SINTON BOOSTERS WILL ADVERTISE TRADES DAY

NEARLY ONE HUNDRED BUSINESS MEN WILL MAKE TOUR OF SAN PATRICIO COUNTY

Caller-Herald Special.

SINTON, May 21.—The Sinton Commercial Club will take a two days' journey to all towns in San Patricio county on Tuesday and Wednesday, May 25 and 26, to advertise "Trades Day" which is to be held here on June 7. Every business firm is to send at least one representative, and all prospective users are now busy getting up advertising novelties to distribute along the way.

The "Boosters" will make the trip in automobiles, visiting the following towns on Tuesday: Taft, Gregory, Ingleside, Portland, Aransas Pass and Rockport, returning to Sinton Tuesday night.

On Wednesday, they will make the other part of the county, including Odem, Angelita, San Patricio, Stathis, Skidmore, Fulton and Saint Paul, in the order mentioned.

Thirteen cars have already been secured, and the crowd is expected to be 100 strong. This will be a very effective means, not only of advertising "Trades Day" but will give the business men a wonderful opportunity to place Sinton before the people of the county, of which they expect to take full advantage.

A long list of very valuable premiums has been subscribed by the business men for the best farm products, live stock, etc., and it is expected that this will prove a great drawing card to the farmers.

A. F. Humphries, an experienced hotel man, from Temple, Okla., has leased the Commercial Hotel and will take charge of same on June 1. This hotel was formerly owned and managed by L. M. Bender.

It is understood that Mr Humphries will make extensive improvements on the building and make it a first class and modern hotel in every respect.

ARANSAS PASS BUDGET

Caller-Herald Special.

ARANSAS PASS, May 21.—Mrs. Lillian Hughes Hall, wife of E. W. Hall, and stepdaughter of Judge D. M. Cranfill of Dallas, Texas, died suddenly of blood poisoning at her residence here at 6:30 this morning.

Her death is mourned by her husband, two daughters and a large host of friends.

The special attractions at the Aransas Theatre last night for the benefit of the Aransas of Commerce caused an overflow attendance.

The participants in the program were Miss Clark, soprano, local selection; Mrs. F. I. Newberry, reading; Jimmie Hughes, comic songs. All were encored.

BASEBALL RESULTS--OTHER SPORT NEWS

ELKS VERSUS BUSINESS MEN GAME NEXT TUESDAY

Defi of the Martin Bunch for Baseball Game is Accepted by the Elk Team.

Exceeding practice has made members of the Business Men's Hand Ball League bold. With almost daily games playing on the downtown diamond certain individuals of the league have become adept, if not at adept as their boasts would indicate, in the sport. These regulars' boasts have caught the ears of the local Elks and a challenge was issued yesterday and accepted for a game in Lexgue Park Tuesday afternoon, the stakes to be steaks.

No, there is no "benefit" about it. There will be no charge for admission. The public is invited to witness the clash gratis. It is not invited to partake of the "eats" that the losers will provide for the winners of the game however.

It has not been definitely decided but it is expected Eddie Holstoff Allen will officiate as umpe. The game will be called at 4:30 and the stakes will be distributed in the Nueces dining hall immediately after, for which the losing aggregation will foot the bills.

The lineups tentatively decided upon yesterday are:

For the Business Mens League—Peanuts Martin, captain; H. H. Edwards, R. A. Van Cleave, L. C. Wells, L. D. Garrison, Lester Guest, John L. King, T. B. Massey, J. H. Pittman, Oliver Ford Johns, E. H. Eldredge, W. C. Wright.

For the B. P. O. E.: Bill Hall, R. B. Rotendel, F. Savage, Gail Jordan, Ben Lombard, Bob Graves, Buford Craig, W. H. Kuntz, Ed Fore, Bob Cock.

The batteries have not been announced.

NEW YORK, May 21.—"Lifting flours is the greatest bluff in the world for keeping an athlete blood in condition," said Charlie Huber, the veteran trainer of the Newark Federals.

Huber, who was the first man regularly employed as a trainer for a ball club, and whose skill as an rub-down produced the baseball careers of some of the most famous players during the past 30 years, added:

"Baseball makes a mile more blood fast. That has the effect of thinning up his blood and heating it. Lifting force tends to act as a sweating [illegible] and furthermore it aids in throwing off the blood impurities. If a player will drink the juice from one lime daily he never will be troubled with bad blood."

Huber's home is Cincinnati. His first regular baseball job was a trainer for the Reds. That was back in the 80's. Since then he has been employed as trainer by various big league clubs, and everywhere he has been known as "the little miracle worker."

One of Huber's greatest accomplishments was in restoring power to the arm of Harry Steinfeldt. After his baseball usefulness seemed over Steinfeldt was traded to the Cubs, but almost as soon as he put on a Cub uniform something happened to his arm to make it almost useless. The Cubs were on the point of letting out Steinfeldt when Mrs. Steinfeldt went to see Huber.

"Can you do anything for Harry's arm" she asked.

"I don't know" replied Huber. "I can tell you better if you bring Harry to my office."

Huber then was back in private practice. Steinfeldt went to Huber's office and the veteran examined his arm.

"I'll have it back in shape and better than ever—in ten days" said Huber.

And he made good. Steinfeldt with a "new" arm got back into the game and gained undying fame as a member of the wonderful cub infield—Chance, Evers, Tinker and Steinfeldt—which still ranks as one of the greatest every wielded together.

Jeff Overall, one of the greatest pitchers that ever stepped on the mound had trouble with his arm. No one was able to fix it up. Overall was in despair. Just about that time he was introduced to Huber and learning of Huber's fame asked him if he could do anything for his arm.

"No, I can't, but you can do it yourself" said Huber. "I've been watching you and I've found out that in another six months you'll kill your arm absolutely if you don't change your swing.
