Dinner Party at Nueces.

Miss Bodie McCain of Hamilton, Texas, who is the house guest of Miss Mary Cotton, was the honoree at a pretty dinner party given by Miss Dunn on Thursday evening at the Nueces Hotel. After dinner dancing was enjoyed in the banquet hall. The table was prettily decorated with pink and white cut flowers, and attractive place cards marked the places of the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Eldridge, Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Wood, Mesdames Haines (San Antonio), Arnim (El Paso), Misses Bodie McCain, Mary Cotton, Julia Manzum (Uvalde), Helen Duncan, and Mae Dunn, Messrs Felix Ryan, Fred Sorrell, Norman Collins, and the Dr. C. M. Corbett (Alice).

Country Club Supper.

One of the largest and most enjoyable affairs of the week was the Country Club supper on Friday evening at the club house. Tables were arranged on the north porch and in the dining room, and covers were laid for one hundred and twenty-five guests. A chicken supper was served for the members of the committee and their husbands: Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Flato, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Nix, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hammer, Mr. and Mrs. David Locher, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hull, and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Frank. After the supper, hour the entertainment committee of the club described the guests with the announcement of the engagement of the Nueces entertainers for the evening. Miss Perry danced a Spanish dance from "Carmen" in costume and a pretty Welsh song was sung by Miss Warren. Miss Warren sang a number of popular songs, and accompanied Miss Roberts and Mr. Wheeler in their Glow Worm dance. The designed act of the evening was Miss Lettie Carroll's impersonations of people well known to the guests, and most of whom were present. She first imitated the Nueces entertainers in the songs and dances in which they had just appeared. Others who were "taken off" were Norman Collins in the Welsh Hesitation, C. W. Gibson dancing the Pavlova, Roger Sharpe impersonating Dodo the Court house Gerald Gough in the Pivot Glide, David Locher in The Dream Waltz, Miss Maude Corpus at the piano, Mayor Miller making a speech to the people of Papalote and W. H. Hull in the "Easy Aunie" Each was a clever portrayal of the eccentricities of the one imitated, and Miss Carroll afforded much amusement through her latest efforts. Dancing was enjoyed by the guests.

Among those who enjoyed the evening were: Messrs. and Mesdames Gordon Boone, Herbert Caldwell, E. B. Cole, H. Cole, E. G. Crabb, W. E. Everhardt, H. Fullanston, Lytle Gosling (San Antonio), Horatio Gryms, W. H. Griffin, Sue Hirsch, Glover Johns, Berger McCulloch, Roy Miller, W. S. Rankin, W. E. Pope, L. C. Wells, J. H. C. White, J. H.
