Petty one of the defendants in the above entitled action stating on account of bias and prejudice of the now presiding Judge the defendants could not get a fair and impartial trial, the Hon. G. F. Talbot telegraphed to Reno for the Hon. J. E. Cheney to come here and try the case. Judge Cheney left Reno this morning and will be here Sunday evening and the case will come up for trial before him on Monday morning, the jury being waived.

The Lieutenant Governorship.

The Supreme Court yesterday decided the Lieutenant Governorship case. C. H. E. Hardin was nominated by the Silver party last fall for Lieutenant Governor. His name was placed on the official ballot in every county in the State, and he was elected by a big majority. The late Attorney General rendered an opinion after the election to the effect that there was no vacancy in the office of Lieutenant Governor, and Governor Sadler upon the advice of the Attorney General refused to issue a commission to Mr. Hardin. The latter applied for a writ of mandamus returnable before the Supreme Court to compel the Governor to commission him as Lieutenant Governor. The case was submited to the court yesterday on a brief, and the court dismissed the application. The opinion is by Cheif Justice Belknap, Justice Bonnifield and Massey concurring.

It now devolves upon Lieutenant and Acting Governor Sadler to call the Senate to order to-morrow, and the President pro tempore of the Senate, whoever he may be, will, by virtue of his office, preside in the Senate and perform the other duties of Lieutenant Governor and in the absence of Governor Sadler act as Governor of Nevada. —Reno Journal, January 16th.
