Local Dotings.

To Correspondents.

We are in receipt of a beautiful and thoughtful tribute to the late Mrs. Mary B. Miles, wife of Col. Richard H. Miles, which we shall take a melancholy pleasure in publishing in our next paper. Our restricted space will not admit of publishing it this week. The communication of Mr. G. J. Jones recommending Mr. W. R. Cromwell for tobacco inspector is also crowded out, as is the tribute to the late Mrs. Mary V., wife of Mr. Addie Wible, as well as an interesting letter from a new Baltimore correspondent.

Cast Through by Ice and Snow.

The schooner Wm. Emory, belonging to Capt. J. W. Crowell, was cut through by ice near Blakiston's Island a few days ago and sank.

Narrow Escape.

We are informed that Miss Estella Clarke, while crossing the ice in St. Jerome's Creek with some young friends a few days ago broke through and had quite a narrow escape from drowning.

For Baltimore.

The Schooner, Father and Son, Capt. Benjamin Foxwell, sailed for Baltimore from our harbor on yesterday. Orders for freight left with Dudley & Carpenter will be promptly attended to.

Thoughtful.

All the doors in St. Aloysius' church in our village have been lately so arranged as to open outwardly. It is known that the church is frequently crowded to its full capacity and the precaution is a thoughtful one.

Late Fires.

We much regret to learn from the Enterprise of the severe loss which Mr. Samuel Herbert has met with by the destruction by fire of his dwelling and nearly the whole of his furniture. The fire occurred on Sunday last week and there was no insurance. And still another, Mr. Edgar Smith, of St. Inigo's district, a tenant of Mr. John Gray Lillburn, had his house burned a few days ago, and lost everything he had, except a small lot of furniture. There was no insurance.

Corn House Breaking.

A correspondent informs us, that Mr. Joseph Latham, of the Md. Spring section of this district, had his corn house broken into last week and about a barrel of corn taken therefrom. The thieves, who entered by removing a piece of the weatherboarding, left no clew by which they could be traced. Corn house breaking is a sort of epidemic in this neighborhood. Mr. Sebastian Thompson, near the same place, had lately a similar visitation, but the extent of his loss we have been unable to ascertain.

Accidentally Killed.

A young man named Wm. S. Fenwick, a son of the late Enoch Fenwick, was killed in St. Inigo's district, on the 23rd instant, by the supposed overturning of his cart. He is known to have left Mr. Norris' house, who was his brother-in-law, about 2 o'clock, p. m., and was found about 4. When found he was making his way, crawling, to a tenant house near by. He died in about an hour after being found and was unable to give any intelligent account of the accident. He was in his 17th year.

Friday Night's Entertainment.

We hope all our readers will bear in mind that the Entertainment for the benefit of St. Aloysius' church, in our village, will come off on Friday night next and at the Society's Hall. We have already mentioned the name of the Play to be performed, with the cast of characters. Time of performance two hours and 45 minutes. Doors open at 7 o'clock—curtain rises at 8. After the play, there will be dancing and refreshments. Admission, 50 cents—children, 25 cents. See notice in to-day's issue.

Religious.

Lecture at Ebenezer M. E. Church on Monday night, Feb. 1st, by Rev. James McKendree Kelly. Subject—The Circuit Rider, or Personal Reminiscences of the Itinerary.

There will be Quarterly Meeting Services at St. Paul's M. E. Church on Sunday next, Jan. 31st. Sermon at 11 o'clock by Rev. J. McKendree Kelly, D. D., of Washington city, followed by Sacramental Service. All are invited. Quarterly Conference Meeting at 11 o'clock Saturday, January 30th.

A $200.00 Bible Reward.

The publishers of Rutledge's Monthly offer twelve valuable rewards in their Monthly for February, among which is the following: We will give $200.00 to the person telling us which is the longest verse in the Old Testament Scriptures (not the revised edition), by Feb. 10th, 1886. Should two or more correct answers be received, the Reward will be divided. The money will be forwarded to the winner Feb. 15th, 1886. Persons trying for the reward must send 30 cents in silver or postal notes, (no postage stamps taken) with their answer, for which they will receive the Monthly for March, in which the name and address of the winner of the reward and the correct answer will be published and in which several more valuable rewards will be offered. Address: RUTLEDGE PUBLISHING COMPANY, Easton, Pa.

Wild Duck and Terrapin.

In another column it will be seen that the irrepressible proprietor of Moore's Hotel—the gallant Herbert—proposes a Grand Supper to be had at his Hotel Tuesday night next, the 2nd of February, coming, and that Wild Duck, Diamond Back Terrapin, Oysters in every style, Turkey, Stuffed Ham, etc., will be features of the occasion, all in abundance and nicely prepared, and all for 50 cents, the entertainment to be concluded by dancing.

Jury List.

Perry Hayden, James H. Stone, Duncan M. Turner, Frederick Wheeler, Dr. James Thomas, John R. Whalen, Dan T. Dixon, Geo. E. Mattingly, Wm. H. Jones, Jos. B. Gardner, Jas. E. Coppage, John A. Burroughs, J. Lewis Milburn, George Fox, Sr., Wm. F. Ford, Henry Waring, James E. Jackson, E. A. Burch, John A. Cannalier, N. Evans Carpenter, James T. King, Jos. T. Parsons, Thos. McWilliams, Thomas P. Guy, F. Dominic Hayden, Jos. Latham, Edward S. Jones, Wm. R. P. Blakiston, Jas. L. Connelly, Chas. R. Leach, Wm. F. Leach, John F. Ching, Jas. G. Snelting, J. Ford Watson, Jas. A. Watts, Austin L. Adams, George W. Gass, J. Frank Kizort, John E. Carter, Thos. E. Jordan, Ferd. E. Burch, J. Felix Morgan, Patrick W. Russell, John H. Clarke, T. Sylvester Hyce, Robt. A. Abell.

St. Inigo's Items.

(From our Regular Correspondent.)

Merchants are doing a good business selling to Baltimore and Eastern Shores druggists. The alternate freezing and thawing makes it very disagreeable to travelers. Mr. Robt. Clarke, the leading sportsman of the district, has been very successful during the recent freeze killing ducks, principally canvasback. Several interesting fox hunts have taken place recently. Those who love the chase—and who does not?—appear not to mind the weather even if the wind does blow.

Several narrow escapes from drowning in St. Jerome's creek by breaking through the ice have occurred. A distemper of a malignant type is prevailing among the dogs, and owners of sheep assume an air of nonchalance in consequence.

A snow, terminating in a sheet of several hours duration, fell on 24th. "O Winter! ruler of the invidious year," when will you cease to visit us with your inclemency?

Habeas Corpus Case.

The Habeas Corpus case of John H. Branson, of the 6th district, was argued on Monday last before Judge Crane by John N. Graves for the petitioner, Branson, and Dan. C. Hammett for the State. The office charged against Branson was that he had violated the act of 1880, ch. 22, which provides that "Any person who shall willfully hinder or obstruct the free passage of persons passing by or along any public street or highway in any city or town in this State, or who shall willfully disturb any neighborhood in such city or town by loud and unseemly noises, or who shall profane-ly curse and swear or use obscene language upon or near to such street or highway, within the hearing of persons passing by or along such highway, shall, upon conviction thereof, be sentenced to a fine of not less than one dollar and to the costs of his or their prosecution, or to such fine and costs and to imprisonment in jail in the discretion of the Court."

The traverser having waived the right to a jury trial, was finally tried before Justice Geo. E. Mattingly, adjudged guilty and sentenced to pay a fine of five dollars and the sum of $13.23 costs, which fine and costs he refused to pay, and was committed until said fine and costs should be paid, and then the prisoner invoked the aid of the Habeas Corpus act. This case involved principally the construction of the aforesaid act of Assembly, and the Court decided that, inasmuch as the Legislature had failed to designate what kind of a town was meant, and as persons differ materially as to what numbers of houses and inhabitants constitute a town, the only safe rule to adopt was to in-terpret that it meant an incorporated town, and as there was no evidence of the incorporation of Morganza, the place in this county in which the offence was committed, (and which place can boast of the finest church in the county, two stores, two dwelling houses, inhabited, and the usual out-buildings and a saw mill,) no offence had been committed under this law and the prisoner was entitled to his discharge.

While we bow submissively to the ruling of the Court, we nevertheless, think it in error on this point. A city is a corporate town, and a town is a collection of houses and inhabitants not incorporated, and it strikes us that when a town becomes incorporated, although it may not cease to be a town, yet it should be dignified by the name of a city and so called and treated in law, or, in other words, it is the act of incorporation that distinguishes a city from a town, and as the law above quoted says "any town or city," we strongly incline to the opinion that if Morganza had a sufficient collection of houses and inhabitants to constitute a town, that the aforesaid act was violated, notwithstanding it was not incorporated. But however this may be, the fault lies with the Legislature in not making the law clear and certain as to its terms, and as our Junior is now a member of that august body, we trust he will remedy whatever defects may exist in the law, and make it so clear and comprehensive as to give to the sprightly and interesting little town of Morganza that protection to which it is so justly entitled.

[Local Correspondence.]

JARMONVILLE, Jan. 24, 1886.

The monotony of stern Winter has of late been disturbed by several "hops" given in this neighborhood, notably the one at the hospitable mansion of Mr. John B. Pursel on Monday night, the 11th instant, followed by another on the 18th, just one week later, given at the residence of Mr. Chas. B. Wise, given by Miss Norma Bohanan, assisted, we believe, by Mrs. Robert Wise, Mr. Charley Bohanan and Mrs. Chester Pursel.

Not being at the first, cannot speak of it in detail; suffice it to say, the company, notwithstanding the intense cold, was large, and enjoyed themselves immensely. Everything passed off as merry as a marriage bell, and "mine host" who, by the way, is

ST. JACOB'S PILLS!

"St. Jacob's Pills" purify the blood. "St. Jacob's Pills" regulate the Liver. "St. Jacob's Pills" cure rheumatism. "St. Jacob's Pills" restore health. "St. Jacob's Pills" eradicate disease. "St. Jacob's Pills" cure kidney disease. "St. Jacob's Pills" are the best. "St. Jacob's Pills" will cure you. "St. Jacob's Pills" act simultaneously on the blood, liver, kidneys and bladder; their effects are miraculous, as the cures they effect seem to sceptics incredible.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 30, 1885.
P. WARREN, Esq.—I have endured very much with rheumatism, and found an immediate and permanent cure in one box of St. Jacob's Pills, and I have every reason to believe they are a guaranteed cure for rheumatism and blood diseases.
