Here they were met by the groom's family and friends going direct to the home of Mr. Gallagher's mother at the corner of Buffalo and Tancahua Streets, where a complimentary wedding supper was served.

The wedding is one of more than passing interest in Corpus Christi, the groom being the son of one of the oldest families in this section. His grandfather located here in 1852. He is one of the third generation to establish a home in Nueces County on the old home ranch out on the Oso. To which he brings a young and beautiful bride from the Alamo City whose charming personality and noble qualities of mind and heart have already won for her a daughter's place in the heart of her new parents and assures for the groom of the social circle in which she will move.—(Contributed.)

ATTORNEY GEROME BUYS A BIG SIX HUDSON CAR

Taking Vacation and Recuperating After Harry K. Thaw Hearing—It's a Beautiful Roadster.

As an afterthrob of the window of the hearing of the plea of Harry K. Thaw for release from Matteawan, District Attorney William Travers Jerome of New York, who opposed Thaw's petition, is recuperating from the strain he exhibited in court.

His recuperation is taking a form of a vacation behind the wheel of a big Hudson six cylinder automobile—a beautiful gray roadster that has a speed of over 65 miles an hour.

News of the District Attorney's purchase was received by C. Chaddick & Co., the Hudson dealers today.

This is the fourth Hudson car Mr. Jerome has owned. He has had a Hudson car each year as quickly as the new models have made their appearance. But his latest high powered possession, he declares, is furnishing the best vacation he ever had.

"Mr. Jerome has one of the most beautiful cars the Hudson factory has ever built," said Mr. Chaddick today, when he showed a local motorist photographs of the Hudson roadster.

"It probably has the raciest lines of any car on the market, and it is especially built for touring by reason of the fact that it has an extraordinary large compartment in the rear, into which considerable baggage can be put. The side door to this compartment alone will admit a large suit case. Then, too, there is a door on top and a baggage rail, so that a man can tour from coast to coast and back again, and have plenty of room inside the car for all the baggage he carried.

"It is not surprising that the extraordinary automobile that the Hudson company is selling should find an advocate in an experienced motorist like Mr. Jerome, for it is that type of purchaser who knows cars, and is able to judge values on his own responsibility."
