THE INTELLIGENCER.

SATURDAY MORNING, MAY 26, 1855.

To Correspondents.

ARTICLES concerning subscription, advertising or other business of the Intelligencer, should be addressed to the Proprietors.

Communications for the editorial department of the paper should be addressed to the editors, jointly, or to either of them.

Correspondents writing for publication, will please write only on one side of the paper.

Observance of the above rules will greatly oblige us, secure you a prompt attention to correspondents they might otherwise some times receive.

The Law of Newspapers.

1. Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary, are considered as wishing to continue their subscriptions.

2. If subscribers order the discontinuance of their periodicals, the publisher may continue to send them until all arrearages are paid.

3. If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their periodicals from the offices to which they are directed, they are held responsible till they have settled the bill and ordered them discontinued.

4. If subscribers remove to other places without informing the publishers, and the papers are sent to the former direction, they are held responsible.

5. The courts have decided that refusing to take periodicals from the office, or removing and leaving them uncalled for, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.

The Floating Palace, with its collection of wonderful animals, its Statue Gallery, and music entertainment, will be at our wharf on Monday. The little ones are in ecstacies at the prospect.

The Fourth Ward Public School had a delightful Pic Nic on the Island yesterday. The children and all others who participated in it, seemed to enjoy themselves highly. Mr. Oan, the accomplished principal, is ever anxious to afford enjoyment to his pupils.

FURTHER BY THE AMERICA.

NEW YORK, May 25.—LATEST NEWS.—The French mail has not arrived.

The Vienna correspondent of the London Times remarks: as long as no revolutionary elements are brought into action, Austria will leave Russia to get out of the difficulty as she best can, but if England and France would move from their resolve and employ corps of refugees the loly alliance assured by them should be again formed.

Vienna, Friday evening.—The rumor that Count Buol has given in his resignation is not confirmed.

It is said that Austria is on the point of declaring a complete neutrality, as well as that of the whole of Germany.

Great Britain—It is stated in Parliament that Dundonald's plan to blow up the Russian forts was submitted to the scientific committee.

The bill removing newspaper stamps passed.

Roebuck's committee still in session.

The London Times in editorial says the circumstance that America does not sympathise with the allies is sucking and revolting.

One of the floating batteries, just ready to be launched into the Thames, was set on fire by one of the workmen who had been discharged, and totally destroyed.

Melbourne dates to February 15th, contain nothing important. Gold is quoted at 3 pounds fifteen shillings and 9 pence.

M. de Persigney is appointed Ambassador from France to England, in room of Walewski, further changes are rumored.

A new town of 1,000,000ft. is under consideration by the Council of State.

The Police have discovered a vast plot with its ramifications throughout Europe, to promote insurrection, hence Pianori's execution will be postponed.

Napoleon is dead. Paris in insurrection.

The new French loan should read "700,000,000 francs."

France—It is said that grave differences of opinion has taken place between the Emperor and the late Foreign Minister in regard to the manner in which the latter acquitted the Plenipotentiary at Vienna. It is said that the Emperor expressed strong disapproval of the deposition which the representative manifested to accept dishonorable and delusive terms of peace from Russia, and condemns D L'Huys for too great confidence in the good faith of Austria.

The Emperor is greeted by enthusiastic plaudits by his subjects since the late assassination.

At the trial of Pianori the presiding Judge refused to admit lady spectators into court. The trial is being conducted very quietly, it is supposed with a view to prevent any interest being taken in the prisoner, and to discourage any similar future attempt being made to gain notoriety. The accused has given no reason for the act except that his family had been ruined by the French invasion of Rome.

The coroner's jury brought in a verdict of manslaughter against the captain of ship John, which was wrecked on the English coast. 190 lives were lost.

FURTHER BY THE GEORGE LAW.

A GREAT VICTORY OVER ALL LINIMENTS!
J. B. VONDERSMITH'S
Chang Fha,
OR,
Chinese Liniment.

THIS superior preparation is presented to the American public with the greatest confidence that it is efficient curative qualities excel any other known Liniment. Its action is certain, safe and uniform, failing in no case where an external application is appropriate. All who have tried it regard it as invaluable in the following diseases: rheumatism, sprains, bruises, swelled joints, weak joints, white swelling, pains in the back, hips, sides, the breast, face, or any other part of the body. It is an efficient remedy in bruises, colds, cuts, &c. The excellence of this liniment is chiefly composed of by nature extracted to the vegetable spoles, but is equally efficacious whenever applied to cure diseases of the live domestic animals the horse. Among the many diseases and accidents occurring to the horse, we would it to the most certain remedy, may be named the following, viz: cuts, bruises, sprains in the shoulders, chaps, scratches, cracked heel, swelling, spline, pain in the side, etc. For further particulars see directions on bottles.

TAKE NOTICE

Many and just objections are made to all the ordinary Liniments of the day on account of their offensive smell, and the unsightly stains other leave upon the skin. A common fact which has been verified to the astonishment of the most profound chemists, and to the delight of fastidious patients is that in addition to its surprising curative effects, it is the most healthful cosmetic and agreeable perfume. To any part of the skin to which it may be applied it imparts a rosy and natural glow which lasts for many hours, and leaves the velvety softness of healthy skin, instead of the crusted and charged appearance which is a common result of all other articles used for that purpose. Hence, every lady's toilet is supplied with it who knows its excellent qualities in this respect. To realize its agreeable odor you need but open one bottle and try for yourself.

ZANESVILLE, OHIO.

Mr. J. B. Vandersmith:—

Dear Sir:—, have been afflicted for three years with rheumatism in my back, and for the last six months had to get out of my bed without help, and your agent in our city insisted on my trying one bottle of your Chang Fha Liniment and try what effect it would have; and one bottle has relieved me so much that I was able to get out of my bed without difficulty. It has been a blessing to me, just try it for yourself, and you will be well pleased.
