CHURCHES WILL HAVE MOTHER DAY SERVICES

Proclamation of Governor Ferguson for Observing Mothers' Day Will be Heeded

Pastors of the various churches of the city yesterday announced that in obeyance to the proclamation of Governor Ferguson, setting aside next Sunday for the annual observance of Mother's day that sermons at the morning services will be on topics pertaining to the day. Special music will be provided at several of the churches.

The proclamation of the Governor follows:

"It is a privilege to me, in accord with precedent and with deep appreciation of the noble motherhood of our State and Nation, to request every son and every daughter in our State, regardless of where they may be or what may be their pressing business, to observe Sunday, May 9, as Mother's Day.

"Let us enthusiastically set aside this day in sacred honor to her who cared for us and made sacrifices for us. A mother's love is elastic and will cover every fault, failing or shortcoming, and whatever others may do for us, she has done more.

"If we are fortunate enough to have our mother with us, let us tell her that we love her and in some definite manner express our appreciation of her. If we are far away, let each one of us write her a letter of tender remembrance. Though we may be men and women growing old we are always little children to her. If she has preceded us to a better world to receive her radiant crown, let us fervently meditate upon her teachings and her beautiful example. Let each one of us where it is possible for us to do so, go to church and wear a pure white flower in her name.

"Some of us may have our mother very much, but we are forgetful and neglectful in expressing our affections for her. So, with the love of the long ago, when we knelt at her knee to listen and lisp a baby prayer, and with the full confidence that she is and ever will be man's most unselfish friend let us devotedly honor her on Mother's Day.

"Mother's Day! Let us remember,
Let our hearts with love o'erflow,
Send her a tender message
To tell her you love her so.
Mother mine, O don't you feel it?
More than I can ever say?
That I love you now and always,
And today is Mother's Day!

"I, therefore, James E. Ferguson, Governor of Texas, do hereby issue this proclamation asking everyone of us to lovingly remember Sunday, May 9, 1915, as Mothers Day.

CALLER OFFERS YOU AN OPPORTUNITY TO GO TO EXPOSITION

FOR MERELY SOLVING A PUZZLE, SOMEONE IS GOING TO WIN BIG PRIZE.

List of Ten Prizes Offered, Three of Them Including Round-Trip Tickets to San Francisco.

Why not try for one of these big Travelgame prizes?

All you have to do is to work out a puzzle—a puzzle that is neither so hard as it looks nor so easy as you might think, but which you should be able to solve well.

There is still ample time to get into the Travelgame. Thousands are enjoying this great pastime, and if you are not playing the game now you are missing the fun of your life.

Three big trips to the Panama-Pacific International Exposition at San Francisco, are included in the list of prizes. There are ten awards to be won in all—and you can win one of them.

If you are working out a solution now, it would be well to send in your remittance on subscription at once. This will avoid any possibility of leaving out this one important detail at the last minute, as all you will have to do then will be to turn in your solution.

HURRY UP!

The time in which to work out your solution to the puzzle is growing short. If you have not yet received copies of the Travelgame chart and coupon sheet, telephone to the Travelgame Manager for them today. There is still time for you to work out a good solution, and you will always regret it if you miss this opportunity.

If you have worked out a solution or are working one out now, it would be well to send in your remittance on subscription at once, whether your solution is ready or not. This will avoid any possibility of something going wrong at the last moment and causing you to fall down on this important detail.

The amount that you pay on subscription will not in the least affect your chances of winning one of the prizes. But remember that the winner of the first prize is to receive 10 times the amount paid on subscription in addition to the trip to San Francisco. So if you pay $2.00 on subscription, your gold award can be only $19.00. Whereas if you pay $10.00 on subscription, you will receive $100 in gold.

Remember also that there are ten prizes to be won, and that three of them include trips to the Exposition. If you fail to win the first you will probably win the second.

ADMISSION TICKETS FURNISHED.

By courtesy of the management of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition at San Francisco, all three of the guests to be sent to the Exposition by the Caller after the close of the Travelgame are furnished admission tickets to the Exposition grounds. These guests are also invited to call at the office of the Bureau of Tours on the Exposition grounds, where the head of this department will meet them and give them any information desired about the Exposition, San Francisco, and the various points of interest to be visited.

PACK YOUR GRIP.

As soon as the solutions turned in can be checked up and the winners are known, the tickets will be ready. Special arrangements for a delightful tour have been made. The first stop will be at the Grand Canon. San Diego California is included in the itinerary, and on the return trip Salt Lake City and Denver will be visited.

You can go—but you will have to work out a solution to the Travelgame if you want to go at the expense of the Caller. Send for the Travelgame coupon today.

Amusements

Clara Kimball Young.

On April 12th the Morris Film Corporation released the super photo drama "Hearts in Exile" from the pen of Frank Dumont, with Clara Kimball Young in the leading role.

Clara Kimball Young is the heroine of the play which is thematic in its tone and sentiment. She plays the part of a girl foolishly coaxed by unscrupulous bands both of whom are desirous of their regard for her. The situation in the strong point of a play which is full of dramatic situations.

Miss Young has perhaps the most sympathetic role of her career in the part of the beautiful Hope Redmond, she her environment in which she is placed is deeply emotional and exciting. The period of Russian police espionage, conspiracy to political and royal prisoners who are exiled to Siberia, life in convict settlements, Cossack dances and a wolf chase are some of the features of the incomparable scenes of the drama.

Many of the settings were taken during the past winter when the ground was on the ground and the water was covered with ice. The scenes of the Siberia, long stern chasm over frost bound rivers are shown in the picture.

Artistically and dramatically Miss Young does the most ambitious and trying work of her career. This wonderfully gifted and beautiful young woman is never satisfied with her work; success in her always should an incentive to do something better and more effective for the satisfaction of her millions of admirers.

As Hope Ivanovna in "Hearts in Exile," she becomes a veritable Francis queen pathetic, suffering, sympathetic, appealing and always lovely. She is an attractive figure to the eye and holds her audiences spellbound by the intensity of her acting.

"Hearts in Exile" is a strong story which has been produced regardless of cost. The director was James Young and the supporting cast numbers many hundreds.

"Hearts in Exile" will be the attraction at the Amuse Theatre next Sunday afternoon and night.
