Hawaiian Troubles.

San Francisco, Jan 13.—Special correspondence from the Honolulu by the steamer Australia, dated January 6th, states that the Islands are meditating secession from the Hawaiian Government and the formation of its own Government. When the legislature meets next month the secession will be brought up. If the residents should decide to form their own Government nothing but outside interference could prevent it.

The Dole Government would be powerless, as Hawaii is more thickly populated than any other island of the group. Minister of Foreign Affairs Cooper is now on Hawaii trying to ascertain how wide-spread the movement is.

The friends of the ex queen are anxious for a war between England and America, believing that in the event of such trouble England would seize the Islands and restore the queen.

Carl Ebanne, exiled from the Islands for conspiracy in the 1893 rebellion, has returned, accompanied by his wife. He was given no permission to return and he has been notified by the Government that if he does not leave at once he will be prosecuted for conspiracy. He says that he will stand trial rather than leave. The remaining political prisoners were released on New Year's day. They all swore to support the present Government.

E. P. Doyle, formerly of Riverside Cal., has been made Attorney General.

The Hawaiian Band reportedly lost everything in an Olaa town, will go on home. Current sends the Government.
