JOHN MILLER IS SURE WINNER

John Miller, candidate on the republican nomination for governor, is meeting with grand reception in every town he has been in since he is visiting and his nomination seems to be assured. Miller and prospects of a big fight. It's getting "hot" down south. Miller wherever met with the voters of the people are beginning to realize that the 1922 campaign is not a political campaign but a business one affecting the affairs of state. Managing any enterprise in the Miller way, requires some brains and ability. Miller is the man to bring order out of chaos. He is a practical man, not a theorist, and on the issue of economy if elected governor of Nevada will be of great benefit to the state.

Miller is a native of Nevada, being born in Elko county. He is a graduate of the University of Nevada, class of 1900. He is a mining engineer and has been engaged in his profession practically all his life. He is a man of high moral character, a good citizen, a man who has been successful in his profession, a man who has been prominent in business and who has always been identified with the upbuilding of Nevada. He is a successful business man and large taxpayer and believes in economy, efficiency and retrenchment. Miller is a man who will not hesitate to do what he thinks is right, regardless of political consequences. He is a man who will not be influenced by any political machine or any political boss. He is a man who will be governor of all the people of Nevada and not the tool of any political faction or
