SOCIAL AND PERSONAL NEWS

TWO WEEKS OF YULETIDE FESTIVITIES FOR SOCIETY

Round of Dances and Debutante Affairs Arranged—Mrs. Mains to Entertain For Miss Louise Carney Next Wednesday

The arrival of Christmas week sees an increased number of dances and other entertainments arranged for society folk. While there has been no lack of men at the dances thus far, they will be yet more in evidence now that so many are at home for the holidays from preparatory schools, colleges and universities.

The dances, teas and dinners of this and next week are for the debutantes and their guests, or in compliment to the boys and girls home for the holidays. One of the first affairs of the week will be the Christmas dance to be given by Mrs. George Preston Mains, of New York, on Wednesday evening, at the Calder residence, 319 North Front street, complimentary to Miss Louise Carney. Mrs. Mains was formerly Miss Mary Calder, of this city.

On Thursday evening Captain and Mrs. Robert C. Williams, will give a dance at the Country Club, for their daughter, Miss Arta Williams, a debutante of the season, and her house guests, Miss Marian Paver, of Cincinnati, O.; Miss Mary Garney, of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., and Miss Ada Watrous, of Washington, D. C.

The Misses Stamm's Guests

Christmas Day there will be no formal parties or dinners, but quite a number of informal teas and dinner parties have been arranged by the hostesses for the debutantes and their visitors.

Monday evening, following Christmas, the Misses Stamm, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. A. Carson Stamm, will give a dance at the Country Club, in compliment to their house guests, Miss Elizabeth Penick, Lynchburg, Va.; the Misses Westervelt, of Englewood, N. J.; Miss Pauline Brooks, Detroit; Miss Lena Church, Hartford; Miss Eleanor Edmonds and Miss Dorothy White.

Miss Dora Wickersham Coe will be formally introduced at the tea given Tuesday afternoon, December 29, by Mrs. William Henderson and Mrs. Sanford DeWitt Coe, at the former's residence, 25 North Front street. Miss Leavitte Wickersham, the debutante daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wickersham, of Lancaster, will also be a guest of honor. The tea will be followed by a dinner and dance.

Wednesday evening, December 30, Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Dewitt Coe will give a dance at the Country Club, for their daughter, Miss Dora Wickersham Coe, her house guests and the debutantes of the season.

Assembly May Be in Board of Trade

On Wednesday afternoon, December 30, Mrs. Meade D. Detweiler will give a luncheon at her home, 23 South Front street, complimentary to Miss Mary Elizabeth Meyers.

On Thursday evening, December 31, the first assembly of the season will be held, and the committee is now busy decided whether or not to hold it in the Masonic Temple or in the Board of Trade auditorium. Although the ball room at the Temple was not damaged by the fire of last week, the damage to the other parts of the building may interfere with the arrangements somewhat, a member of the committee said to-day.

The dance of the Triangle Club willl also be held New Year's Eve, in Winterdale hall.

On New Year's night the masquerade dance of the younger set will be held at the Country Club. Miss Margaretta Fleming, Miss Virginia King, Miss Marian Angell and Miss Elizabeth Bailey, have charge of the arrangements.

SERVICES AT ST. ANDREW'S

The Rev. James F. Bullitt Recovered From Recent Illness Attended Morning Service

Many members of the Alricks Association attended service yesterday morning at St. Andrew's Protestant Episcopal church to welcome the Rev. James F. Bullitt back to his duties as rector of the parish and to give thanks for his recovery from his recent illness.

The Alricks Association is an undenominational men's club which has no connection with St. Andrew's church except that it meets in the parish house and that about half its members are also members of St. Andrew's church. The Rev. Mr. Bullitt is one of the clubmen and his fellow-members surprised him by being present at his first service.

Mr. Bullitt was able to take only a small part in the service, and last evening was not present at all, evening prayer being conducted by the Rev. Rollin A. Sawyer. Mr. Bullitt expects, however, to take full part in all of the Christmas activities in the parish and to resume his general pastoral work during Christmastide.

Birth Announcement

Dr. and Mrs. J. W. MacMullen, 1432 Walnut street, announce the birth of a son, Friday, December 18. Mrs. MacMullen was Miss Helen Blessing prior to her marriage.

FOUR GENERATIONS GUTSHALL FAMILY AT BOILING SPRINGS

The picture above represents the four generations in the Gutshall family, one of the oldest in Boiling Springs, Cumberland county. The family connection is very large, being among the Beltzhoover, Kutz and Crumlich relatives of the Cumberland Valley. In the picture is the great-grandmother, Mrs. Levi D. Gutshall, of Boiling Springs; grandmother, Mrs. Lizzie Neagley; son, Grover, and his daughter, Eleanor Herr Neagley, of New Cumberland.

SANG CHRISTMAS CAROLS

Choir of Market Square Presbyterian Church Rendered Beautiful Program Yesterday Morning

The music yesterday at Market Square Presbyterian church was characterized by special and appropriate carols.

At the morning service the choir sang the anthem, "O, Holy Night," by Adam, and an old seventeenth century carol, "While By My Sheep." In the latter the choir was answered by the echo quartet, composed of Mrs. Carl Heefner, Miss Chayne, James K. Jackson and Dr. John J Moffitt, singing from the belfry room. The voices, as from the distance, added a special charm to this carol.

The men's chorus sang 'A Child This Day Is Born" to the traditional melody with spirit and wealth of tone. Next Sunday they will sing by request the thirteenth century carol, "Draw Nigh, Immanuel."

At the afternoon service, held at 4.30, instead of the usual evening hour, the church was filled to overflowing to hear the annual Christmas carol program.

The choir was assisted by Mrs. Edwin J. Decevee, Dr. Ruth A. Deeter and Miss Seaman, who, with Mrs. Harris, sang Bullard's "Teyste Noel" with rare blending of the voices and depth of feeling

Another assisting artist was Dr. John C. Reed, violinist, whose playing added greatly to the charm of the occasion.

The carol by the choir, "A Cradle Song of the Blessed Virgin," by Barnby-Gow, with obligato by Dr. Reed, was especially noteworthy in beauty and richness of execution.

The soloists, Miss Middaugh and Mrs. Harris, were at their best and sang with sympathetic feeling and tenderness.

The organ numbers for the day by the organist, Miss Conkling, were exceptionally appropriate and were played with finished expression.

MR. AND MRS. HORNER HOSTS

Entertained in Honor of Their Daughter, Helen

Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Horner entertained at their home, 1309 North Second street, in honor of their daughter, Miss Helen A. Moyer, in celebration of her birthday anniversary.

The guests included Misses Anna Bockus, Verne Bomgardner, Margaret Johnson, Kathryn Johnson, Nellie Jones, Miriam Jauss, Ellen Reeves, Ruth Martin, Mame Rudy and Helen A. Moyer, Mr. and Mrs. Kaley, Mr. and Mrs. J. Earle Hoerner and son, Louis.

Mrs. Jacob McCorkle, 2035 Penn street, returned from West Willow.

READY FOR CHRISTMAS

Elaborate Celebration of Yuletide Season at St. Andrew's P. E. Parish House

Preparations have been completed in St. Andrew's Protestant Episcopal parish for its busy pre-Christmas season, and celebrations will be held in the parish house, at Nineteenth and Market streets, to-morrow and Wednesday, in addition to the church services on the feast of the Nativity itself.

Two of the non-parochial organizations will have a Christmas entertainment to-morrow morning for the relatives and friends of the members, while the general parish Christmas festival will be held on Wednesday evening.

To-morrow's celebration will be by St. Andrew's school and kindergarten, undenominational schools for children which hold their sessions in the parish house. It will be held at 9.30 o'clock in the morning, and the pupils all have asked their parents and friends to be present. It will be the third annual program of this kind.

The school pupils will be in charge of their teacher, Mrs. Charles E. Shope, and her assistant, Miss Margaret McLain, the kindergarten girls and boys will be in charge of Miss Elizabeth L. Hilleary, the director, and her assistant, Miss G. Marie Getter. Christmas programs, arranged especially for the occasion, will be rendered by both classes, including sufficient of the daily work to show visitors what is being done.

The exercises will be held in the parish house assembly room, which is being decorated appropriately, with a Christmas tree as the central figure.

The parish Christmas festival will be held Wednesday evening, starting at 5.30 o'clock, at this hour all those present will be guests of the Rev. James F. and Mrs. Bullitt, at supper in the assembly room. At 7 o'clock the Christmas service will be held in the chapel, the Sunday school marching in behind the church choir. After the service supper will be served to all those who could not be present before the service.

Plank-Phillips Wedding

Christiana, Dec. 21.—Miss Alice Phillips, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Phillips, was married last evening to Dr. K. Blank, of Chicago, a former practitioner of Lancaster county.
