Virginia Items.—The Democratic Convention attracting crowded houses in Virginia. [illegible] State Printer Putnam, John Church, Foreman of the Enterprise, the Hon. Thomas Seely, Colonel William Woods, Captain Lyons of the Gold Hill News, Henry Piper and Mr. Anderson special correspondent of the San Francisco Chronicle, left Virginia for Winnemucca Tuesday evening to attend the State Convention of the Union Republican party which meets to-day at noon. [illegible] last Monday evening from to Reno carried away no less than 115 passengers from Virginia City and Gold Hill. They go to pay a visit to the Piper's theatrical company, now playing in Sacramento. They'll take in the Fair while they are there.

Sudden Death.—A private telegram was received here yesterday, conveying the intelligence of the death of Hon. O. L. Hastings. He died at Winnemucca yesterday afternoon. Mr. Hastings was a delegate to the Republican State Convention from Silver City. No further particulars received.

Nevada State Fair.—The first Fair of the Nevada State Agricultural, Mining and Mechanical Society will be held on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, Oct. 20, 21 and 23, at Reno.

Suicide.—Last night a miner named Jack Burke from Virginia City committed suicide at the St. Charles Hotel by taking poison. The deceased came to the hotel the night before, took a room and left in the morning as usual. He came again last night, telling the clerk he wanted an outside room, as he was unable to be alone. He went to his room early in the evening, and was not seen again until some one connected with the hotel was passing his door and heard a noise as if some one had spasms. The night clerk was informed that something was wrong, who, upon first being open the door, found the man nearly dead. He only lived long enough to inform the Doctor and summoned that he had taken poison. A Coroner's jury was called and sworn and the case adjourned until 1 o'clock p. m. to-day when the case will be investigated by Coroner Meder and a jury.

The Republican Convention of Lincoln county passed a resolution indorsing W. W. Bishop for Congress and J. S. Crosman for Lieutenant Governor. Mr. Crosman it will be recollected, was formerly Lieutenant Governor of this State, and made a very good official record while holding the position.

The Republican State Convention commences its session at Winnemucca to-day. Delegates are gathering to that point from all parts of the State. Many delegates from this portion of the state left for Winnemucca Tuesday night. Other delegates and persons interested from this vicinity started by last evening's train.

Union Pacific.—Citizens from Empire were numerous on our streets yesterday. We noticed the form of Joe Beer of the firm of Beer Bros., tea merchants, towering on Carson street last night. Whether in quest of customers or the Black Creek we did not ascertain.

Dreamy moonlight nights are now witnessed in this section. The silvery midnight moon shines forth in its resplendant beauty, rendering scenes as calm and placid with its silvery sheen as ever were witnessed in the tropics of sunny Italy, the land of the poet's dream.

Bear.—Dick Mills is kept busy this [illegible] the mountains near and the calls for his rifle keep him numerous and varied. Last week it was often heard—Where bear?

Fire.—Mr. James Harris [illegible] Friday morning [illegible] and Blackwell Friday morning [illegible] $5,000, [illegible]
