BOLIVIA DEMAND CHILE DISPUTE IS WITHDRAWN

(By Associated Press)

GENEVA, Switzerland, Sept. 15.—Bolivia today withdrew its request for inclusion of its tangle with Chile in the agenda of the assembly of the league of nations. Premier Lange of Norway severely criticized the action of the council on the question of limitation of armaments and said the Washington conference represented a very laudable effort on the part of President Harding.

LUNING MINING MAN BUYS SILVER CLAIMS

There is considerable activity in the new district on the Rawhide road out from Luning, where a gold strike was reported a short time ago according to Carl Moser, who was a visitor to Tonopah Wednesday from Mina. Ward and associates are reported as having sold a group of claims for $10,000, with a cash payment of $1000 having been made. The shaft has a depth of 25 feet, according to Moser, and one ton of ore sacked that is worth $400 a ton in silver, lead and copper. From the gold discovery it is stated ore is being mined in the shaft that carries average values of $60 a ton.

The letter follows:

[illegible] 14, 1921.

J. Grant Crawley
Tonopah, Nevada

"Dear Sir: I have just returned from Salt Lake City and learn that the public service commission has again vacated the date of hearing in the passenger train service case and as it now stands the matter will be heard in Carson City, Tuesday, September 20. This, of course, means a change of plans in connection with this hearing.

"I have had this matter up by phone with Mr. Shaughnessy and learn that it was absolutely necessary for the commission to reset the case and that it will be impossible for them to hear the same on the 16th.

"I therefore suggest that in view of the fact that the hearing is on Tuesday the 20th, that we hold our preliminary meeting of representatives of the various committees on Monday evening, September 19, at 8 o'clock in Carson City. I have been assured that we may have the use of the senate chamber in the state capitol for this meeting.

"Trusting that this will be satisfactory to all concerned, I am

"Very truly yours,
"E. H. WALKER,
"Traffic Manager."

SACRAMENTO HAS ENTERED STRONG TRAIN PROTEST

The Sacramento Chamber of Commerce has entered a vigorous protest with the public service commission of Nevada against any reduction of train service between Reno and Mina, and the following telegram was received last night by J. G. Crawley touching upon the subject:

"Sacramento, Cal., Sept. 14.

"J. G. Crawley, Chairman,
"Tonopah Chamber of Mines,
"Board of Directors today authorized wire to Nevada public service commission: 'On behalf of Sacramento merchants and business interests also southern Nevada mercantile interests with whom we are allied, we respectfully protest against curtailment of passenger service in southern Nevada and ask at the hands of your commission body careful consideration of interests that may be affected.'"

MURRAY IS SERVED WITH U. S. WARRANT

J. E. Muller, deputy United States marshal, arrived from Carson City this morning. The object of his visit was to serve an arrest warrant on John Murray, which had been issued yesterday by United States Commissioner W. D. Hatton and which was sworn to by Deputy Collector of Internal Revenue Marvin Arnold.

Murray is held in the county jail in default of $1000 bonds imposed by Justice W. T. Cuddy. The warrant from the state court was issued as a preventive measure pending the arrival of Deputy Marshal Muller.

ARBUCKLE HELD UNDER INDICTMENT OF MURDER

MANUFACTURE WINE ALLOWED BY NEW RULING

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 15.—Internal revenue bureau officials said today that heads of families interested in making wine with local vintners could manufacture 200 gallons of wine yearly for home use. This manufacture must be at home by the head of the family and the wine must not be sold or otherwise removed from the place of manufacture.

YOUTH ADMITS HE SHOT AGED UKIAH FARMER

(By Associated Press)

[illegible] Sept. 15.—John Williams, 20 years old, confessed today he had killed Fernando Peraino, an aged rancher, last Saturday night. Williams said he was waiting for Peraino to pick up Prosper A. Jones, by prearrangement, when he saw his victim was drunk and decided he was not to be robbed. He said he was deeply filled with liquor at the time he killed Peraino. Peraino's body was found the morning after the killing by his wife, who was with him when he picked Jones up. Jones, a relative, stated he was on the road with Peraino.

FAMILY FOUND IN BAD PLIGHT ON HOT CREEK

[illegible] Sept. 15.—[illegible] authorities were notified late yesterday afternoon of a [illegible] on Hot Creek [illegible] an infant [illegible] who had been brought in [illegible] from Hot Creek. The place of the find was discovered by Julius Hurst and Vinnie Barrett, who are working at the Joe Williams place on Hot Creek, and they were brought here. It developed that the women with their husbands had started from Salt Lake to Tonopah in a Hupmobile. Just this side of Silverton they ran out of gas while they were inconvenienced by the [illegible]. They had the five children in the women doubled upon walking back to Hot Creek, a distance of 12 miles. The men remained with the car, and upon the arrival of the wives in Tonopah the matter was made known to the authorities, and one mounted Deputy Sheriff A. A. Cluff was sent out in the county car to bring the stranded men to town with their car.

The women claimed they were penniless and out of food, and that they had actually gone hungry upon the trip, the two families were taking. They were taken to a local restaurant and later to the county hospital, where they will be allowed a rest until their husbands arrive this afternoon.

SIMILARITY OF NAMES MIXES UP FIRE BOYS

The fire department got mixed up this morning when an alarm was turned in at 7:40 o'clock. In describing the place the dreman answering the call understood the party telephoning to say the Brand house, when as a matter of fact it was turned in from the Grand hotel, near the depot. The result of the similarity of names sent the big truck to the Brand house, and it became necessary to then double back and make for the Grand hotel. A small blaze had started in the kitchen of an adobe cabin next door, due to a defective flue, but it was extinguished with very little damage.
