EVERYTHING IS SET FOR THE WOOLGROWER MEETING

REV. PETER A. SIMPKINS IS TO PRAY FOR THEM.

Address of Welcome From Utah's Chief Executive, Followed By One of the Best Programs Pertaining to Live Stock Industry Ever Arranged —The Market Questions, Etc.

Rev. Simon Bamberger is to deliver the address of welcome at the annual Utah woolgrowers' convention, which will be opened at Salt Lake City April 1st, next. The program has just been completed and is announced by C. B. Stewart, secretary of the Utah Woolgrowers' association. Matters of vital interest just at this time to woolgrowers and sheepmen are to come up for discussion. The program follows:

Invocation, Rev. Peter A. Simpkins; welcome address, Gov. Simon Bamberger; annual address of the president, John W. Thornley; annual report of the secretary and treasurer, C. B. Stewart; "Taxation of Sheep," Wilford Day of Parowan and George Romney Jr., member of the state board of equalization; "The Annual Dipping of Sheep," Thomas Redmond, secretary of the state live stock board; "Co-Operation in the Destruction of Predatory Animals and Rodents," Dr. R. W. Heggan, state live stock inspector, and George E. Holman, district chief United States biological survey.

Address, "Problems of the Sheepmen," Vice President John H. Seely; "Grazing On the Forest Reserves," W. D. Candland of Mt. Pleasant and Homer C. Fenn, United States forest department; "Preparation of Wool For Market," J. R. Edgheill; "Sheep Shearing Problems," M. S. Marriott of Ogden and J. W. Imlay of Hurricane; "Labor Problems of the Woolgrowers," Sylvester Broadbent of Heber; "Co-Operation With the Union Stockyards and Annual Live Stock Show," Thomas Austin, president of the Salt Lake Union stockyards, and J. H. Manderfield; "Live Stock Rates From Summer to Winter Ranges," Henry Moss of Woods Cross and W. A. Crane of Herriman; "Consolidation of Live Stock Interests of the State of Utah," E. C. Parsons, vice president of the state live stock board, and A. K. Hanson of Richfield.

Forsee Keen Rivalry.

Stockmen from nearly every section of the intermountain states are planning on competing at the annual Intermountain Stock show, which will be held in Salt Lake City from April 3d to 6th. Hundreds of entries are anticipated before the date of the opening, declares J. H. Manderfield, who is promoting the exhibit. For the first time in the history of the organization, cattlerisers from Wyoming have announced that they will enter thoroughbreds at the show. Reports from the state indicate many entries will be made within a few weeks from herds that have been winning the premiums at the Kansas City and Chicago International shows.

Executives of the Utah show state inquiries from the farmers, who are raising hogs, point an unusual interest in that department may be expected. In the past little interest has been manifested by hograisers. Thousands of dollars will be given away in awards, announces the committee. Letters from prospective buyers over the intermountain and middle west sections of the country inform that an unusual number of sales may be expected. Full particulars concerning the exhibit may be had by making application to the secretary of the association.

Scabies Among Sheep.

Dr. F. E. Murray, head of the Utah United States bureau of animal industry, declares any idea that a serious epidemic of the scabies has started among Utah sheep is wrong. In spite of rumors after a first investigation, that Grantsville sheep were in a serious condition, Dr. Murray last Saturday stated that there was not a great deal of the disease, what there was being principally found in Grantsville and in the district west known as the Cedar Mountain country. His agents are starting dipping the present week, however, and it is not believed that many animals have so far been exposed. The epidemic started a year ago and was brought into the state from Idaho, Dr. Murray stated.

Pork Price Fixing.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 18.—Conditions caused by rising prices of hogs and pork products will be considered at a conference next Thursday at the food administration's grain corporation offices in New York between Frederick S. Snyder, former head of the meat division; Edgar Rickard, acting food administrator during Herbert C. Hoover's absence, and Ben S. Allen of the food administration.

In arranging the conference Snyder today telephoned food administration officials from Boston, Mass., that regarding Chicago reports that maximum hog prices would be fixed, the only action he had taken had been to urge packers to hold down hog prices. The packers, food administration officials said today, were still under license and their profits were controlled.

WOMEN OF UTAH, YOUR ATTENTION

MRS. W. MONTAGUE FERRY
Women's Liberty Loan Chairman For Utah.

Again we are called to arms. Once more our country needs that peculiar and special service which the women alone can give. The record which Utah women have made in the past liberty loan campaigns shows 100 per cent efficiency. The victory liberty loan campaign must now engage our patriotic attention.

Money must be provided with which to bring home our boys from overseas and from camps where they have been ready always to sacrifice life itself on liberty's altar. Many have cheerfully shed their blood and died that the banner of freedom might be advanced to triumph. For these heroes we reserve a special honor and for their dependents it is our sacred privilege and duty to provide.

Our organization is excellent. We will make it better. Our experience during the past campaigns has been educational. Let us profit by that experience. In April the call will come to begin work. Let us perfect our local organizations, bearing in mind the advantages of co-operation with other organizations already set up, especially with the men's liberty loan committee.

Let us so arrange our affairs that we can devote full time and undivided energy to the successful accomplishment of this last drive for the victory liberty loan.

Turn For the Better.

BOSTON, Mass., March 15.—Government wool auctions have taken a turn for the better, this week's sales having developed keen competition and more spirited bidding than at any previous series. Some lots sold at prices twenty to twenty-five cents a pound above the government minimum prices, this being especially true of scoured wools, though greasy pulled wools also showed considerable strength. Australian wools made a new record at Thursday's sale, all lots being sold at high prices. Many sold well up to the government issue prices, and far above the minimum level established for these sales. More trading is noted among dealers, and though the volume of these private transactions is not large, it is increasing, prices paid being generally well up to auction limits. Cable advices indicate that Great Britain will lower her wool issue price 7½ per cent April 1st, and the expectation is that the United States war department will be obliged to follow with a similar cut as soon as England acts. Eastern dealers are getting ready to operate in the West. Some houses are already soliciting consignments in many sections, and in Arizona a good volume of wool has already been consigned to Boston houses.

WITH THE LIVE STOCKMEN OF THIS SECTION OF UTAH

W. M. Jensen, Price flockmaster, this week received final returns on his last year's wool clip of sixty-six cents a pound—net. It was consigned to a Boston, Mass., firm. He has offered this season's clip at forty cents, but so far has had no taker.

W. H. Watts of Ogden, one of the directors of the Utah Associated Industries, and principal owner of the coal properties in Carbon county bearing his name, has been chosen to represent the association at the annual Utah Woolgrowers' convention, to be held at Salt Lake City, April 1st. He will address the convention on "What Woolgrowing Means to Utah."

An appeal to all farmers and stockgrowers of the state to attend the annual convention of the Utah Cattle and Horsegrowers' association, to be held April 2d at Salt Lake City, was made last Saturday by P. C. Scarup president of the organization, to Thomas Redmond, secretary. It is the purpose of the officers to create a stronger state organization and many subjects of vital importance will be brought up at the convention, according to the announcement.

According to George A. Adams of Monticello, the severe storms of the past few weeks have threatened San Juan stockmen with severe losses. There is a shortage of hay and grain, and as the range is covered with from one to three feet of snow, the situation is very serious. Many cattlemen have resorted to shipping in oilcake by parcel post, and it is believed that hundreds of cattle can be saved by

TWO THOUSAND GONE, SAYS DALLAS, TEX., MAN

SPENT SMALL FORTUNE BEFORE FINDING RELIEF.

After Taking Tanlac, However, Every Bit of Pain and Misery Disappears and He Is Now Able to Go About Business As Before Severe Attack of Rheumatism.

"I spent at least two thousand dollars before I finally got relief by using Tanlac," said Wiley Vesperman of 1418 Bowser avenue, Dallas, Tex. "I suffered with rheumatism in my left arm and shoulder for seven years," he continued, "and at times I was so badly crippled up that I would just have to give up and go to bed. I also suffered terribly with indigestion, and what little I ate formed so much gas that I would belch up my sour, undigested food and would become faint from dizziness. I could hardly sleep at night for the misery I was in and in the morning I would get up feeling so awful that I could hardly get around. But Tanlac has driven away every bit of the pain and misery. I never suffer from indigestion and can eat anything I want. My condition has improved so wonderfully since I started on Tanlac that I am able now to give all my time to my business, just like I did before that awful rheumatism got its hold on me. My wife is taking Tanlac, too, and she is just as enthusiastic about it as I am."

Tanlac is sold in Price by A. D. Sutton, in Helper by Louis Ellertson, in Hiawatha by Carbon-Emery Stores company, in Kenilworth by Kenilworth Mercantile company, in Spring Canyon by the Square Deal Store, in Castle Gate by Wasatch Store company, in Sunnyside by Wasatch Store company, in Winter Quarters by the Wasatch Store company and in Scofield by W. N. Moseley.—Advt.

Gov. FIGHT FAKE SCHEMES.

Thousands of attorneys throughout the United States are to be asked to volunteer their efforts in the government campaign to protect liberty bondholders from fake stock investment schemes. One large organization already has proceeded to notify its membership to this end. The lawyers will be asked to send at once to the federal trade commission the names, addresses and "literature" of stock peddlers seeking to induce liberty bondholders to "exchange" their bonds for questionable securities.

PEDDLERS OF BUM MILK FINED BY JUSTICE LE

J. P. Nelson, deputy dairy and food commissioner, was in Price last Friday attending the trial of two fellows from Helper charged with selling milk that did not come up to standard. They are the owners of the Oberti dairy and the Crus dairy. Fines of ten dollars each were imposed by Justice Arthur J. Lee. The state statutes require that all milk shall be up to a certain standard. The two at Helper fell 2.4 per cent below requirements. Dairies at Wellington were found to be all right in the matter of quality, and also sanitary. Commissioner Nelson tells The Sun that regular inspections are hereafter to be made in Carbon county and that those violating the law are to be vigorously proceeded against.

NEW MAN AT PRICE FOR DENVER AND RIO GRANDE

F. W. Greuser was last Saturday succeeded as agent for the Denver and Rio Grande at Price by M. J. Klopenstine of Bingham, older in service and entitled by seniority to the job here. The latter has been with the road for some twelve years and was checked in Saturday last by Traveling Auditor Mittendorf. Greuser went from Price to Helper last Monday, where he is to relieve C. G. Gordon, agent there, for thirty days. Later he may come back here and take the membership. This he held previous to being promoted to the position of agent. Agent Klopenstine represents those who have met him as a most affable gentleman and he should make friends locally both for himself and his company.

FORGOT WHAT HE NEEDED.

From the Republican, Mt. Gilead, O.: "The editor had an interesting experience some time ago, when a young gentleman came to this office and asked for a copy of the Morrow County Republican. He scrutinized it carefully, when a copy was handed him, and then said: 'Now I know! What is it you are looking for,' we inquired. 'My wife sent me after a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and I forgot the name. I went to several stores and the clerks named over everything in the line on the shelf except Chamberlain's. I'll try again and I'll never go home without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.' The Republican would suggest to the proprietors of stores that they post their clerks and never let them substitute. Customers lose faith in stores where substituting is permitted, to say nothing of the injustice to makers of good goods and the disappointment of customers."—Advt.
