DRAFT DODGERS ATTORNEY CITED FOR CONTEMPT

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 18.—Harry Weinberger, of New York, counsel for Grover C. Bergdoll in the court-martial proceedings, was ordered before the bar of the house of representatives for contempt after refusing to testify before the house investigating committee regarding fees paid him by Bergdoll's mother.

Weinberger challenged the right of the committee to investigate the case of Bergdoll on the ground that he had never been inducted into the army. Chairman Dent brushed aside the contention, declaring that it was entirely outside the question at issue.

When asked how much money had been paid him by Mrs. Bergdoll, Weinberger refused to answer, contending that it was his private affair and was a privileged matter. When the witness refused to give the books, Representative Johnson of Kentucky moved that he be held in contempt. There was no discussion.
