TRICE BUYS HOME.

Pleasant Grove Country Estate of W. M. Kuykendall, Purchased.

Special to the Eagle.

San Marcos, Texas, July 28.—Colonel Leroy Trice, formerly vice president and general manager of the International and Great Northern railroad, and now a resident of Longview, closed a deal by which he becomes the possessor of the beautiful country estate of Wylie M. Kuykendall, some eight miles north east of this city, on the banks of the Blanco river. This home is approximately called "Pleasant Grove," from the large number of pecan trees and the beautiful park on the estate. An attractive feature is the herd of deer which roam the park at will. The deal involves an investment of more than $25,000. Mr. Trice will make this his home.
