FINE SHOWING TAKING PLACE AT WEST END

During the week ending Saturday morning Dec. 2, a total of 1750 tons of ore were consigned to the mill for treatment and the values were of the usual average. The dad is too busy and proud to work today, and is giving his undivided attention to fondling the new offspring. Mother and infant are reported as getting along nicely.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS ENTERTAIN TONIGHT

Good male quartets will always be popular. There is a fascinating something about them which is found in no other vocal organization. The California Jubilee quartet has this something and enjoys a well deserved popularity. These versatile entertainers will appear at the K. of P. auditorium tonight under the auspices of Mizpah lodge No. 25, and will present the cottonfield favorites of the sunny south in the inimitable style characteristic of their race. What would you rather hear than a real good colored male quartet harmonizing on the southern plantation melodies? These singers are guaranteed grouch removers and never fail to chase away old man gloom. Vocally their voices blend delightfully; musically, they are well trained; artistically, their songs are well executed.

While the jubliee songs predominate, yet there are humorous, popular, and classical numbers. Original drawings by a rapid cartoonist, dialect readings from Paul Laurence Dunbar, and piano solos by the famous "bleak Paderewski" combine to make an evening of delight. The program is built up with a fine knowledge of platform requirements and presented by dyed in the wool jubilee men. Careful study of what the general public wants form a company of colored jubilee singers has resulted in their specializing in the old time favorites.

AMUSEMENTS

CHARLES RAY AND LARRY SEMON TODAY

Charles Ray brings a new edition of his talent to the movies in "The Deuce of Spades," which will be shown at the Butler today. The story was adopted from Charles E. Van Loan's "The Weight of the Last Straw," and comes from the pen of the author of "Scrap Iron." In this instance the last straw is a notoriously antiquated card sharper's trick to which the star falls an easy victim. The fraud is the last of a series of misfortunes that overtakes him and reduces him to absolute poverty. With his back against the wall he starts shooting things up, fearing neither sheriff nor two-gun men; and his apparent courage against all comers win him the respect of the entire community, the girl of his choice and a new start in life.

The other picture on today's bill is Larry Semon, and his beautiful leading lady, Lucille Carlisle, in his latest comedy, "Golf." Eggs, newlyweds squirrels, beginners, and a skunk contribute to the sport on the course and charming Lucille adds a few new strokes to the game. Tomorrow, Max Linder, the famous French comedian, in his latest comedy drama, 'Be My Wife,' and the Adventures of Robinson Crusoe. Monday, Wesley Barry in "School Days."
