This is Texas week at the World's Fair and the old Lone Star State will loom up.

An insect resembling the boll weevil is said to have made its appearance in the cotton fields of Georgia and North Carolina.

It is reported that the Baltic fleet has at last sailed from Cronstadt, presumably for the far east. Well, let 'em go; the Japs are ready for 'em.

Admiral Geo. Dewey has received a check from the Government for $18,511 prize money for his destruction of the Spanish fleet at Manilla.

A new Texas Pasteur Institute for the treatment of rabies will be open on October 1st. This is something that has long been needed in Texas.

Weimar's cotton receipts up to noon on Friday, Sept. 9th, were 3771 bales. This is a good showing for Weimar, and speaks well for her farmers and business men.

The packers' strike is estimated to have cost $11 000,500 and six lives; besides 213 persons injured and sent to the hospitals. Vegetarian escaped without a scratch.—Houston Post.

The Russians have got to travel 350 miles to reach Harbin, and as the Japs are quicker travelers and better fighters than the Russians it is easy to understand what sort of a trail the Russian army will leave. Napolean left the same sort of a trail on his retreat from Moscow.—Houston Post.

The Russian cruiser Lena carrying 24 guns has arrived very suddenly at San Francisco. She is thought to be lying in wait for Japanese merchant vessels. The U. S. squadron under Admiral Goodrich is watching the Russian vessels.

The main force of the Japanese army is said to be at Yentai and have possession of the coal mines. Both armies are quiet and resting after the recent hard fighting. The Japanese loss at Liao Yang is now reported at 17,538 officers and men and the Russian loss at 25,000.

There is a report from St Petersburg to the effect that the government will immediately dispatch 192 000 men to reinforce Kuropatkin, together with 1000 guns. It is not likely, however, that Russia will be able to send any such force to the east this year. It will require considerable time to mobilize a force so great, and it will require a long time to transport it to the seat of war. In the meantime winter is approaching. As for the thousand guns, it is doubtful if Russia has so many of modern pattern, and it will be a waste of time to send obsolete types to oppose the modern artillery of the Japanese. —Houston Post.

From the present indications the ensuing theatrical season will see as many minstrel shows start out as last season, but we doubt if there will be any more at the finish than there were the season past.

Can you count on the fingers of one hand the successful ones? "History only repeats," "Survival of the fittest" is an old saying, but a true one.

Richards & Pringle's Famous Georgia Minstrels was one of the few big ones that came in a winner. This season they carry a larger and better company than ever, composed almost entirely of new people, giving an entire change of program with a number of new and novel specialties. The date of their appearance in this city is Sunday Sept 18th, at the opera house.

Different kinds of eyes need different kinds of glasses. I have a most proficient system of examining eyes and you can depend upon me for absolute accuracy.

Resolutions Passed by the Teachers Institute at Ballerville.

WHEREAS it has pleased the Almighty in His infinite wisdom to remove from our midst Miss Lula Bower, be it

RESOLVED, that we, the teachers of Lavaca county sustain in her death the loss of an efficient instructor and her pupils that counsel which only a gentle Christian lady can give. Be it further

RESOLVED, that we tender our sincere sympathy to the bereaved relatives and friends of the deceased. And be it further

RESOLVED, that a copy of these resolutions be published in the county papers.

RESOLVED, that we demand of our County Superintendent that he exercise the authority delegated to him by law regarding the contracts and salaries of such teachers as have willfully ignored the County Institute work of Lavaca county for the year 1904.

A rare combination of old-time minstrelsy and bright new ideas in this line of entertainment is seen in the Mammoth Minstrel organization of Richards & Pringle's that will be seen at the opera house, Sunday, Sept. 18th. Its program is a revel of bright minstrel ideas, retaining the pleasing traditions of "Old Plantation Days," as well the gaudy, dandified acts of today, and runs the entire gamut of the best in vaudeville and minstrelsy.

Dragging Pains

2825 Keeler St.,
CHICAGO, ILL., Oct., 2, 1903.

I suffered with falling and congestion of the womb, with severe pains through the groins. I suffered terribly at the time of menstruation, had blinding headaches and rushing of blood to the brain. What to try I knew not, for it seemed that I had tried all and failed, but I had never tried Wine of Cardui, that blessed remedy for sick women. I found it pleasant to take and soon knew that I had the right medicine. New blood seemed to course through my veins and after using eleven bottles I was a well woman.

Maude Bush

Mrs. Bush is now in perfect health because she took Wine of Cardui for menstrual disorders, bearing down pains and blinding headaches when all other remedies failed to bring her relief. Any sufferer may secure health by taking Wine of Cardui in her home. The first bottle convinces the patient she is on the road to health.

Destruction of Character.

(By Mrs. John A. Logan.)

Iago's speech:
"Good name in man and woman, dear my Lord,
Is the immediate jewel of their souls.
Who steals my purse, steals trash; 'tis something, nothing;
'Twas mine, 'tis his, and has been slave to thousands;
But he that filches from me my good name
Robs me of that which not enriches him,
And makes me poor indeed."
—Othello—Act III. Scene 3

Is constantly recalled by the cruel way in which soulless persons attack the name and fame of defenseless persons.

One may spend a life time in building up a perfect character; may make "virtue his business; devotion his chaplain; chastity his chamberlain; sobriety his butler temperance his cook; hospitality his housekeeper; Providence his steward; charity his treasurer piety his mistress of the house and discretion his porter, to let in or out, as most fit," and yet in his passage through the world he will more than once suffer the "stings and arrows of outrageous fortune."

The attendance at the public free school on Monday, Sept. 12th was 126 in all grades, made up as follows: Prof. Muir's room, 31; Miss Bagby's room, 38; Miss Thornton's room, 30; Miss Koch's room, 27. It is thought the attendance will be much larger by the 1st of October. The incidental fee of 25 cents will be collected this week for the purpose of buying wood.

We understand the grand jury has again taken up the investigation of the recent attempt to assassinate W. T. Eldridge at Eagle Lake, and that arrests are liable to be made in connection therewith. New evidence, it is claimed, has come to light which will warrant said arrests.—Weimar Mercury.

Other departures for the World's Fair last Saturday were Geo. W. Wehmann and wife and Wm. Goesch and wife of Scharlottenburg, Chas. Niemann and wife of Sweet Home, and Gen. Lugemann and wife of Witting.
