. The second is a companion bill, providing for the payment of commission on sales of irrigation district bonds. The two were sent to the committee on agriculture.

Senator Griffith introduced a concurrent resolution relative to the appointment of a committee to take up the matter of the Colorado river, including power rights, irrigations, etc., this commission to recommend legislative laws after a conference with other state heads.

The senate passed the Fitzgerald anti-Japanese amendment to the state constitution.

The bill offered wherein corporation officers could administer oaths was laid on the table.

Assembly.

Heward made a motion that when the assembly adjourn it be out of respect to the memory of Mrs. Richardson.

ARCH PRESERVER SHOE

Every genuine Arch Preserver can be seen this trade-mark. Look for it on the sole.

Comfort and Grace in Arch Preserver Shoes

THESE shoes have nothing freakish or conspicuous about their shape. They are as smart as can be. Their comfort results from special construction and new last modeling that provide an instep which comes up and stays up snug to the arch of your foot.

They are anatomically designed and scientifically fitted to prevent flatfoot and other arch troubles, and to preserve the high sweeping arch you were born with. By their comfort and support they permit a springy, youthful step and promote a graceful carriage. They assist in restoring health, beauty and comfort to unhappy feet.

Every active woman will be keenly interested in the wonderful story told in the booklet, "The Story of Beautiful Feet". It tells how this Arch Preserver Shoe has brought comfort and grace to thousands of women. Mothers will also be surprised to learn how much their shoes have to do with the weak ankles and foot troubles of their children. Come in and get your copy. It is free.

When calling, we will be glad to show and explain the Arch Preserver Shoe to you. A visit to our store places you under no obligation to buy.
