County Seat Indices.

While a gallant big youth
With maiden quite fair,
Were supping life's sweetness,
In a parlor with only one chair.
Sat Stary at a table
Who scribbled in haste,
As from below came the sound
Of an arm, about waist,
And, oh. it was hard,
In that moment to choose.
'Twixt amusing embrace
And embracing a muse!

—The latter-day Cupid's greatest fault is his cupidity.

—Dan Sheehan made a flying trip to Elmira last week.

—Mr. B. F. Crossley made a business trip to this place Saturday.

—Atty. H. T. Downs was transacting legal business at Hughesville Tuesday.

—County Supt. F. W. Meylert is busy visiting the various schools of the county.

—Good health and no debts make this world a veritable paradise.

—County seat lawyers are all busy as bees as the two weeks term of court draws near.

—Mrs. D. Kennedy of Muncy Valley is visiting her Son Thos. E. Kennedy this week.

—It doesn't require as much imagination as it did to realize our contiguity to gentle spring.

—War is imminent enough again, as it has been for the past twenty years Don't get scared.

—Insurance Agent M. A. Scureman of Dushore was in town Tuesday looking up new business.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Coleman of Benton are visiting their daughter Mrs. T. E. Kennedy this week.

—Large quantities of bark continues to come to the tannery. Last week brought 198 tons from the woods.

—M. E. Church Sunday School 10 a. m Epworth League 6:30 p. m. Preching 7:30 p. m. by the pastor Rev. Wm. S. Skinner.

Mrs. Russel Karns Mrs. Cora Stormont and Messrs S. B. Karns and Harry Karns went to Benton Sunday to attend the funeral of Bent Cole, Mrs. Karns' brother

—This is indeed the age of style. The ladies even have to wear their temper ruffled to be in vogue with up-to-date fashion.

—John E. Gallagher and Jas. Moran of Muncy Valley, and Thos. Gallagher of Sonestown were visitors at the county seat on Sunday.

—Services at the Baptist church next Sunday as follows. Preaching at 10 a. m. Sunday School at 11 a. m. Christian Endeavor at 6:30 p. m., All are invited.

—Love at sight isn't of half the value in the matrimonial market as love twelve months after date. Feminine affection is more a matter of effect than of sentiment, horrid as this may sound.

—There will be a social dance at the Kennedy Hall on Friday night. An oyster supper will be served at the Hotel, and all necessary arrangments made to make it pleasant for the several sleighing parties that expect to visit our town.

—While at work for Kiess Bros. at Reeder and Ives mill last Tuesday afternoon Ed. Richey met with a painful misfortune by having his leg broken near the hip, by a log that rolled from the sleigh which he was preparing to unload.

—Lew Mahaffey of Sayre made his friends at this place a short call on Saturday last, and received their congratulations to his recent matrimonial alliance with Miss Mame Ballard of this place who has been spending the past few months with friends at Sayre.

—Lottie Degan, a daughter of Joseph Degan a former resident of this place, now of Limestone, who died about one year ago, has been exhumed and the body will be brought to this place on Friday and interred in Mountain Ash cemetery.

—The men who stated in 1896 that farm products could not advance without the free coinage of silver are saying nothing about the fact that wheat sold a $1.10 in Chicago a few days ago.

—The young people of town drove over to Eagles Mere on Tuesday night to attend the revival services held there by Rev. Powell.

—A sleighing party from Bernice visited this place Wednesday night.

—The old original ice plant has been in full operation for the past month, and down at Lake Mokoma Chas. Lauer with several men including Embly Chase of Eagles Mere with his celebrated ice plow are busily engaged in filling cars with huge cakes of the clear article for shipment.

—Conversations caught on the fly, are sometimes interesting and suggestive. We overheard it stated lately that Chas Tinklepaugh was circulating with the other Democrats on the political merry go round, for the nomination of Sheriff. It would be something out of the ordinary for Laporte to furnish the county with a sheriff. All signs point to a large and vociferous time when the Democrats come to name a candidate for sheriff. Muncy Valley having furnished an excellent sheriff James Moran of that place is winking the other eye and says he can do as well.

—It is to be expected that the Democrats will say that Senator Hanna bribed his way through the legislature. According to Democratic testimony that is the way Democratic Senators and aspirants have done for years, and they desire to reduce the Republican Senators to their own level. It will take harder lying than they practiced against Mr. Hanna throughout the last two campaigns, in which they were ignominiously exposed. He has been the object of a vast amount of wholly unwarranted abuse and vilification, but he has routed his enemies and will justify the confidence of his friends.

—The snow banks piled upon the sidewalks about town are passing their dividends this winter. In these days the quality of a man's Christianity may be judged by the condition of his sidewalk. There are some of us who have piled up white monuments as testimonials for ourselves in Heaven but the majority, even the borough officers are evidently destined to where they don't have ice. Why don't that lazy Borough Ordinance get a shovel and go to work and clean the public walks. then individual property owners might have some encouraging pride to rid the walks of snow drifts, and enable court guests to travel with some freedom, and manifest some respect for the town when peopled with strangers. We all do much better in life, as on wheels, if there is some one to set the pace for us. What in the name of Heaven was an ordinance passed for if not to be inforced. To our judgment the public walks should either be freed from its obstruction or the ordinance repealed at the next meeting of council.
