San Benito.

Adjutant General Avery of the Colonial National Guard, of Oklahoma City, was a visitor in the city last week. He was on a tour of inspection and managed himself as very well pleased with the camp here and grateful for the many kindnesses of the San Benito people.

San Benito will be represented at the Dallas Fair. A miniature replica naval station will feature the exhibit and a carload of bermuda, sprangas and grapefruit bearing trees will be sent for exhibit, together with samples of farm truck and products.

Major John Alley, commanding the first battalion of the 1st Oklahoma Infantry, presented Cap. Roy Hoffman with the regimental colors Monday morning. The colors were the gift of the students of the University of Oklahoma, Major Alley being the professor of government in that institution. An appropriate speech was made by the major and the band played appropriate patriotic airs. Company K acted as color guard.

Among the teachers who attended the institute at Mercedes last week were Miss Inetha Demaree, Miss Mary Talbott, Miss Dorothy Neiron, Nola Carpenter, Mrs. W. P. Brown and Miss Johnson and Marion Paul of Rio Hondo.

Mr. John T. Lomax, president of the Farmers Bank, left this week for Lacrosse, Mo., where he will join Mrs. Lomax, who has been visiting in Colorado. While in the North Mr. Lomax will attend the forty-second convention of the American Bankers Association at Kansas City, September 25-30.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Davis have gone to Austin for the winter, where their sons, Philip and George, will attend the University.

Miss Gladys Estes has returned to San Benito, after a three-months visit in Corsicana and Houston. Miss Elder Symonds of Houston returned with Miss Estes and will be her guest for several weeks.

Mrs. Rex Dolan of Oklahoma City arrived in the city last week to join her husband, Capt. Rex Dolan, who is stationed here.

Miss Evelyn Embree of Dallas, is a guest at the home of Mrs. A. D. Thompson. Miss Embree has been engaged to teach music in the schools.

Portland

The roof and upper story of the girls dormitory of Day View College were wrecked by the storm. The lower story is rapidly being converted into a very good-looking residence in which Prof. Clark will make his home.

The Portland public school, which is being taught in the Day View College chapel, opened last Monday with an attendance somewhat short of that of last year. There are several reasons for this. Several families left this school district in the light of the drouth. There has been a complete change in the personnel of the teaching force. The teachers employed for this session are, Miss Elizabeth Corey, primary; Mr. Bradley, intermediate; Prof. T. M. Clark, high school grades. The work of the school has been extended to include the eleventh grade and some work will be done even in the twelfth.

Prof. Wallace Clark has returned from his visit to friends in the north and has already resumed his work here and in Corpus Christi. Mrs. Clark and the little daughter are expected to arrive about the first of October.

Reginald Rogers who has been employed by the commissary department of the government at Brownsville all summer, is visiting friends here this week. He will leave shortly to enter school in San Antonio.

The pupils of the high school gave a get-acquainted party in the south portion of the chapel last Friday night, under the direction of Miss Corey and Mr. Bradley. A library and musical program, together with games and refreshments, made a delightful evening.

Walter Roberts, whose father owns one of our best farms, left this week for Brownsville to become a truck driver for Uncle Sam. There is no work on the farm, due to the drought, followed by continuous rains and a destructive storm.

Miss Clarence Dawn left on the late train Thursday to take up her duties as teacher in the Dallas high school. She was accompanied by her grandmother, whose home is in Dallas.

Polk Simpson, for the past two years editor and publisher of our local paper, left this week to accept a position in the northern part of the state. His printing plant here was put out of commission by the storm.

CHICAGO, Sept. 16.—The "female thugs" of pickpockets will not out tonight to curb "mashers" in the downtown districts. Four of the most comely women in the police department, ordered to be "she," will patrol that section of town. Girl look it flirted with and then arrest the "mashers."
