50 PER CENT OF PULLED TEETH CAN BE SAVED

(By Associated Press)

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Aug. 18.—More than 50 per cent of the teeth now being extracted could be saved by proper treatment, Dr. J. F. Biddle, of the [illegible] of Pittsburgh told the National Dental association here today.

"Teeth are in many cases the source of bodily ailments and their extraction has in some instances resulted in cures which seem almost miraculous," Dr. Biddle said.

"However, we must not lose sight of the fact that many times teeth are sacrificed with the hope of curing almost every disease known to science.

"Undoubtedly abscessed or pulpless teeth should not be permitted to remain in the mouth if they cannot be put in a healthy condition. On the other hand, all teeth in which pulps have been removed should not be condemned."

DIVIDE EX. IS SHOWING RICH BODIES OF ORE

The Divide Extension is rapidly becoming a prominent name in the list of mines of the Divide district. Its [illegible] is [illegible] a prominent symptom during the coming weeks. The work [illegible] both the 100 and the 200 levels [illegible] is conditioned [illegible] a heavy tonnage of good and medium grade ore. Some extract on and the workings are being pushed [illegible] that will permit it [illegible] shipping material [illegible] September.

The average value of ores at [illegible] estimated at $100 a ton.

A contract has been entered into [illegible] the Mac[illegible] Milling company whereby [illegible] for the rate of 25 tons a [illegible] will be inaugurated on September [illegible]. The contract is based on [illegible] treatment and calls [illegible] for the next 60 days. Contrary to the report [illegible] the morning sheet that [illegible] to the MacNamara mill [illegible] this week, such is not the case, and no shipments will be made [illegible] the rest of the month.

Development is being prosecuted on both the 200 and 100 levels, and a [illegible] of men is being employed in the preliminary work that is all [illegible]. The working crew will be increased on September 1. Ore [illegible] blocked out by five raises [illegible] are being carried from the [illegible] to the 100 level while five additional raises are being carried [illegible] the 100 level toward the surface. The highest raise from the 100 level is now up 45 feet and still ore exists in the top of the [illegible]. Drifting is being prosecuted [illegible] the north on this level and a fine [illegible] is being followed. One [illegible] on this level has been proven for a length of 280 feet, and high grade ore is still showing in the face of the drift.

Zeb Kendall president of the company, has just issued a circular letter directed to the stockholders which briefly describes development in the mine workings, as follows:

"The company has recently developed an orebody on the 100 and 200 levels with five raises about 40 feet apart. The ore from these raises has been milled by the MacNamara mill at Tonopah, Nevada, showing results as follows: 195.20 tons averaging $83.55 per ton, the gross value of $41,373.96. No stoping has been done on this ore but we will start stoping on September 1. The extent in length or depth of this orebody has not as yet been determined. We are driving a drift north in the vein on the 100 foot level in virgin ground, this drift is in the same orebody showing about the same average value."

AMUSEMENTS

ELAINE HAMMERSTEIN AT BUTLER THEATRE TODAY

Elaine Hammerstein, [illegible] in "Manhattan Madness," which comes to the Butler theatre today, is said to differ in every respect from preceding productions in which this popular star has appeared.

The story by Bradley King, deals with a young society lady who is under the impression that it is a simple matter for any young woman to make her way in the world, although [illegible] an opportunity [illegible] in which she is able to put her theory to the test and she makes an attempt to earn her own living. She finds the problem not so simple as it first seemed and is about to give up in despair when she finally secures work as a cabaret singer. Here she is thrown in direct contact with types of people she never even knew existed. How a romance springs up between her and an engineer and the adventurous denouement amid most dramatic surroundings [illegible] and situations is shown in a vivid manner. Miss Hammerstein's leading man for this production is Matt Moore. Daily News shows of a new world impressions will find off the screen.

Tomorrow, "The Passionate Pilgrim," a production of mystery, love and newspaper politics. Thrills lurk for at every step. Robert de Bruce and Mary Alden lead an all star cast.

3,000,000 YEAR OLD FOSSIL HAS BEEN LOCATED

(By Associated Press)

[illegible] Aug. 18.—For 3,000,000 years one of the few survivors of the giant animals that lived in forests of what is now South America. Nine years ago it was discovered by an exploring expedition of the field museum of natural history. The museum has published its first scientific report on its find.

Speaking of his discovery, Dr. Wilfred H. Osgood of the field museum named some of its features.

"Through all those years this animal has remained unchanged, itself the important change.

"It is one of the most notable survivals of the 'simple life.'

"All the other animals of its group have utterly vanished or been turned to stone hundreds of thousands of years.

"It dates back to the period when the warm-blooded mammals were just starting to evolve from the cold-blooded reptiles. It is one of the oldest living mammals.

"A little animal it looks like a long-legged rat. It is only about six inches long. But its size has helped to preserve it. It has small eyes, rounded ears, a slender tail and soft brown hair.

"Caenolestes is its name, modern representative of an ancient group of predatory animals.

"Dr. Osgood made his discovery in Venezuela in 1913. He secured his specimens in the heart of a dense forest of the mountains here. Access to the spot was gained by laboriously cutting narrow trails for long distances through the heavy undergrowth.

"Since then Dr. Osgood has made an intensive study of the animal, and it is this which the field museum has just published, in a book entitled "A Monographic Study of the American Marsupial, Caenolestes."

Commercial organizations in all parts of the country report that a better tone is appearing in the business world. Wonder if that will make the pessimist change his.

PLAYER SENT TO JAIL WHEN HIS OPPONENT HURT

(By Associated Press)

PARIS, Aug. 18.—A Rouen court has condemned a football player to four months in prison and to pay a fine of 6000 francs for injuring another player during a match. This is the first time such a sentence has been delivered in France and if the [illegible] is held on appeal it is believed in sporting circles that it will have a jarring effect on sports, as players will hesitate to risk going to prison for a game.
