THE PIOCHE WEEKLY RECORD.

VOL. XXX. PIOCHE, NEV., SATURDAY, MARCH 13, 1886. NO. 26

THE WORLD IN BRIEF.

The honey crop in Maine last year was 192 tons.

Colorado's State militia now numbers 1,474 men and 28 officers.

Cactus hedge is the favorite fence in Texas. Politicians do not like it.

The Panama Canal has 102,000 stockholders, of which 16,000 are women.

John Kelly's trouble was profound melancholia, induced by overwork.

Paris eats far fewer eggs now than formerly, but egg eating has increased in London.

Color blindness is not found among the savage races. It is a defect due to civilization.

At Quincy, Mo., a paper mill has turned 400,000 tons of prairie grass into paper since last June.

A German ship, recently lost at sea, had in cargo five million needles for the China trade.

Laura Don, the actress, became religious before her death and bitterly condemned the stage.

The tomb of General Hancock is securely guarded by armed men specially employed by the family.

The Conscience Fund of the United States Treasury has received $220,747.26 in fifty-eight years.

Recent London fogs are said to have been pinkish, but from what cause or probable cause is not stated.

"Gynephobia" is the name of a new disease; shyness of the fair sex. It is very prevalent in California.

The beer drank in Kansas City last year would make a stream two inches in diameter and 208 miles long.

In Antwerp on Holy Innocents' Day, the children are allowed to dress like men and women and run the house.

A crowd at the St. Paul carnival looked on at a horse race when the temperature was 15 deg. below zero.

Mechanical engineers in Pittsburg have decided that the use of natural gas in blast furnaces will never be successful.

Shipments of butter from New Zealand to London are now being made, with the expectation of an ultimate large trade.

French women follow fashion as a dog follows his master. Other women follow fashion as a blind man follows his dog.

The finest soprano singer in New Orleans is a colored girl. She is the leading feature of the revival now in progress.

Charles Mix, the blind Winnebag Indian, formerly a scout for the Government, has just received $4,600 back pension.

A lady near Hartwell, in Georgia, had her teeth freeze and burst during the late cold spell. She left them in a glass of water.

The late General Hancock frequently expressed his belief in the propriety and necessity of cremation. His wife objected to it.

In 1836 William Beach Lawrence gave $12,000 for the Cohrs Point Farm, Rhode Island, and his heirs have just sold it for $650,000.

Count De Soto, Italian Minister in Switzerland, appeared in a public ball dressed in a big drunk, and was recalled by his Government.

Rev. Mr. Braisly, of Kentucky, hopelessly loved a Missouri widow, and settled it the other day by dumping himself in the river at St. Louis.

Dr. Semmelina says that the cholera has existed in Asia from prehistoric times, but it never turned loose on the rest of the world until 1817.

In many school districts in Pennsylvania there is formidable opposition to the law making the study of physiology and hygiene compulsory.

A girl has been found in Wapping, Conn., who has been locked up by her parents twenty years because she wanted to marry against their wishes.

A Denver jury awarded James Hawkins, colored, $1 damages and $4, the price of two tickets, for being refused admission to the Tabor Opera House.

Paris is arranging a baby show that is intended to serve science. The parents will be catechised as to their habits, in order to the hereditary effects in their babies.

Boston folks buy bread on Sunday on credit and refuse to pay it because a Sunday debt is outlawed in that State. The bilked bakers ask for protection.

The Petersburg (Va.) Appeal complains that the people have collected gamblers and indicted murderers to the City Council, who "plunder the Treasury."

Chicago gasmakers expect to furnish 2,500,000,000 feet of their product this year to consumers, and they claim that the electric light has not hurt their business at all.

Wyoming hunters are excited over reports that come from the head waters of Snake river of a band of fifty head of white, or snow elk. Hitherto there have been traditions of snow elk, in which they are described as being as white as the snow, from which they get their name, and larger and swifter than the common elk. Now and then one has been seen but never a herd.
