NOTICE IN PROBATE

THE STATE OF TEXAS
To the Sheriff or any Constable of Nueces County—Greeting:

You are hereby commanded that immediately upon receipt of this notice in some newspaper published in your county, a copy of this Writ, you summon all persons interested in the estate of Martha Henry, deceased, to appear at the next term of the County Court of Nueces County, to be holden in the courthouse thereof, in the city of Corpus Christi, on the 16th day of July, A. D. 1917, when and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 22nd day of March, A. D. 1917, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court No. 5961, wherein Layne & Bowler Company, a private corporation, is plaintiff, and S. F. Schrumpf, Annie M. Bagnall, individually and as sole independent executrix and trustee of E. A. Bagnall, deceased, H. B. Sutherland and Ely Henry, a feme sole, are defendants, and said petition alleging:

That on April 7, 1913 defendant S. F. Schrumpf, maker, executed and delivered to E. C. Stotts, Administrator of the estate of Lara Hansen, deceased, a certain promissory note, No. 1, falling due the sum of $1750—due on or before 2 years, No. 2 for $875—due on or before three years and No. 3 for $875—due on or before four years, all bearing interest at 6 percent per annum from date, payable annually with 10 percent interest on past due interest, and providing for about 10 percent attorney's fee, etc., and providing that failure to pay any one of said notes, or the installment of interest, at which the should at the option of the holder thereof, mature all of the unpaid notes. That said notes were given in part payment of a certain tract of land in Nueces County, Texas, known as Farm Tract No. 24, of the Geo. H. Paul Subdivision of the Lessom Pasture, lying North of Texas Mexican Ry. Co. and West of St. Louis, Brownsville & Mexico Ry. Co., as same are at present located, as shown on map or plat of said Subdivision now on file in the County Clerk's office of Nueces County, Texas, to which reference is made, said notes retaining a vendor's lien to secure their prompt payment. That said Affiant-Grantor, on or about March 5, 1914, delivered all of said notes to Hannah Henry, surviving wife of said Lara Hansen, deceased, who was the sole heir at law of said Lara Hansen, and she therefore became the legal owner and holder thereof. That Note after Note No. 1 for $750 was duly paid and said notes Nos. 2 and 3 were, for a valuable consideration, by the said Lara Hansen transferred and assigned to plaintiff herein, who is now the legal owner and holder of said notes, that said Note No. 2 became due April 7, 1916, and that interest on both of said notes Nos. 2 and 3 for 1916 became due on said date and that defendant S. F. Schrumpf, though often requested, failed and refused to pay said Note No. 2 and the interest due for 1916, and plaintiff has exercised the option to declare both of said notes due and payable. That defendant S. F. Schrumpf on June 2, 1915, signing his name "Sam Schrumpf" executed and delivered to H. B. Sutherland as Trustee for use and benefit of E. A. Bagnall a deed of trust on said real estate to secure the prompt payment of a note for $1875, due June 2, 1916 with interest thereon at 8 percent to which deed of trust it is recited that same is subject to the lien now held by plaintiff to secure said notes Nos. 2 and 3, that thereafter on a date unknown to plaintiff, defendant Schrumpf made, executed and delivered to defendant Cox Bennett a conveyance of said land, and that said Cox Bennett claims some right or title in the same, but that his interest is subsequent to plaintiff's lien; that after the execution of said deed of trust to said Sutherland and E. A. Bagnall departed this life, and that Annie M. Bagnall was appointed independent executrix of said estate and is now acting as such, and has succeeded to all right, title or interest which said E. A. Bagnall had in said land. That such interest, claim or lien is subsequent and secondary to plaintiff's lien. Plaintiff prays that defendants be cited to appear and answer herein, that upon final hearing hereof, it have judgment against defendant S. F. Schrumpf for the principal, interest and attorney's fees due upon said notes, for foreclosure of its lien against all of the defendants, for order of sale, writ of possession, and for general relief, as fully as more fully appears from the original petition now on file herein, and hereby referred to for more complete description of said cause of action.

Herein fail not, but have you before said court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ, with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Witness H. O. Cook, Clerk of the District Court of Nueces County.

Given under my hand and the seal of said Court, at office in Corpus Christi, Texas, this the 26th day of June, A. D. 1917.

THE STATE OF TEXAS

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Nueces County, Texas—Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon the heirs of Bessie Layman and of Alice Layman, deceased, whose names are unknown, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Nueces County, to be held at the courthouse thereof, in the City of Corpus Christi, on the last Monday in July, 1917, being the 30th day of July, 1917, then and there to answer the Second Amended Original Answer of Defendants filed in said court on the 5th day of June, 1917, in a suit numbered 5593, wherein B. O. Cook, Sr., J. W. Mussett, T. H. Mussett, Mrs. Anna M. Odell, Mrs. Ida H. House, J. B. Odell, and G. H. House are plaintiffs and Mrs. Eva Nuendell Dennis, Ed Dennis, Mary A. McCampbell Wilkinson, G. E. Wilkinson, James Russell Ward, Richard A. Ward, Reid Ward, Thos. Dudley Ward individually and as sole independent executor of the will of Mary C. Russell, deceased, the First State Bank of Corpus Christi, trustee, Maude Layman, Joseph Layman, Russell Layman and the unknown heirs of Bessie Layman and of Alice Layman, are defendants.

The cause of action of the plaintiffs is shown by the plaintiffs' original petition filed in said cause on the 23rd day of August, 1916, as the same appeared in the County Court of Nueces County, Texas, wherein it was numbered 1288, and such cause of action in such petition set out is as follows, to-wit:

That on the 26th day of June, 1916, there was filed in the Clerk's office of Nueces county, Texas, a certain written instrument, purporting to be the will of Mrs. Mary C. Russell, and witnessed by Harry G. Heaney and Edward B. Kleberg, nominating Thomas Dudley Ward as Executor, and at the same time there was filed an application of said Thomas Dudley Ward praying that said instrument or will be probated in the County Court of Nueces County, Texas. That on the 8th day of August, 1916, there was entered a decree admitting said instrument to probate, and appointing said Thos. Dudley Ward Sole Independent Executor thereof, etc. Plaintiffs pray that the then Defendants (i. e. all defendants except those below mentioned as being now brought in) be duly cited to answer this petition and that upon final hearing they have judgment against said defendants, annulling, setting aside, declaring void and of no effect the said will of Mary C. Russell, and annulling and setting aside the order of the County Court of Nueces County, admitting said will to probate, that they recover their costs and for such other and further relief general or specially, as they may be entitled to under the facts.

And the cause of action and nature of claim of the said defendants as set up in such Second Amended Original Answer based on follows, to-wit:

That Maude Layman, Joseph Layman and Russell Layman are heirs of said Mary C. Russell, deceased, and that the heirs of certain deceased nieces and next of kin of said Mary C. Russell, to-wit, Bessie Layman and Alice Layman, are unknown; that all of such persons are made parties to the suit in order that any judgment obtained herein shall be binding upon them and that they may be bound by the relief prayed for such defendants filing such answer, have affirmative claiming a general denial, special denials of artifice, fraud and undue influence and insufficient mental capacity, alleging that such will and its probate should not be set aside for undue influence, but that the probate of same should be affirmed, be sustained, be confirmed, ratified and made binding, and praying that the said Maude Layman, Bessie Layman and Russell Layman, and the unknown heirs of the said Bessie Layman and Alice Layman be cited to appear herein as parties defendant and that such will and its probate thereof be recognized and reaffirmed and for general relief.

You are further commanded to so summon the defendants and to serve this citation by publishing the same once in each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in a newspaper published in said county; but if no newspaper is published in said county then in the nearest county where a newspaper is published.

Herein fail not, but have you before said court, on the said first day of the next term thereof this writ, with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Witness J. Dorenfield, Jr., Clerk pro tem of the District Court of Nueces County, Texas.

Given under my hand and seal of said court, in the City of Corpus Christi, Nueces County, Texas, this 25th day of June, A. D. 1917.

THE STATE OF TEXAS.

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Nueces County—Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon Joe G Kontakiewicz by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your county, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in any newspaper published in the 28th Judicial District, but if there be no newspaper published in said Judicial District, then in a newspaper published in the nearest district to said 28th Judicial District, to appear at the next regular term (i.e. of the District Court of Nueces County, Texas, to be holden at the courthouse thereof, in Corpus Christi, Texas, on the last Monday in July, A. D. 1917, the same being the 30th day of July, A. D. 1917, then and there to answer a petition filed in said court on the 23rd day of June, A. D. 1917, in a suit numbered on the docket of said court No. 5967, wherein Brookwood Distillery Company, a partnership composed of Ben Ross and L. W. Levy is plaintiff, and Joe G Kontakiewicz, is defendant, and said petition alleging that defendant is indebted to plaintiff as follows:

On a promissory note and for debt, said note executed by defendant March 24th, 1915, for the sum of $450, payable August 1st, 1915, with seven percent interest, further providing for a ten per cent attorney's fee if collected by process of law; that said note was executed to and delivered to plaintiffs herein, who are still the legal owner thereof. That said note was not paid at maturity, and was placed in bank for collection, and said note was protested and that there is an additional protest fee of $1.75. That on October 22, 1915, said defendant bought from plaintiffs 5 cases of whiskey, promising to pay them the purchase price thereof which is $45.50 and he bought five cases of Argo whiskey for which he agreed to pay $45.00. That said note and account for whiskey is long since past due, and though often requested so to do defendant has failed to pay same or any part thereof to plaintiffs' damage in the sum of $250. That on date of said note, defendant executed his certain deed of trust to R. P. Scott, as trustee, conveying following described land, to-wit:

First, Lots Nos 10 and 11 in section lettered "P" in the "Paisley Sub-Division of the sectionized portion of the "Hoffman Tract" Nueces County, Texas, according to map of said tracts on file in County Clerk's office of Nueces County, Texas. Second, A certain tract of land lying and being situated in Nueces County, Texas, and more particularly described as follows, to-wit: 114.7 acres of land being a part of that certain large grant of land called "El Rincon De Santa Gertrudis," said 114.7 acres of land being the farm lots No. five in block 26 and farm lot 1 in block 27 in the surveyed and platted quota of the suburbs of the town of Clapton, Texas, according to the survey and maps thereof now here specially referred to and made a part hereof for greater certainty of description of said land. That said second tract above described was formerly in Nueces County, but is now located in Kleberg County, Texas. That said deed of trust was executed to secure payment of note above described and to secure any indebtedness that said defendant might thereafter owe said Brookwood Distillery Co. That said deed of trust lien is still valid and subsisting in favor of plaintiffs against defendant on said land. That said note was placed on hands of the attorney bringing this suit for collection said plaintiffs agreeing to pay him the attorney's fee stipulated in said note at attorney's fees. Wherefore, premises considered, plaintiffs pray that defendant be cited in terms of law, that on final hearing hereof they have judgment for amount of their said indebtedness, with interest and attorney's fees and for a foreclosure of their lien on said land and for an order of sale and Writ of Possession and all costs in this behalf incurred and for relief both general and special, all as more fully appears from plaintiffs' petition on file herein which is hereby referred to for more complete description of said cause of action.

Herein fail not, but have you before said court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ, with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Witness H. O. Cook, clerk of the District Court of Nueces County.

Given under my hand and the seal of said Court, at office in Corpus Christi, Texas, this 25th day of June, A. D. 1917.
