HUGHES OPENING SHELL SCATTERS MUCH CRITICISM

REPUBLICAN NOMINEE PICKS FLAWS IN WILSON'S MEXICAN POLICY BUT SUGGESTS NO REMEDIES FOR THE EVIL.

WARNS ON PREPAREDNESS

Accepting Nomination G. O. P. Standard Bearer Aligns Himself With the President on "Americanism"—Declares in Favor of Protective Tariff.

NEW YORK, July 31.—Charles Evans Hughes, Republican candidate for President, formally notified this afternoon of his nomination by the Republican convention, received the notification address of Senator Harding, chairman of the Republican national committee, delivered his acceptance address in which he discussed the issues of the campaign.

Hughes touched on many issues of the day, including the tariff, preparedness, the Mexican situation, and those cities where the Republican party is in control.

Hughes said in part:

Mr. Chairman: It is more than a mere ceremony for me to accept the nomination to the office of President of the United States. We are not in politics in political controversies. We are in it because we believe that we can do something for our country. We are in it because we believe that we can do something for our country. We are in it because we believe that we can do something for our country
