BRICKLAYERS UNION STATE CONVENTION WILL ELECT TODAY

ELECTION OF OFFICERS AND SELECTION OF NEXT CONVENTION CITY WILL OCCUR THIS AFTERNOON.

Convention Will Also Enlarge Mortuary System and Will Probably Vote to Hold Annual Conventions.

The Biennial session of Bricklayers, Masons and Plasterers Union of Texas that started here Monday morning, and is expected to remain until Friday afternoon, is proving one of the best conventions in the history of the Union, with practically all of the local unions within the state represented by one or more delegates.

Tuesday morning at the convention of the organization E. M. Ward, representing the Order of Railway Conductors, on the Joint Legislative Board by invitation addressed the session, telling of the accomplishments of the Board and of the forthcoming program of the organization of the Brotherhood.

A resolution of commendation was offered by Secretary Morse to the International Organization of Allied Building Trades representatives, Brotherhood Machinists, Carpenters, Union Painters and other craftsmen, pledging the aid of the Executive Committee for the good of the union. This Affiliation plan is emphasized the assistance that unions will now render to a building union that is in trouble, or attempts a move. The Texas union decided to pledge itself to the support of the contract work of the organization.

The convention also discussed the proposed of having annual conventions instead of the biennial meetings and it is very likely that either Galveston or Waxahachie a competition carrying forty with a year will be adopted. Galveston is trying for the convention for the next convention.

It is also probable that the members of outside unions of the Union will be changed at the present session, the majority of the members favoring a change of headquarters for Austin.

The annual election of officers will occur this afternoon. The only one of the local unions that takes part in all of the proceedings of the convention is Austin Union No. 1 of Austin.

The local entertainment committee has in hand, and will be given this evening and tomorrow afternoon and tonight on the Joint Legislative Board by the Brotherhood of Railway Conductors, on the joint Legislative Board by invitation, addressed the session, telling of the accomplishments of the Board and of the forthcoming program of the organization of the Brotherhood.
