Weekly Intelligencer.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 24, 1872.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

CITY

LEXINGTON, April 9th, 1872.

EDITORS INTELLIGENCER—GENTLEMEN: Please announce me as a candidate for the office of "City Registrar" at the ensuing June election.

Yours very respectfully,

THOS. STANDISH.

LEXINGTON, Mo., April 9th, 1872.

EDITORS EDITORS: At the earnest solicitation of many friends, I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of City Marshal and Collector, at the coming June election. Respectfully,

JOSEPH A. EDMONDS.

We are authorized to announce Henry A. Mc-Gee as a candidate for the office of City Marshal and Collector, at the June election.

MESSRS. EDITORS: At the earnest solicitation of many citizens, I announce myself as a candidate for the office of City Marshal of this city, at the ensuing election. GANO WAINRIGHT.

MESSRS. EDITORS: Owing to my recent illness, and the weight of my duties in other offices, I announce myself as a candidate for City Marshal, at the ensuing June election, promising, if elected, faithfully to discharge my whole duty to the people of Lexington.

JOHN A. MITCHELL.

We are authorized to announce William C. Dunn as a candidate for the office of City Marshal and Collector, at the June election.

We are authorized to announce Robert Ott as a candidate for the office of City Marshal and Collector, at the June election.

We are authorized to announce R. H. Wilson as a candidate for the office of City Recorder, at the ensuing city election.

We are authorized to announce Mr. William Allen as a candidate for Councilman in East Ward, at the June election.

COUNTY

We are authorized to announce Joseph Barton, of Wellington township, as a candidate for the office of Sheriff of Lafayette county, subject to the decision of the County Convention.

CASH—Paid for Lard, Tallow, Grease or fat of any kind

A. A. & J. O. LESUEUR
Cor. Main and Pine streets.

FOR A GOOD BED, clean room, and a square meal, go to the Lincoln Hotel, Kansas City. J. H. BAGWELL, my13-1y Proprietor.

WHY WILL YOU COUGH—Why will you permit under the use of that terrible foe of life, Consumption, which sure and speedy relief is found in the use of Dr. Wistar's Celebrated Balsam of Wild Cherry? Sold by all druggists. Price 50 cents and $1.

PIANOS—Sterling and Piano Organs at Manufacturers prices. Sheet music, books, and musical merchandise at manufacturers prices. Pianos and Organs to rent. Instruments tuned and repaired. Address, or call on, Thos. Shaw, Agent, Lexington, Mo.

NOTICE—Persons indebted to the late firm of Wallace & Bro. are hereby notified that their accounts are now in the hands of the undersigned for collection, and must be paid at once. Time is pressing, and we hope to be relieved from the necessity of further delay. Yours respectfully,

J. H. WALLACE.

PIANOS—Sterling and Piano Organs at Manufacturers prices. Sheet music, books, and musical merchandise at manufacturers prices. Pianos and Organs to rent. Instruments tuned and repaired. Address, or call on, Thos. Shaw, Agent, Lexington, Mo.

WANTED—Ten thousand persons to call at the Boston Store and see the immense stock of Dry Goods, Boots and Shoes, Hats and Caps, Hardware, Queensware, Groceries, etc., etc., which they are selling at the lowest cash prices for cash or exchange for produce.

[illegible]

SHEWALTER'S RECEPTION (?).

The long threatened, overwhelming reception of "the rival of Henry Clay in his palmiest days," came to pass on the evening of the 16th inst., and yet we are serene, and the earth and other planets still swing around the circle without any material change in speed or relative position. Early in the morning of that day, we were informed, confidentially, that there would be something worth witnessing transpire in town that night, and by diligent inquiry we were able to learn, just before sundown, that the great event was to be the reception of Mr. Shewalter, and a responsive speech by that gentleman. We made it a special point to be present at the reception, and to witness every movement pertaining to it, from its prelude to the final dropping of the curtain and blowing out the lights; and as we have no doubt that few of our readers would like to know, "just out of curiosity," what really transpired on that occasion, we will give a history of it. Just before sundown that evening, small handbills were quietly circulated over town, stating that the Hon. M. L. Shewalter would address his fellow-citizens from the hotel steps that night, and that the Lafayette Silver Cornet Band would be in attendance. At the appointed time the band struck up a stirring tune, and the "crowd" began to gather. At the end of the first time or tune, a voice cried out, "Shewalter," in the peculiar tremulous tone common to a person of old persons in their first attempt to "speak out in meeting." Again the cornet band discoursed sweet music, and when it ceased two voices cried out for "Shewalter." This was encouraging, and Maj. Wilson, who stood ready to introduce the champion, seized on the idea, and cried out "give us another tune." The Major knew how to entertain the crowd. While the band was playing, as only they know how, we took occasion to count those present. We saw that there would be dispute about the matter, and we wished to be correct. By our count there were one hundred and twenty persons present. To be certain we not doing the subject justice, or injustice, we added ten to that number, to cover all possible mistakes, and give it the credit of one hundred and thirty. Of these, twenty-five or thirty were boys, too young to vote, and ten or twelve were guests of the Hotel from a distance; so that, strictly speaking, we say that there were about ninety voters of Lafayette county who witnessed the "grand reception." At least sixty of the crowd, they say, some more and some less, attributed the failure of any pleasant evening to any place down Main street by the playing of the band. Notwithstanding the great show made by the decision and conclusion over this affair, we venture the assertion that there were not twenty persons present, who were willing to be known by the name of "Shewalter" as a speaker. There were not forty of them who endorsed his course on the only question out of which he seeks to make political capital, viz: the County Court Bill. There were not a dozen voters there who believed [illegible]

[illegible]

ROAD OVERSEERS.

We are [illegible] that the position of road overseer, under the amendment, is an honorable one. There is worth to each man in the county, and should be a prize. We have no partisan election on this score, but we do [illegible] intelligent and energetic men to [illegible] such "little position" pay them well. But however much others may [illegible] we do not, these days, on clever young men who are trying to [illegible] a honest, industrious, generous, [illegible] in the country.

[illegible]

THE CONFIDENCE GAME.

A Young Man from Lafayette the Victim.

The last issue of the Kansas City News tells how an unsuspecting young man from this county was "taken in and done for" by a Kansas City sharper. It says:

"Yesterday a young man named C. C. Davis arrived at the State Line House, having under his care a consumptive friend, both of whom are from Lafayette county, Mo., the two being en route for the mountains for the benefit of the sick one's health. At the State line they were accosted by a well dressed young man, who seemed full of business, and who gave his name as Shelby, stating that he was a railroad agent, and wanted to sell them tickets. Shelby recognized an old friend in the sick man, the two at one time having served in the same regiment during the war, and learning that they were going to the mountains, he said that on account of their former acquaintanceship and friendship he would sell them tickets at greatly reduced rates. The sick man then gave Davis $35, and the latter started up town with Shelby to procure the tickets. When they reached the city Davis handed the money to Shelby, and the latter invited his companion into a saloon to take a drink. After drinking Shelby told Davis to wait there about five minutes and he would come and get the tickets. Davis waited about twenty minutes, and then started in search of his railroad friend, but could not find him. He then appealed to the detectives, set out for a vigorous search, but failed to reveal the whereabouts of Shelby."

[illegible]

WELLINGTON ITEMS.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

People gardening.	Corn rising.
Grass growing.	Martins chirping.
Times hard.	Health good.
Spring coming.	Boats arriving.
No deaths.	Farmers busy.
No marriages	Wheat improving.

HIGHS AND LOWS.

HIGH.	LOW.
Potatoes	Bacon.
Wheat.	Hemp.
Taxes.	Hogs.
Big muddy.	Morals.
The wind.	Hemp seed.
Not low.	Six per cent.
Seven feet tall.	Radical party.

PLENTY AND SCARCE.

PLENTY	SCARCE
Rain.	Butter.
Cats.	News.
Fires.	Vegetables.
Lecturers.	Money.
Good advice.	Snow.
Dogs.	Prompt pay.
Bean Whisky.	Resting-chairs.
Dens.	Piety.
Spoking.	Game.
Candidates.	Common Sense.

ELECTION.

The election for school directors, for this township, came off the 15th of this month. Number of votes polled, 38. The following were elected: James R. Green, Gideon Hayne and John A. Lockhart.

RESIGNED.

Rev. A. A. Moore has resigned his pastorate at Wellington and Lexington, C. P. churches. He is appointed agent for Methodist colleges, and will travel in the interest of that church enterprise.

MOVED.

James R. Rudd has removed his tailor shop from Main street to North side public square, where, with tape lines, shears and best goods, he will attend to the wants of the public in his line.

SAWING LUMBER.

Thos. T. Dillon has commenced sawing, under "full blast of steam," running his mill day and night, and will soon have enough timber sawed to fence in all creation. "Oh, all the saws you ever saw saw, you never saw a saw saw like his saw saws."

FARM WORK

has commenced; every farmer turning up the soil. If there is not a big crop of every thing made it will not be for want of industry on the part of our farmers. All seem determined to make a little more than their taxes this year.

ON A VISIT.

Thomas J. Carr, formerly a resident here, has been sojourning here several days on a visit to his friends and relatives. He reports his little town, Carrsville, all right, and increasing in houses and population. There is now a post office at the place of which he is the honorable P. M.

OMISSION.

In former items from our little city there have been some very important items respecting her people, &c., unintentionally omitted. One thing in particular it can be said of Wellington that it has long been celebrated for its pretty big girls and fast little boys. Those who know them best appreciate them most. [illegible] Nuff said.

Only [illegible] cents for a gold picked muslin, and will cut Keller's Variety store. 5-21

Go to Davis & Alstadt, where you can buy the best and cheapest boots and shoes in the city.

PRAIRIEVILLE ITEMS.

We clip the following from the Banner of the 20th of the month below:

Twenty-six or seven kinds of stock were shipped from this place on Friday last, on a special train for that purpose.

Our enterprising townsman and lumber dealer, Mr. Smith, is about starting a brick yard, where he intends making and burning 100,000 brick, for the purpose of building a large grain warehouse, near the switch.

An examination of the children of the town of school age shows that we have 241 white, and 19 colored. We have 236 families which are located within a radius of not less than six miles. This was given as a population in 1850, which we think is not far from accurate.

A colored [illegible] living a few miles from this place, was married to a woman about two weeks ago, that she died on Saturday night last.

She was out in the field where her father was cultivating corn stubble, and was picking up stalks and throwing them into heaps, when she died in a fit. She was about [illegible] years of age.

[illegible]

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Winter still lingers in the lap of spring, last Monday morning cool and frosty.

Grand Sunday school jubilee talked about for the last of May. Railroad excursion and picnic at Sweet Springs. Committees of the different schools in this city in consultation.

Thomas cat fights of nightly occurrence under our office window. Fur-flying, caterwauling and sich like.

Freight from St. Louis, to this point 25cts per hundred on the railroad, and 20 cts on the river.

The buds and blossoms of opening spring have heralded forth one candidate for Mayor and fifteen for city Marshall. Look out for "hydrophobia" in June.

A man drove a team to town last Saturday, got drunk, acted mighty periously, and fell in the hands of officers Turner and Wainright, who gave him a night's lodging in the calaboose.

The Anthracites pay 65 cts. per hundred on freight from St. Louis. That's the old company of stockholders, I learn, are in receipt of [illegible]

State Sunday school convention in Warrensburg on the 7th and 8th of May.

Waverly sub-contractor, like Falstaff, forswears "strong potations" and imbibed herself—not to sack, but to the pure juice of corn," made at her own distillery.

The Quarrelsome story of George S. McGee & Co., is still a matter of contention, and only by the aid of a [illegible] and the [illegible] of attorneys, will it ever be settled satisfactorily and amicably to the parties concerned.

The commencement of the completion of the iron railroad bridge over the Missouri river at Leavenworth, was a long delay in that city on the 15th inst.

The latest Yankee invention is a child to the world's accepted "dog buster." Full description next issue.

A drove of fine sheep passed through the city last Monday, bound for Cass and Johnson counties.

Many farmers are pressing up their wheat, milled as soon as harvested. A well-informed lady, that no more than half a crop will be raised in the county.

Lafayette Washington Johnson, colored, says: "Being asked by many friends, of my own color, as well as the white folks, to run for the office of City Marshall, I hereby determine myself as a candidate for that office.

Grand Illumination three nights of last week at Lutes or our great dry goods house, Wardell, Austin & Co's, Wilson & Hutchinson's and McCausland & Bedford's. Each house thronged by crowds of visitors of both sexes, whose eyes were dazzled by the brilliant display of silks, satins, laces, ribbons, and fine muslins and our ladies arrayed with such taste as to make the stores exhibit an animated bower of beauty and grace.

Methodist mite tea to-morrow evening, at Mrs. Tomlinson's, next Friday night.

Erysipelas is the prevailing disease in the city. Several cases have proved fatal.

Our city [illegible] R. H. Bransford, was one lucky dog, [illegible] and drew a prize of [illegible]

Circus continues to show to crowded audiences, and repeat day after day.

"Rip Van Winkle," the world renowned musical performance, was given Monday night at Harmonia Hall.

Our friends Rice and T. J. Fletcher, of Waverly, go into business at Concordia this few days.

Armstrong [illegible] the grand [illegible]

[illegible]

Lunch! Lunch!

BOCK BEER!!

AT

TURNER HALL

ON

Wednesday, May 1st, 1872.

[illegible]

GRAND HORSE SHOW—On Saturday, May 4th, 1872, or the first Saturday in May, thereafter, in Lexington, a grand display and exhibition of all the trotting blood and general stock in the county. To every man who owns a valuable horse, or is interested in the show of good stock, we extend an invitation to be present and take an interest in the show and sale on that day.

[illegible] Variety store. 5-21

MARRIAGES.

Married, on Monday, 22d inst., at Bates[illegible], Lafayette county, at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. JOHN W. JAMES, to Miss [illegible] WOOD, of the former place.

[illegible]

DEATHS.

Died, in this county, April 19th, 1872, at the residence of his father, Samuel Shaw, Mrs. [illegible] Rudd, wife of William R. Rudd, in the twenty-second year of her age, leaving an infant child to the care of her husband.

The subject of this notice attended here the old school Presbyterian church, under the ministry of the Rev. Mr. Quarles, of the Hopewell church, in the vicinity of Bates, and was a member of the church, and a devoted christian. [illegible]

[illegible]

LEXINGTON MARKETS.

Wednesday, April 24, 1872.

Bacon—Sugar cured, [illegible]

Beeswax—[illegible]

Butter—Good to choice, [illegible]

Corn—[illegible]

Eggs—[illegible]

Flour—Extra family, $5 25 to $5 50; [illegible]

Grain—Wheat, no demand and lower. Receipts 1,600 bushels. Winter red Western, $1 20 to $1 25; [illegible]

Hay—Receipts 1,600 pounds. Prairie, $8 00 to $9 00; [illegible]

Hemp—Receipts 1,000 pounds. Dull. Low Western, [illegible]

Hides—Dry flint, [illegible]

Hog products—Receipts [illegible]

Lard—[illegible]

Lead—[illegible]

Leather—[illegible]

Nails—[illegible]

Oil—[illegible]

Pork—[illegible]

Potatoes—[illegible]

Seeds—Clover, [illegible]

Tobacco—Receipts [illegible]

Wool—[illegible]

[illegible]

somewhere, dump in the potatoes and cover them with dirt, as if burying garbage or offal to convert it into manure, will have the desired effect on potatoes in all such seasons as the past winter, as they will turn out nicely rotted in the spring. Our northern friends in Iowa, Wisconsin and Minnesota, in spite of much colder weather, saved their potatoes in good order, and have been realized high prices.

Trade has ruled rather dull for the past week, owing to the farmers being busy with their work. Saturdays now are bustling and active days in town, as every one seems to defer their trading to that day. Why can we not have some special day of each month set apart as a big trading day, for the sale of all kinds of stock—horses, mules, cattle, hogs, sheep, &c.—old and young, big and little, fine and common? Nothing would add more to the prosperity of our town, or be a greater convenience to our farmers. If they have anything to sell they will know when and where to find buyers. If they want to buy they will know when and where to find sellers. These monthly sales are an institution in the State of Kentucky, and have characterized system to the business of all of stock, of all kinds, which take place there during the year. It is generally conceded that dissatisfaction, old or the ground, such and similar, is hard to get rid of among a young, and no way of aid or getting about it. If farmers really desire to turn their attention to the raising and sale of stock, let them [illegible] the establishment of regular monthly sales.

New York, April 20—Flour in fair demand and lower. Receipts 4,600 barrels; superfine Western and State at [illegible] cents; extra State $7 15 to $7 [illegible]; extra Western, $7 15 to $7 [illegible]; extra Ohio, $7 [illegible] to $8 [illegible]; extra Genesee, $8 [illegible] to $9 [illegible]. Wheat—Receipts 1,000 bushels; [illegible] Corn—Receipts 1,000 bushels. [illegible]

Chicago, April 20—Flour in fair demand and higher. Receipts 4,000 barrels. Winter red Western, $5 20 to $5 [illegible]; winter white Western, $5 [illegible] to $5 [illegible]; spring extra, $4 [illegible] to $4 [illegible]; spring extra Western, $4 [illegible] to $4 [illegible]; spring extra Minnesota, $4 [illegible] to $4 [illegible]. Wheat—Receipts 26,000 bushels; [illegible] Corn—Receipts 4,000 bushels; [illegible] Oats—Receipts 3,000 bushels; [illegible] Rye—Receipts 1,000 bushels; [illegible] Barley—Receipts 1,000 bushels; [illegible] Pork—Receipts 1,000 barrels; [illegible] Lard—Receipts 1,000 tierces; [illegible] Bulk meats—Receipts 1,000 pounds; [illegible] Whisky—Receipts 2,000 barrels; [illegible]

[illegible]

DRY GOODS!

CLOSING OUT SALE!

AT

Wilson & Hutchinson'

105 MAIN STREET.

GREAT

REDUCTION IN PRICES!

To meet the wants of the People and convert our Dry Goods into Greenbacks.

☞ Desirous of reducing stock previous to the 1st of January, 1872, we offer the following great inducements in prices, which are very much below the market value. Read attentively and take a few line for the Bargains! (.5)

☞ 100 yards cotton flannel at 10c. (.5)
200 yard cretonne at ten yards for $1.
500 yard cretonne, extra wide, eight yards for $1. (.5)
25 dozen huck towels, fringed, $1 25. (.5)
10 dozen huck towels, extra large, $5. (.5)
500 pounds cotton batting, 18c per pound.
2000 comfort calico, 10c.
50 pair blankets, at $3 to $12.
Good jeans at 25 to 30c.
Excellent jeans at 40c to 60 and 75c.
Cassimeres, a large lot from $1 to every price marked down to zero.
Astrachan and seal skin jackets $4 to $7 75—a great sacrifice.
Fifty dollars worth of furs at very tempting prices. Winter is coming. A few fine sets at $20 to $75.
Tartan silks for Misses at $1 worth $1 75.
700 yards beautiful repp ribbons in all colors, at 50c worth 75; never had the price. (.5)
Excellent plaid at 25c worth 37c.
Excellent plaids at 25c worth 37c.
Satin striped nipons at 40c worth 50c. (.5)
Patterns of silk poplins at $14 worth $18 75.
Pattern of silk poplins $16 worth $24. (.5)
Patterns of silk poplins at $17 worth $22.
Long and square shawls $3 to $12.
French repp silk and wool shawls at $17 worth $22. (.5)
French repp silk and wool barnous shawls $9 worth $12.
Beautiful zephyr barnous at $7 sold last year at $15—a few left.
Sheard suits, grey and plaid, at $5 to close out, sold last year at $15. (.5)
Furs, a great bargain, at $7 50, worth $20.
Kid gloves all colors and sizes at $1 a pair to close out, cheapest gloves in America.
25 doz L. C. handkerchiefs $1 per doz.
25 doz hem stitched handkerchiefs eight for $1.
20 doz hem stitched handkerchiefs six for $1.
20 doz hem stitched handkerchiefs five for $1. (.5)
5 doz. fine handkerchiefs 75c each.
2 doz. shaker all wool hose 75c.
20 doz. shaker socks 50c to 65c.
50 doz. tie rino hose six pair for $1.
25 doz. tie rino hose six pair for $1. Beautiful embroidered sets at 75c worth $1. Also, at $1 00, $1 25 and $1 50 per set. (.5)
Glove boxes 50c worth 75c.
500 yards grey flannel at 40c worth 50c.
300 dollars worth of lace collars from 25c to $1, being the finest assortment, best styles and cheapest lot of lace collars ever offered for sale in Lexington—new styles received every month. These goods must be seen to fully appreciate the extremely low prices at which we are selling them. This is no "cuse" to get up an excitement; but based on sound commercial principles, benefiting ourselves as well as the people. (.5)

Reduced Price of this Corset $2.50.

We are sole agents for Mrs. Moody's Celebrated Abdominal Corsets, the only corsets made on correct principals, which give ease and comfort, being a lasting benefit to those who use them.

COME ONE, COME ALL, CASH IN HAND AND SECURE BARGAINS.

105 Main Street, Lexington, Mo.

WILSON & HUTCHINSON.

FOR BARGAINS

IN

New Goods!

GO TO

NO. 89

MAIN STREET

Where can be found one of the

Handsomest Stocks

OF

GOODS

EVER BROUGHT TO

LEXINGTON!

J. H. Ardinger & Co.,

NO. 89 MAIN ST.,

Have the largest and most attractive stock of New and Beautiful Goods in the City.

J. H. ARDINGER & CO.,

No. 89 Main St.,

Are selling Great Bargains in Staple and Fancy

DRY GOODS

CARPETS.

Oil Cloths, Mattings, &c.

AT REDUCED PRICES.

J. H. ARDINGER & CO.,

No. 89 Main St.,

Have the largest assortment for Ladies' Dress Goods, Dress Cassimeres, Tweeds, Jeans, Cottonades, Linens, &c. Which they are selling very cheap. Very Handsome all-wool Cassimeres, for Men & Boys' Wear,

As Low as 75c per Yard!

J. H. ARDINGER & CO.,

Have a large assortment of New and Beautiful

DRESS GOODS!

Of all styles which they are offering at very small advance on New York prices. The Ladies are especially invited to come and examine this new goods and Prices.

J. H. ARDINGER & CO.,

No. 89 Main St.,

Have a large assortment of Brown and Bleached Sheetings and Shirting, Ticking, Apron Checks, Tickings, Table Linen, Damask, Irish Linen, and everything else usually found in a dry goods store.

J. H. ARDINGER & CO.

Also have a large and general assortment of the following goods

French Work, and Hamburg Edgings and Insertings.

Real and Imitation Valenciennes Edgings and Insertings

Real and Imitation Guipure Laces.

French Muslin and White Organdy.

Swiss Muslin, Nainsook and every thing else in the White Goods and Embroidery line.

Also, an immense stock of

Ladies' & Children's Cotton Hose and Handkerchiefs,

AT GREATLY REDUCED PRICES.

Also, a large supply of extra

PRIZE COLLAR.

For men and boys. Each box contains a prize.

In conclusion we would say that we intend to keep on hand, at all times, every article in the dry goods line needed by the community which we will sell as cheap as the cheapest. All are invited to call and examine our goods and prices, believing they will save money by doing so.

Respectfully,

JOHN H. ARDINGER & CO.

aprl3tf

CHEAP.

P. C. PATTERSON & CO.

Salt per barrel $4 00.
Sugar eight pounds for $1 00.
Coffee four pounds for $1 00.
Boots and Shoes.
Queensware.
Kentucky Whisky.
Wooden Ware.
☞ Goods delivered Free. n23f

WANTED—By a young man, a graduate of a Commercial School, a situation as book keeper in some business house, at a moderate salary. The best of reference given. Apply at this office. No. 18f

GREAT NOVELTY—At Davis & Alstadt's, a Shoe without a tassel or button, or to be fastened by them. 1f

PURE—Kentucky whisky always kept at the Eldorado, on Lafayette street. When you want the pure article call at the member of the place, or at the bar. We keep no drug out for our customers, but every prescription and which you take a drink. You need not fear of being poisoned. Remember the Eldorado, Lafayette street. aprilf4

SOMETHING NEW

IN

KID GLOVES!!

Every Shade and Color,

AT

UNHEARD OF PRICES, AT

n5tf WADDELL, AUSTIN & CO'S.

CURE YOUR CORNS—By going to Kings. In style, fit and finish, his boots can't be beat. No. 18 tf

DON'T BE OFFENDED!

We here take occasion to inform our friends for the liberal patronage in the past, and hope to merit it in the future. We regret the necessity which compels us to call upon our friends. We cannot sell goods any longer on time, not even for an hour. Cash, or No SALE. As we deal with only one, we must be dealt with on the same. J. L. MENG, A. S. ON.

Dover, Mo., April 14th, 1872.

P. S. This is the rule to be strictly practiced in medicine. Respectfully,

S. J. MENG.

CASH! CASH!!

On and after this date it is my intention to adopt the late departure that is becoming so popular. I propose to decline the opening of new accounts, and close all that are due, and in the future to give accommodations only to those who have paid promptly when the cash was required. Those who are indebted to me, I urgently request to call and settle their small accounts.

WM. J. PIGOTT.

Lexington, March 20th, 1872.

Good bleached muslin, yard wide, at 12½ cts., at Keller's Variety store. 5-21f

NOTICE!

I have one hundred and twenty acres of fine blue grass, with living water, and will pasture all kinds of stock on very reasonable terms. For full particulars call on Eugene M. Ewing, two miles from Lexington, near Mr. Limrick's.

no1-2m EUGENE EWING.

GREAT NOVELTY—At Davis & Alstadt's, a woman's foot shoes without a seam behind. 1f

GOOD—Cloth shoes at Davis & Alstadt's for ladies at $1 per pair. 1f

Go and look at Armstrong's patent hedge knife and the "Thomas Smoothing Harrow." John Waddell has tried the last and pronounced it a success. 4-1t

[illegible]

REMEMBER THE PRICE.

FOR 25 CENTS PER YARD

You can buy

DRESS GOODS

WORTH 27 1-2 CTS., IN NEW YORK,

AT

n3tf WADDELL, AUSTIN & CO'S

CORRECTION—Owing to the bad manuscript and our want of familiarity with "manuscript," several material errors occurred in the article published last week concerning Dr. Bradley's Vermifuge. In the phrase "what excuse are most likely to mar well with each other" read "suit" should be used instead of mix. Rye-silk Handkerchiefs was the grand size and not the size of Gentlemen's Small, as published. A [illegible] instead of [illegible]. In the phrase "suppose you do not, you will certainly get a good laughing" the word should be used in the place of laughing. Another small error occurs which alters the sense of the piece.

Armstrong's hedge, [illegible] knife of every variety, and [illegible] in W. [illegible] Armstrong's [illegible] today. 4-1t

A PRODIGY—A horse, the property of our young friend, Eugene M. Lewis, after enduring the agonizing throes of parturition for nine hours, succeeded in producing a colt in 5 seconds, gave birth to a wonderful specimen of long eared stupidity. As soon as the young animal had raised himself on its hamches, the standard was applied, and he measured just three feet seven inches. "How is that for high?"—mule. Bring on your young "jay-sacks" and beat it. The colt is finely formed, and sired by Kennedy's celebrated Kentucky jack.

STABBING AFFRAY—A serious stabbing affray occurred last Friday at Robinett's saw mill, about one mile south of Dover. The parties engaged in it were Kensler and Snyder, two [illegible] employed in the mill. They became involved in a quarrel, during which Snyder called Kensler a d—d lying son of a b——. Upon this the latter picked up a stick of wood, but this being too heavy to handle, he threw it down and struck, or struck at Snyder with his fist. Snyder then drew a pocket knife and stabbed Kensler three times, once in the breast, and twice in the side just above the hips. Snyder fled, and has not been heard of since. Kensler's injuries, though severe, are not regarded as dangerous.

NEW AGENT—Capt. Thos. Johnson, of the city hotel, has been appointed ticket agent of the North Missouri R. R. in this place. He will have his office in the east room of the Hotel, which is being repaired and elegantly fitted up by the company at a cost of some $500 or $600.

The celebrated Racine wagons, with the latest improvements, at Armstrong's. 4-1t

[illegible]

RED HOT RIVALRY—We never witnessed a more married house in our town than Wilson & Hutchinson's and McCausland & Bedford's last week. Each house thronged by crowds of visitors of both sexes, whose eyes were dazzled by the brilliant display of silks, satins, laces, ribbons, and fine muslins and our ladies arrayed with such taste as to make the stores exhibit an animated bower of beauty and grace.

Methodist mite tea to-morrow evening, at Mrs. Tomlinson's next Friday night.

Erysipelas is the prevailing disease in the city. Several cases have proved fatal.

Our city [illegible] R. H. Bransford, was one lucky dog, [illegible] and drew a prize of [illegible]

Circus continues to show to crowded audiences, and repeat day after day.

"Rip Van Winkle," the world renowned musical performance, was given Monday night at Harmonia Hall.

Our friends Rice and T. J. Fletcher, of Waverly, go into business at Concordia this few days.

Armstrong [illegible] the grand [illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible]

COMMERCIAL.

The weather for the past few days has been cool, with an occasional shower, not altogether unfavorable to farming operations, but not favorable to the growth of plants.

Wheat is still looking fair, considering, though there are very few places which can be said to be good, and very many which are failures, or the next thing to it. Many farmers complain that their wheat does not look as well as it did two weeks ago, which would indicate the presence of some bug or worm. Very little corn has been planted as yet. The area devoted to this crop will be largely added to by the fields which have failed to bring wheat.

Our farmers should learn a lesson from their experience with potatoes the past winter. The practice, which is very common, of letting any boy or common hand about the place, dig a hole somewhere, dump in the potatoes and cover them with dirt, as if burying garbage or offal to convert it into manure, will have the desired effect on potatoes in all such seasons as the past winter, as they will turn out nicely rotted in the spring. Our northern friends in Iowa, Wisconsin and Minnesota, in spite of much colder weather, saved their potatoes in good order, and have been realized high prices.

Trade has ruled rather dull for the past week, owing to the farmers being busy with their work. Saturdays now are bustling and active days in town, as every one seems to defer their trading to that day. Why can we not have some special day of each month set apart as a big trading day, for the sale of all kinds of stock—horses, mules, cattle, hogs, sheep, &c.—old and young, big and little, fine and common? Nothing would add more to the prosperity of our town, or be a greater convenience to our farmers. If they have anything to sell they will know when and where to find buyers. If they want to buy they will know when and where to find sellers. These monthly sales are an institution in the State of Kentucky, and have characterized system to the business of all of stock, of all kinds, which take place there during the year. It is generally conceded that dissatisfaction, old or the ground, such and similar, is hard to get rid of among a young, and no way of aid or getting about it. If farmers really desire to turn their attention to the raising and sale of stock, let them [illegible] the establishment of regular monthly sales.

New York, April 20—Flour in fair demand and lower. Receipts 4,600 barrels; superfine Western and State at [illegible] cents; extra State $7 15 to $7 [illegible]; extra Western, $7 15 to $7 [illegible]; extra Ohio, $7 [illegible] to $8 [illegible]; extra Genesee, $8 [illegible] to $9 [illegible]. Wheat—Receipts 1,000 bushels; [illegible] Corn—Receipts 1,000 bushels. [illegible]

Chicago, April 20—Flour in fair demand and higher. Receipts 4,000 barrels. Winter red Western, $5 20 to $5 [illegible]; winter white Western, $5 [illegible] to $5 [illegible]; spring extra, $4 [illegible] to $4 [illegible]; spring extra Western, $4 [illegible] to $4 [illegible]; spring extra Minnesota, $4 [illegible] to $4 [illegible]. Wheat—Receipts 26,000 bushels; [illegible] Corn—Receipts 4,000 bushels; [illegible] Oats—Receipts 3,000 bushels; [illegible] Rye—Receipts 1,000 bushels; [illegible] Barley—Receipts 1,000 bushels; [illegible] Pork—Receipts 1,000 barrels; [illegible] Lard—Receipts 1,000 tierces; [illegible] Bulk meats—Receipts 1,000 pounds; [illegible] Whisky—Receipts 2,000 barrels; [illegible]

[illegible]