LOCAL MENTION.

Our senior editor is rusticating in Dover township.

Lower Pine street is getting a fresh coat of macadamizing.

There are seventy visitors at the Brownsville Sweet Springs.

James T. Clayton, Esq., has returned from his Colorado trip.

Saturday was a lively day in town. The market was crowded with all kinds of luscious fruit.

Two colored individuals from Carrollton addressed their fellow Radicals at the court house Thursday.

A drove of about a hundred sheep passed our office Tuesday. They appeared to be in good condition.

Mr. Gus. Dunkel has opened a new grocery store, corner Laurel and Franklin streets. Give him a call.

Chas. A. Morrison, Esq., is again greeted by his Lexington friends, after a protracted visit to Colorado.

Henry Maery, the grocer, on Franklin street, is preparing to build a large business house west of his store.

Isaac H. Wood, Sr., is announced as a candidate for Judge of the County Court. G. R. Samuels do. for surveyor.

The deep holes corner Main and Mansfield cross streets have been filled up, and pedestrians can once more pass without endangering a broken neck or leg.

J. A. Graham, who was burned out in the big fire two months ago, has started a new tin shop in the Wedge building, at the junction of Broadway and Main street.

A stranger reported himself as having been robbed Monday night, somewhere down on the railroad, of his carpet-sack, which included all his worldly possessions.

For full particulars in regard to the next Kansas City Fair, see advertisement under the head of "Kansas City cards" on our fourth page. The secretary will please accept our thanks for a brace of complimentary tickets.

The picnic at Colored Jo. Davis' grove, about four miles from town, on Saturday, was a pleasant affair; not a large crowd, but every body present had a good time. But, in our opinion, the weather is rather too hot for such frolics.

EDUCATIONAL ADDRESS.—Hon. John Monteith, our State Superintendent of Public Schools, will address the Teachers' Institute and friends of education tonight in the Cumberland Presbyterian church. Go and hear him, he is a fine speaker.

The tenth annual Fair of the Saline Agricultural and Mechanical Association, will be held at Miami, commencing Sept. 10th, and continuing four days. Dan. F. Bell, Esq., has our thanks for a list of premiums offered, and a complimentary ticket.

THE SAME THING.—We hear of a "Workingman's Club" to be formed in opposition to the Farmer's Club. We submit, however, that if the greater includes the less, as geometry tells us, then the farmers will all be in one or the other of the new organization.

Milton represents Satan as almost choking with envy and malice at the sight of the blessed harmony of Eden. The tearful lamentations of the Radical journals over the grand double exhibition of fraternal concord at half-a-dozen places smack very much of death in earnest.

On Wednesday of last week our sanctum was visited by the genial countenance of Hon. Spalding, of Marshall. Although our friend D. thinks is sole owner and sub-editor of the Progress, yet the editorials are so decidedly flavored with Roberts' style, we must still claim him as of the corps editorial.

We had a call last week from J. P. Strother, Esq., of Marshall, the candidate of Saline county for State Senator. Mr. S. ranks foremost among the lawyers of that county. We have known him personally for a dozen years, and don't know a man outside of Lafayette whom we had rather support for that office than John P. Strother.

The Christian church in Lexington has been without a pastor for several months, but we are glad to be able to state that the great need of that denomination here has now been supplied. Elder Allen, from Virginia, has been stationed here, and will hold regular services in the Christian church hereafter. Preaching next Sunday, morning and evening.

STILL HANGS ON.—The Corder will suit is still progressing. It is hoped that a conclusion will be reached this week. We have heard parties intimate that the thing was becoming a bore. It is seems that those who opposed the abolition of the Common Pleas court are having worked up for them a very plausible vindication of their course.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN?—We have not been able to learn anything further concerning that dead body, half eaten up by the hogs, supposed to be that of Roland R. Williamson, spoken of in the last issue of the Register. It was stated that an investigating committee had taken the matter in hand. The people would be glad to hear what report they have to make. The thing has rather a fishy flavor.

HOT.—As a boy we learned to think August the hottest month in the year, but our subsequent experiences have not tended to verify this opinion. On the contrary, June and July both, as a rule, eclipse the heat in August. The last ten days, however, by far the most oppressive spell of the season, will cause us to suspend judgement until we have made further observations.

Monday evening, a horse in the team of Mr. Ballard, on Third street, while standing in harness with the traces unbuckled, became scared and ran up street at a furious rate, dashing through the board fence around Rev. Q. Carles' yard, and bringing up in the rear of his house. The horse appeared to be unhurt, but how he escaped, in going through the fence in the manner he did, is little short of miraculous.

COL. DEMOTTE.—This gentleman desires the good people of Lexington and vicinity to know that he will discuss the political issues of the day at the court house, on Friday evening next, "at early candle lighting." The Col. is a lively talker, and not offensive in manner and matter, as is the case with so many of his persuasion we not of. He will have a good audience. We are going to strike him hard in November, you know, but will love him first.

Prof. Ed. Morley, the ventriloquist and "great moral showman," advertised to give exhibitions on several evenings last week, but failed to draw a crowd. The "Professor" and his gang appear to be regular dead beats, and they will not likely visit Lexington again soon. We give him this notice gratis, and would recommend boarding house keepers, wherever he may stop, to collect their bills in advance. He multed two boarding houses here in the sum of $30, and failed to settle a printing bill of $5, a small livery bill, and we don't know what else.

FAN FLIRTATIONS.—Messrs. Wm. I. Eckle & Co., boot and shoe dealers, have gotten up a nice business card with the following definitions printed on the back:

Fan fash—"I am independent."
Fan slow—"I am engaged."
Fan with right hand in front of face—"Come on."
Fan with left hand in front of face—"Leave me."
Open and shut—"Kiss me."
Open wide—"Love."
Open half—"Friendship."
Shut close—"Hate."
Swinging the fan—"Can I see you home?"
Holding to right cheek—"Yes."

ATTENTION, DEMOCRATS.

There will be primary meetings of the Democrats of the respective townships, on the 25th day of September, 1872, at 1 o'clock P. M., for the purpose of selecting delegates to the county nominating Convention, which will meet in Lexington, at the court house, on Saturday, Sept. 28th, 1872, at the hour of 11 o'clock A. M. The following are suggested as the places of meeting: Lexington township, at court house in Lexington; Clay township, at Wellington and Greenton; Middleton township, at Waverly; Washington township, at Wheatley's school house; Dover township, at Dover; Davis township, at school house near Mrs. Van Meter's; Freedom township, at Concordia; Sni-a-bar township, at Dade's school house.

The townships are respectively entitled to the following number of delegates: Lexington township, fifteen; Clay township, ten; Middleton township, eight; Washington township, eight; Dover township, eight; Davis township, five; Freedom township, four; Sni-a-bar township, five. Every Democrat in the county, without regard to past party affiliation, is not only invited but urged to attend these meetings. It is the sacred duty of every citizen to take part in the coming political contest, that honest, capable and intelligent public servants may be chosen, and that peace and harmony, reconciliation and fraternity may be furthered over our entire country.

A. A. LESUEUR, Chm.

CONGRESSIONAL AND SENATORIAL DELEGATES.

The following are the delegates nominated by the several townships to the Congressional Convention, which is to take place at Carrollton, on the 18th of September:

Freedom—W. T. Thornton, M. F. Price.
Davis—R. T. Conn, B. F. Collier.

SMALL SPITE.

Under the head of "personal" last week the Caucasian speaks of Mr Strother as the leading candidate for State Senator, and further says that as "Pettis and Lafayette have both had the senatorship, Saline is fairly entitled to it this time." The Caucasian is mistaken, as usual. Pettis and Saline have both had the Democratic nominations for Senator since Lafayette, and Lafayette is certainly entitled to the Democratic nominations this time." It is the Democratic nominations that we now have to deal with. The Caucasian's article comes with a bad grace from a paper, one of whose proprietors was himself a candidate for the nomination. It looks as though it were a little piece of spite against our county's choice. Common decency would require that one, who, although an aspirant for office, was not mentioned in the convention in that connection, should at least treat his successful competitor with respect. Keep your temper, gentlemen, and pay a little more attention to the wishes of the people who support you, and maybe you will have less to complain of. Cool off, and you may be enabled to profit by the lesson read you.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

This body of savans will meet in this city to-day in the basement of the Baptist church. We trust our teachers of both public and private schools will be on hand. As we understand it, all are invited. Let all be present and do what they can to make the session a profitable one. Several distinguished educators from abroad will be present and address the convention. State Superintendent Monteith will be present to-day and to-morrow. He will deliver several lectures during his stay. Tonight he will address the people on the subject of education in the Cumberland Presbyterian church. Everybody invited. We hope the house will be full, for Mr. Monteith represents the State and is said to be one of our best speakers. Prof. Rood, of Carrollton, will lecture tomorrow and tomorrow night. Prof. Ficklin, Friday night.

PLEASURE.

We have been favored with a neatly printed invitation to attend a social ball to be given at the new house of Belt & Tilley in Aullville, on Friday, August 30th, 1872, for which we beg to return our thanks to the committee, individually and collectively. We understand that extensive preparations have been made to render the affair one of the most brilliant ever known in the county. Our Lexington band will be in attendance. Guests will be served with a luxurious supper free of charge. Arrangements have been made to lodge guests from a distance at private houses, and all wishing to attend may do so without fear of suffering inconvenience. We notice the name of Gen. Jo. O. Shelby, Col. P. Donan, Henry Barksdale, and others upon the committee, which gives assurance that the affair will be conducted in good style.

BALLOT FOR GOVERNOR.

The Caucasian makes another mistake in favor of Mr. Stephens, in regard to the ballot for Governor in the State Convention. The following is a correct report of the vote:

First ballot—Collier 21, Wilson 22, Stephens 125, Hatch 30, Colman 95, Phelps 122.
Second ballot—Hatch 26, Rollins 23, Stephens 216, Colman 111.
Third ballot—Hatch 26, Stephens 260, Rollins 22, Colman 95.

Judge Woodson was then nominated by acclamation.

PHILIP KELLER.

Who was burned out about two months ago, has opened temporarily, at No. 56 Main street, one door west of the City Hotel, until his new store is completed. Mr Albert Keller is now in the east purchasing new goods, a portion of which will be here by the coming week, and which will be offered to the public at prices that can not fail to please. Remember that his stock will be entirely new—no old or rotten goods to be disposed of at any price. His friends and the public are invited to give him an early call. tf

PIC NIC.

There will be a basket pic nic in Thomas Strauchle's woods, three miles south of Lexington, on the Columbia road, next Saturday, Aug. 31st. Everybody is invited.

G. A. LEICHWORTH, W. S. CLAGETT,
N. R. MCCABE, C. P. JONES,

He has determined to wind up business, and to accomplish this, he sells his large stock of Dry Goods, and everything else in the store, at cost, and will continue to do until all is sold. He has just received a new supply of the latest and handsomest styles in calico, also a variety of hosiery, and a good many other leading articles, all of which will be sold at cost. Such additions to stock will be only made in leading articles, in order to accomplish this the shortest possible time. This last clearing out sale of H. J. E. Ahrens, near the market house. tf

FARMER'S CLUB.

The regular meeting was held at their rooms, on Saturday, Aug. 24th, 1872, John R. Ford, Esq., in the chair.

The committee appointed to wait on the County Court in regard to the delinquent tax list from 1865 back to 1855, reports that the court had made an order to annul the the taxes from 1865 back, leaving the delinquent list to apply only from that date forward. The proposition before made, to have a synopsis of the revenue law published for the benefit of the people of the county, was, upon consultation, with legal gentlemen, passed over. That law is so complicated that it was thought doubtful if any member of the Legislature who voted for it understood its meaning, so as to give a satisfactory explanation of its "mongrel" sections.

The following preamble and resolution were adopted:

Whereas, There is a large number of people engaged in the stock and other trades as a regular business, and a large amount of stock, machinery and other wares, being bought and sold in this county, and these persons engaged in this traffic pay no taxes for their privileges, be it therefore

Resolved, That Messrs. Early, A. J. Hall and Barnett be a committee to wait upon the County Court to urge the proper officers to assess and collect of such persons all taxes that they are legally bound to pay.

The secretary was requested to collect information in regard to the various crops of the county, for the year 1872, and transmit the same to the Agricultural Department, Washington city.

Mr. Marshall was appointed to circulate dog and stock law petition in Washington township, for signatures thereto.

PAUL RIENHARD, Secretary.

TO THE LIBERAL REPUBLICANS OF LAFAYETTE COUNTY.

There will be primary meetings of the Liberal Republicans of the respective townships, on the 25th day of September, 1872, at 1 o'clock P. M., for the purpose of selecting delegates to the county nominating convention, which will meet in Lexington, at the court house, on Saturday, September 28th, 1872, at the hour of 11 o'clock A. M. The following are suggested as the places of meeting: Lexington township, at court house in Lexington; Clay township, at Wellington and Greenton; Middleton township, at Waverly; Washington township, at Wheatley's school house; Dover township, at Dover; Davis township, at school house near Mrs. Van Meter's; Freedom township, at Concordia; Sni-a-bar township, at Dade's school house. The townships are respectively entitled to the following number of delegates: Lexington, fifteen; Clay, eight; Middleton, four; Washington, eight; Dover, five; Davis, five; Freedom, ten; Sni-a-Bar, five. Let every Liberal Republican—every man who has heretofore acted with the Republican party, who intends to support Greeley and Brown—be on hand at the primary meetings to select delegates, and use all due influence to bring about conciliation in the party, and reform and retrenchment in public affairs. Liberal Republicans, act promptly. Beat your posts. B. H. WILSON,
Chairman Central Committee.

ORATORICAL.

Our gallant and talented friend, Captain Richard Collins, of Waverly, an aspirant for legislative honors, favored our people within a address at the court house on Saturday night last, upon the political issues of the day. We were prevented by other engagements from hearing him, but from parties who were present, we learn that the Captain's speech was a very fine one. There was a large attendance, but the orator did not permit the attention of his audience to flag for a moment. When he detected the least sign of weariness he threw in a rich anecdote, causing the house to explode with laughter. The Captain was pretty severe on his competitors, intimating as much, that they were afraid to meet him in "battle array." But those acquainted with his opponents are not disposed to give them credit for having so modest an opinion of their own prowess. Indeed we are just informed that the entertainment will be repeated next Saturday evening, when Messrs. Beck and Hays (Sibleton not heard from) will appear in a more important role than that of side actors.

"SUNDOWN."

Messrs. Lewis Cox, E. A. Asbury, W. C. Webb, Wm. Wind and J. O. Lockhart, of Dover township, have recently purchased of Mr. Grady, of Johnson county, the noted racing stallion, "Sundown." "Sundown" was formerly the property of Mr. O'Fallon, of St. Louis, and before he was brought into this county had achieved a wide reputation on the turf. He performed the last season in the stud in this county, and his colts, remarkable for their compact and beautiful forms, prove him to be one of the best breeders in the State. Such a horse is a valuable acquisition to the rapidly increasing number of our fine stock, and breeders and farmers generally should rejoice that he is to remain, permanently, in the county.

EDITORS INTELLIGENCER: SIRS—My attention has been called to an article in your last week's paper, soliciting me to allow my name to go before the County Convention, for Representative. In reply to that call, I have to say that "many voters of old Clay," or all the voters in Lafayette county, have my consent to present my name to the convention. While I neither seek nor decline the position, I will say that if the choice of the convention should fall on me, I will make an effort to be elected, and if successful, will endeavor to be faithful and honest, and carry out the interests of Lafayette county in particular, and the State in general, to the best of my ability.

Respectfully, &c., C. J. MILLER.

COUNTY COURT JUDGE.

CLAY TOWNSHIP, Aug. 25th, 1872.

TO JOHN HALL, ESQ.: As there is to be a County Court Judge elected this fall for the western district of our county, and believing your integrity and qualifications will fit you for that position, if you will consent to accept the office, the best efforts to secure your nomination and election will be used by MANY VOTERS.

MARRIED.

On Wednesday, August 21st, at the residence of the bride's father, by Elder Joseph Boyd, Mr JOHN JACQUE and Miss HENRIETTA DEAN, all of this county.

Attendants—Henry W. Wander and Miss Maggie Hinman. Cake received.

DIED.

In Dover, Mo., August 19, 1872, Mr. JAMES CAMPBELL, in the 72nd year of his age. Mr. Campbell has been a respected resident of this county for nearly five years, and his loss will be felt by a host of friends.

In Dover, August 19, 1872, of consumption, MARY E., daughter of William Allen, aged 20 years.

OBITUARY.

Died, after a lingering illness, at his residence in Mount Hope, Lafayette county, Mo., Dr. Annis B. Hubbard, the youngest son of Abiatar Hubbard, of Revolutionary fame of 1776, born in Mason county, Virginia, in the year 1827, aged 44 years and 8 months. The writer of this brief sketch of the deceased was with him at intervals during his protracted illness, and by request, bowed down around his emaciated form, and implored God's blessing upon us, that when than art, O, Lord, we might be also. Deeply do we feel thy loss. A sad and melancholy gloom has been cast over our community, but thanks to a merciful Providence, our loss is his eternal gain. Rational up to the time of his departure to the spirit world, bidding his faithful and devoted companion farewell, with a manifest word of encouragement for his darling children, summoned his relatives and friends to his bedside and bid a last farewell with prayer. Thus has passed away a faithful and generous husband, an affectionate and kind father, a true friend, a consistent member of the U. S. Presbyterian church, a true christian gentleman and a physician of marked ability and success, and an honored member of the Masonic Fraternity, by which he was borne to his last resting place and buried with Masonic honors. May the Lord comfort the widow and the orphans of our deceased brother, and may his relatives and friends have the assurance of our heart-felt sympathy in this their sad bereavement.

There rest thy mortal clay,
'Till God shall summon if away,
From the shaded glooms of the sod,
To go up and meet thy Lord.

WELLINGTON ITEMS.

ANOTHER BOOT AND SHOE SHOP.

H. K. Poisal has hung out a scarlet sheep skin at the door of the house formerly occupied by Dr. B. D. Ragland as an office, to let everybody know that he is ready and willing to do all kinds of work in the boot and shoe line, and mend old ones and make them as good as new, if not half gone. He is a poor man with a large family to support. Help him some.

MULES DYING.

Several of the farmers in this neighborhood have lost mules within the past two weeks from some unknown disease. They show no symptoms of sickness before death is inevitable. Various are the conjectures, but the cause of their dying is as yet unaccounted for.

PASTORAL LABORS CLOSED.

Rev. S. Finis King, who has been preaching once a month for six months, for Wellington congregation, Cumberland Presbyterian church, will close his labors for the same, the first Sabbath in September. He goes to McGee college to complete his education. The congregation will be without a regular pastor until the Lexington Presbytery meets, which will be at Corinth church in Johnson county, Kansas, on Wednesday, before the first Sabbath in October.

COUNTY COURT JUDGE.

There is one office to be filled at the election this fall, which as yet there has been but little said about. We have plenty of candidates for all the offices except this, and somehow or other this one thus far, has gone a begging." It is for a County Court Judge for the western district of the county. This is one of as important, if not the most important officers to the county we have to elect, and as there seems to be as yet no aspirant, and as every township is bringing forward and advocating the claim of some aspirant for some office or other, ours should see to this office, as the western district embraces our township. If Mr. John Hall, of this place, will consent to run, he will no doubt receive the unanimous vote of this township. No man is better qualified for this position, and his record is clear on railroad subscriptions and bond issuing. A good financier and opposed to county extravagance generally. Having always been a farmer, honest, knows what the farmers interests are. There is scarce a doubt but the county finances under his administration, would be watched with such vigilance they would be kept in a sound condition. What say you, voters of Clay, Sni-a-bar and Washington township?

WHAT THEY'RE DOING.

"Young ladies, I'm addressing you,
I have both life and breath,
Yet my fate and being now,
To the cruel hand of death

"Some of us stand in high repute,
Others not at naught let seem,
Some, I am sure will not reside,
And in one way or other."

The time on your wills and daughters will be dying their wool, &c., for fall and winter yarns, cloth, &c., and as there are so few comparatively; nowadays that know how to color goods with satisfactory results, that some instructions may be of benefit to many of your readers. All who desire information that is reliable upon the subject, and that is not expensive, will not be disappointed by following the following:

INSTRUCTIONS AND RECIPES FOR FAMILY DYEING IN DYING.

The following recipes are designed for ten pounds of goods. Increase or diminish the amount of materials as there are more or less than ten pounds of goods to be dyed.

Note that it is necessary to boil the goods (if cotton, raw or mixed wool), for three hours in pure water before dying; or, if wool, to scour thoroughly with soap and pure water before coloring.

Note also that redwood liquor is used in the dying process to work the goods in without crowding.

☞ The proportions of extract logwood here given can be relied upon only for the best article of the extract.

Black.—For a Jet Black.—Boil the goods for thirty minutes in a suitable vessel containing 6 oz. Bichromate of Potash and 1 fluid ounce Oil of Vitriol (sulphuric Acid) or 1 oz. Cream Tartar. Wash well out of this and dye in a clear liquor with 8 oz. Extract Logwood in solution with a very little sal Soda at boiling heat. When dark enough wash and dry.

Dark Blue.—A very good dark blue can be dyed in precisely the same way as above by using double the quantity of oil of Vitriol and about half of all the other materials.

Cotton Black or Dark Black.—Boil 3 lbs. Sumac; steep the varn in it but air cleanse; take it out in the morning and let it cool; run it through lime water by putting a pound of lime into a tub and filling it with water; strain off the clear and run your yarn through it; let it drain or wring it out; dissolve 2 lbs. of Copperas and run the yarn through it; then run through the lime water again; then through 3 ounces of dissolved Extract logwood; wash clean and dry.

Light Cotton Black, Dark Slate.—Use a solution containing the clear liquor of 2 Sumac, which has been boiled or scalded, and one half ounce Extract Logwood; boil the Dye work in this one hour, then add 2 oz. Copperas in solution; work 15 to 20 minutes according to shade wanted; wring out and dry.

DOVER ITEMS.

RELIGIOUS.

On last Tuesday night the grand old August meeting closed. About eighteen persons have been baptised. Thirteen united with the church on Sunday, one was baptised in the afternoon. Elder Plattsburg left yesterday (Sunday), for the State meeting, to be held at St. Joseph, commencing on the 27th inst. He expected to preach on his way last evening. Elder Proctor delivered some very fine discourses during the meeting. There are some few objections to his thoughts in one or two instances, but that he is a powerful man all will admit. On yesterday (Sunday), there were three addition to the Baptist church, Dr. Webb's son and two of Mr. Chandler's children. Dr. Webb's son was baptised in the afternoon. The New Testament says, "There is one Lord, one faith, one baptism." It seems strange to me, and I suppose also to others, that Christ should have as many brides as there are different religious denominations, and these brides hating one another as some hate in this town. If I am to be a Methodist just because I go to a Methodist school, is my faith human or divine? And so, if I am to be of the faith of any other denomination just because I associate with the people of that faith, is my faith human or divine?

POLITICAL.

The Democrats seem to be giving the Radicals some show to work on the Liberals. Our Democratic friends should be very careful how they act. I am very glad to know that the State Convention at Jefferson City was harmonious. The Liberal Republicans should come in for a share of the offices just as they did at Jefferson City. Our friend, Young, formerly of the INTELLIGENCER, is doing good work for himself. He is a very worthy gentlemen, and should have his claims well considered by the people of this county.

BERLIN.

Major Littlejohn is doing a fine business in the grocery line. He is a very nice gentleman, very polite to his customers and cannot be surpassed in attending to all their wants and demands. He will soon increase his stock with the best the St. Louis market affords. If you want anything in his line give him a call, you will find him very polite and kind. Mr. Hockensmith keeps constantly on hand a good supply in his line. He is good natured, kind, and quite liberal to all who feel disposed to give him a call. You will find him a very pleasant gentleman, and it will afford him great pleasure to wait upon you, should you feel disposed to buy of him. Mr. Wernwag is always ready to accommodate all who may wish to trade with him. He does a good business; he is much of a gentleman, and his praise is on the land and on the water. Messrs. Brown & Shope are very kind and prompt in attending to all work left for them to perform. Mr. Bowman's wagons are hard to beat, and Mr. Shope puts the irons on so nice and tight that you cannot object to the mechanism.

GONE HOME.

Our old and very worthy citizen, Mr. Campbell, in his eighty first year, departed this life at his home in Dover, on last Monday, at one o'clock A. M., after a very short illness. He was very much loved and esteemed by all who well knew him. His funeral was preached by Eld. Plattenburg, and he was followed to his resting place by a very large number of friends. He leaves very many children, grandchildren, &c., to mourn his loss. His estate is worth sixty or seventy-five thousand dollars.

MISCELLANEOUS.

It is reported upon good authority that the dead body of Rowland Williamson, the murdered of John C. Hiem, was found near Harle's farm, in the vicinity of the place where the fatal deed was committed. The corpse was so much decayed and disfigured by birds of prey as to be almost beyond identification. It will be remembered that a few weeks ago, Williamson, contrary to all law, and directly in the face of the clearest evidence of his guilt, was released on two or three thousand dollars' bail. The last grand jury indicted him for murder in the first degree; but as soon as the report of this fact went abroad, Williamson disappeared, and very little, if any effort, was made to arrest him. It should not surprise any one that he has met with a violent fate, for when our courts are slow to do justice to such parties, it may be expected that the good and crime-hating people will execute summary punishment. It is no wonder that the people take the law into their own hands. The people of Lafayette county take great pleasure in the proper execution of the laws of the land.

The weather this week has been excessively hot.

The doctors are very busy in the discharge of their duties to the sick.

Lauerton's livery stable is still doing a good business.

Vivion's mill keeps up its accustomed pulling. If you wish anything in his (Vivion's) line, he is ready and more than willing to accommodate you. He makes the best flour in the west. To satisfy yourself of this, just try a sack of his best.

Our friend, J. Selby Plattenburg, who is running for Collector, looks better than I have ever seen him.

CROQUET.

The young people of Dover and vicinity are having splendid times playing croquet. On last Saturday they played until dark, then illuminated the Dover High School yard, and continued until ten o'clock. The Miss Prices, with their brother from the country, were with the party. All seemed to enjoy themselves as well as any human heart could wish. The young ladies look so nice and beautiful that it is very evident why the young men leave their places of business, to take part in an interesting game of croquet.

TO THE PEOPLE OF LAFAYETTE COUNTY.

FELLOW CITIZENS of Lafayette county: In appearing before you as an independent candidate for the House of Representatives, it behooves me to give some reason for doing so. In the first place, the farmers, who are the bone and sinew of the country, have no voice there; the people who place their thousands of bushels of grain in warehouses of the country, and who stand in the door and hand out loaf by loaf to the balance of the world, have no say in framing the laws of the country, but stand as silent spectators, with no sentiment on the house top, and no friendly voice to vindicate their claims to justice. For the last twenty years we have been represented by a class of people with whom there is no ties of congeniality of interest of feeling or sympathy. Almost every step that has been taken by them is to pull down and degrade the farmer and build up their own peculiar aversions. Whilst we are becoming poor they are becoming rich; they laugh at our calamities, and rejoice over their success. The grandest and greatest problem, with them is, not "how I shall promote the interest and welfare of the country at large," but "how I shall best build up my own interest." The motto is with these men, "I don't care who sinks so I swim;" and let me tell you, they have swum. The county is in poverty, and her people degraded. Look at the last session acts of our Legislature, two hundred and fifty-five dollars taken out of the public fund to defray the expenses of the reception of the Grand Duke Alexis, and a dog law, make up the gist of their actions, with this exception—voting themselves a Christmas holiday, and on returning vote themselves money out of the public crib to pay their mileage.

Again, look at our county officers for the last seven years. Wherever there has been an opportunity afforded them, they have thrust their hands into the public crib, and taken your money without your consent; and so completely have they shelter'd themselves under the law, that there is no possible chance of reaching them, except at the ballot box. These same men, who went to office comparatively poor, now walk on high heeled boots, wear slick hats, live in brick palaces, sit on easy cushioned chairs, drive fast horses. Talk to these consequ
