SOCIALIST "FRATERNALIZERS" ON TOUR BIG FRENCH CITIES

Idea is to Remove Doubts Among Lower Classes in France as to Part England is Playing in War

LONDON, Oct. 8—In order to remove doubts among the French working people regarding the part England is playing in the war, the British socialists have by the consent of the French government arranged a series of lecture tours covering the great industrial cities of France and lasting for the period of two months. The speakers selected are Adolph Smith, a well-known writer and speaker who served as a volunteer with the French during the siege of Paris in 1870, and John Hodge, M. P. Mr. Smith speaks French like a native but Mr. Hodge's speeches will be translated.

In a trip in France to arrange these meetings the two "organizers of the University" were received by President Poincare, Minister of Munitions Thomas and other ministers and deputies. These officials gave not only full consent to the meetings but added arrangements as the object is to combat the propaganda of the small minority of British peace party socialists, who have given the French workmen an erroneous idea of the attitude of the British labor toward the war.

Adolphe Smith will give a general account of the British effort and Mr. Hodge will tell what the British working classes are doing. The first meeting will be held in Paris attended by workingmen and socialists. The second will be before deputies, French government officials, university professors and representatives of the press at the ministery of Public Work. Lyons, Bordeaux, Marseilles and the manufacturing cities will be covered by the speakers.

Men Pay Homage to Mother's Friend

"I am not surprised to observe the number of men who come into the store to purchase 'Mother's Friend,' " remarked a leading druggist.

The expectant mother if she hasn't heard of this splendid embrocation is probably not reading the papers to much extent. And if she does it is a happy thought to send hubby to the drug store. "Mother's Friend" is applied externally over the abdominal muscles.

It is a gentle, soothing liniment, penetrates to the fine tissues of nature beneath the skin and has a marked tendency to relieve the muscular strain to which the blood flat abdominal muscles are subjected. The cords, tendons and ligaments are then permitted to stretch without the excruciating suffering so often incident during the period of expectation. This is just accurate for the entire season. In many cases prevent of stretch marks and other disfigurements. And particularly to young mothers in this remarkable liniment is inestimable value due to its soothing the nerves from the pain it renders easy to go through the ordeal without laceration or other evidence to offer the real when the gentle force of information is mentioned.

"Mother's Friend" is freely recommended by a lot of women. Write Bradfield Regulator Co., 300 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., and we will send you a valuable little book to expectant mothers.

The effect of this splendid external treatment is the expression of the statements of women who have successfully used it and recommended it through two generations.
