THE STATE OF TEXAS

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Nueces County, Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon C. R. Young and F. H. Young by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your county, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in any newspaper published in the 28th Judicial District; but if there be no newspaper published in said Judicial District, then in a newspaper published in the nearest District to said 28th Judicial District, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Nueces County, to be holden at the courthouse thereof, in Corpus Christi, Texas, on the first Monday in January, A. D. 1918, the same being the 7th day of January, A. D. 1918, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 28th day of June, A. D. 1917, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said court No. 5773, wherein Mary A. Wilkinson, Mary Lillian Dorm and her husband, Dallas S. Dorm, Nina Blackburn, L. Gunter, Frank P. Lane, W. B. Nurse, E. W. Kaiser, J. F. Wolfram, A. D. Wolfram, C. R. Young, The Alice State Bank and Trust Company, H. M. Lightfoot, are Defendants, and said petition alleging that W. H. Stiele executed and delivered to said C. R. Young, for Defendant, F. H. King, a deed of trust on three described lots to secure the payment of a note for $500 due 60 days after date. That said deed of trust is a secondary lien to plaintiff's vendor's lien thereon. That on September 29, 1913, Defendant Gunter executed and delivered to defendant C. R. Young, as Trustee for Defendants F. H. Clark and H. M. Lightfoot, a deed of trust on three described lots to secure the said Defendants in the payment of a note for $400 and that said deed of trust is a secondary lien to plaintiff's lien herein. That thereafter on September 27, 1915, said defendants, H. M. Lightfoot transferred his interest in said deed of trust to said C. R. Young and said F. H. Young transferred his interest therein to defendant C. W. Kilgore and that said deed of trust and assignments are secondary to plaintiff's lien herein, and plaintiff Mary A. Wilkinson is entitled to foreclosure of such lien against all of said defendants and to have the rights adjudicated by decree of this Court. That on January 24, 1916, defendant Alice State Bank & Trust Company recovered a judgment in Justice Court of Jim Wells County, Texas, against defendant Gunter for the sum of $1028.14 and $24.65 costs and 18 percent interest, and caused an abstract of same to be recorded in Nueces County, which thereafter became a lien upon any real estate owned by defendant Gunter in Nueces County, but that such lien is secondary to plaintiff's lien herein. That on September 6, 1915, defendants J. F. Wolfram and A. D. Wolfram, composing the firm of partnership of The Rexall Pharmacy, recovered a judgment in Justice's Court Precinct No. 1, Jim Wells County, against defendant Gunter for $165 and $12.20 costs, and caused an abstract thereof to be recorded in Nueces County, thereby becoming a lien upon real estate owned by defendant Gunter, but that such lien is secondary to plaintiff's lien herein. That January 1, 1912, W. H. Stiele, maker of said notes, died intestate, leaving as his sole heirs, defendants C. H. Stiele, J. S. Stiele, Mrs. Lillian Dorm, wife of defendant Dallas S. Dorm, and Miss Effie Blackburn, a feme sole, that there is no property for administration on estate of said Stiele deceased, that he left no debts owing, and it is alleged judge that plaintiff is not seeking a personal judgment against said heirs, but is praying for foreclosure of her lien upon said property only. That plaintiff Mary A. Wilkinson makes all of above named parties who claim any right, title, interest or lien upon said above described lots, parties thereto, so that she may have foreclosure of her lien and their rights, if any they have, may be adjudicated by the Court. Plaintiff prays that all of said defendants be cited to appear and answer herein, that upon final hearing she have judgment against defendant L. Gunter, for principal, interest and attorney's fees due upon said notes, and for judgment against all defendants for foreclosure of her lien, costs of suit, order of sale, writ of possession, etc., all as more fully appears from plaintiff's petition now on file herein, which is hereby referred to for a more complete description of said cause of action.

Witness R. G. Cook, Clerk of the District Court of Nueces County.

Given under my hand and the seal of said Court, at office in Corpus Christi, Texas, this the 24th day of July, A. D. 1917.

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Nueces County, Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon Lucy Ford by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your county, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in any newspaper published in the 28th Judicial District; but if there be no newspaper published in said Judicial District, then in a newspaper published in the nearest District to said 28th Judicial District, to appear at the next regular term of the Criminal District Court of Nueces County, to be holden at the courthouse thereof, in Corpus Christi, Texas, on the Twelfth Monday after the Last Monday in July, A. D. 1917, the same being the 22nd day of October, A. D. 1917, then and there to answer a petition filed in said court on the 27th day of July, A. D. 1917, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said court No. 6065, wherein J. P. Ford is Plaintiff, and Lucy Ford is Defendant, and said petition alleging that plaintiff and defendant were married September 16, 1916, in Boyd County, Kentucky. That at all times plaintiff has conducted himself with propriety, and has treated defendant with kindness and forbearance, and has been guilty of no act bringing about the hereinafter described acts and conduct on part of defendant. That plaintiff was obliged to leave his home and defendant April 1, 1917, because of her cruel treatment toward him, the nature whereof was, in part, as hereinafter related, all of which offenses by her perpetrated against him justified his (sic) absence, and which cruelty was such as would have justified a divorce in his favor against her, and all which constituted on her part a leaving of his bed and board for the space of more than three years, with intent on her part of permanently abandoning plaintiff. That she acts on part of defendant, which shall hereinafter in part be referred to, also constitute cruelty which is of such a nature as to render their living together insupportable. That in the year 1915, plaintiff was a public school director, and as such conducted himself honestly and uprightly, but notwithstanding this, defendant conceived the mistaken idea that he was rejecting the favors of Miss with whom he was brought into contact in his said school connections, so that to her mistaken and willing conceptions of his appropriation he was obliged to sell and resign said office. That defendant raved with jealous madness or so made pretense that plaintiff had no rest for many days at a time. That in the year 1916, plaintiff went with cattle he was shipping to Omaha, Nebraska, where he disposed of same, and returned at once to his home, that defendant for will, has now charged him with most abusive with other women, and charged him with adultery to the all without reason or cause. That plaintiff's relations were that of a father, and it was after intercession for him to defendants to be made at a particular time and for purpose of such fact, defendant would cut him the house and quarrel with him and make life most miserable for him. That he followed such course frequently and without ceasing, continuing in denial of plaintiff to a move to a home owned elsewhere which he rented from school community, April 1, 1917. That plaintiff has never lived with defendant since the last mentioned date. Plaintiff avers that he has by decree a divorce from defendant. All as will fully appear to plaintiff's petition on file herein which is hereby referred to for a more complete description of said cause of action.

Herein fail not, but have before said Court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ, with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.
