AMUSEMENTS

REX BEACH STORY AT BUTLER THEATRE TODAY

One of the best pictures that has ever been shown here at the Butler is the Rex Beach Alaska story, "The Girl From Outside," and so many requests have been received to have it repeated that the picture has been rebooked and will be the attraction at the Butler today.

Realism in motion pictures has always been a prime requisite, and in "The Girl From Outside" this point will be noticed at once as being particularly striking. For instance, the Seattle boat is seen being unloaded on the bleak shores of Nome, Alaska, where "The Girl From Outside" plays her part. The date is 1900, and the characters alone are worthy of praise. The atmosphere is depressing, and recalls to mind the days during the Klondike rush. Dance halls, gamblers, saloons, groceries of all kinds, clothing, implements, mining tools and all equipment necessary for the company are unloaded and many of the action scenes take place during the unloading. It is the kind of story in which unusual scenes form part of the story. They are beautiful, strong, awesome and consequently the picture will be enjoyed by people in every walk than of mere life. A San Pedro added to the program will be a musical comedy featuring Spencer the quick painter. Here it is:

"Sunshine," a musical program in which the [illegible] "Chase of the Moon" will be shown on screen Tuesday. "The Sap" is the [illegible] a Charlie Chaplin comedy. "A Dog's Dreams" and a Vaudeville [illegible]

Monday Matinee engage [illegible] Mary Kirkpatrick.
