FORMERLY THE PIOCHE WEEKLY RECORD.

VOL. LVI — PIOCHE, NEVADA, FRIDAY DECEMBER 22 1905 — NO 28

The roadbed of the Sothern Pacific branch is graded to within ten miles of Cherry Creek, White Pine county and has given a new impetus to the mining industry in that district.

The Jambo Mining Company of Goldfield has declared a dividend of 10 per cent.

According to the Student Record the walk from Manzanita to the Dining Hall was completed last week. It is a picturesque improvment and adds much to the appearance of the campus. It has received the name of "Lovers Lane," a title fitting and oppropriate.

Congressman Van Duzer has introduced a bill increasing the oppropriation for a public building in Reno from $60,000 to $100,000. He also introduced bills for reopening the Carson Mint, preventing the employment of convict labor and for digging artesian wells in Southern Nevada.

Road's famous old silver mine which was discovered in 1888 by a man who gave it his name and which was lost for many years after ward, has been rediscovered by Lew Burton, George Keyser and Philip Forg who have found the old shaft with the window glass still in place and even the location notice that was posted by old man Road when he staked out the claim.

The mine lies in Death Valley, about fifty miles below Furnace Creek and seven miles south of Road,s Creek in the Funeral range of mountains. The find has created considerable excitement and is causing another stampede to the dangerous districts in the great Valley of Death.

After location the mine Road took out several tons which he carried on burror to San Bernardino. By displaying the ore he secured financial aid but in talking a party of capitalists to the mine he become lost. No one knew tha locating of the property. A cousion of the old man found it in 1894 but died while makeing a second trip to the property.

This is the very latest in kissology A London woman has a "kiss album." It is providided with a pad of soluble carmine-tinted substance on which the lips are pressed. The kiss is imprinted in a space provided on a page on which the kisser may add his or her own autograph.

To Be Staged in Salt Lake Christmas Week.

Klaw & Erlanger's mammoth mechanical production of General Wall ce's mighty play "Ben Hur" with its lustrous Star of Bethlehem, its camels, Arrbian steeds, Oriental trappery and mimic splehdor of the "gorgeous East," is beyond dispute the most elaborate spectacle ever staged in the history of the world. Its series of seventeen scenes present to the eye a feast of multifarious beauty and variety, and set to a symphonic accompaniment of graceful music. The exciting episodes, such as the galley scene with its horde of chained slaves, the sea-fight, the rescue in mid-sea and the thrilling race with two chariots and eight horses, combined with the picturesque scenes illustrating the Wise Men in the desert, the moonlit lake in the Orchard of Palms where Ben Hur and Iras enjoy seclusion and make love in Iras' barge, the palm-waving worshipper on Mount Olivet, and the Grove of Daphne with its nymphs dancing in the skins of beasts to music of kissing cymbals, simply capivate the great audiences that are nightly in attendance wherever it is enacted.

The great scene which closes the play is the healing lepers on Mount Olivet. Here hundreds of people are arranged in picturesque groupings, the whole forming one of the most stirring scenes ever put upon the stage. The personality of Christ is not shown in the play, but in this scene the nearness of His presence is indicated with the most intense impressiveness by a shaft of purest white light. The dramatization is carefully constructed so as to remove it from the domain of the so-called Passion Pays and while the Savior is only referred to, yet His tremendous dominating power is felt with thrilling effect.

'Ben Hur" scored an immense success in Salt Lake City two years ago. At that time it attracted the public from all parts of Utah, Montana, Idaho and California to witness it, and now that the announcement is made that it will be presented the entire week of December 25th to 30th at the Salt Lake Theatre, Salt Lake City, Utah, the same immense interest will no doubt mark this engagement. All railroad lines entering Salt Lake have fixed to make low excursion rates for those desiring to journey there to witness this stupendous and impressive religio historic drama.
