AMUSEMENTS

ENGENE O'BRIEN AT THE BUTLER TODAY

"Is Life Worth Living?" starring Eugene O'Brien, which will be shown at the Butler today, has a little lesson on the side for the man who has not been entirely converted to the idea of advertising. Mr. O'Brien appears as a struggling young business man, who, in a sense at least, is tricked into a circularizing campaign by a little stenographer as badly down on her luck as himself. The results of the simple little advertising plan, almost incredibly splendid, brings the big turning point in the story. Because of these results comes success, where failure called before. Because of their results come love, romance and marriage, and a life that before has seemed scarcely worth living. The photoplay is founded on George Weston's Saturday Evening Post story, "The Open Door," which has been read by millions of people.

Added to the program, the latest Pathe News.

Tomorrow an entertaining Sunshine comedy, "Straight is the Way," a Cosmopolitan production, and Screen Snapshots, giving a peep into the private and professional lives of famous movie stars.

YOKOHAMA, Japan, Sept. 22.—Nearly [illegible] yen, or about $500,000, is now in the Japanese customs office at this port because of evasions of duty, or neglect to pay dues for evasions, according to an official statement by the customs department.

The Bonanza carries TWICE as much NEWS as any paper in this section. Comparison invited.

PIONEER DAY TO BE OBSERVED SATURDAY

Pioneer day will be observed in Carson City on Saturday of this week and Governor Boyle has issued the following proclamation, urging old residents to participate in the celebration:

"Whereas, Mr. Ab Ambrose, a member of one of the pioneer families of the state and himself one of the oldest settlers in this vicinity, has generously proposed to finance and further a celebration in Carson City in honor of the Nevada pioneers; and

"Whereas, the proposal has met the encouragement and support of the people of Carson City and Ormsby county and has aroused great interest among the early settlers of the state;

Now, therefore, I, Emmet D. Boyle, governor of the state of Nevada, by the authority in me vested, and in recognition of the character and services of those who laid the foundation of our government, our strength and our prosperity, do designate and proclaim Saturday, September 24, 1921, as Pioneer day, and I urge the people generally to cooperate in the observance planned at Carson City, a center from which radiate nearly all the points of historical interest of this state at a convenient distance, to the end that the services and sacrifices of the pioneers may be perpetuated by this non annual anniversary observance.

When the wave of economy hit the war department some time ago one of the things that suffered here was ice.
