A dull season — Boarding-house pepper.

California has no last rose of summer; they bloom till fall.

The paper with the largest circulation just now is "the fly-paper."

The pace of New Orleans funerals averages twelve miles an hour.

Josh Billings says that a red herring will keep a man dry better than an umbrella.

They are experimenting with female street car conductors in Savannah, Ga.

The telegraph reports a marriage on board a Western train. It was a railroad-tie.

"Stump-tailed monopolist" is the chaste epithet that a Chicago editor slings at a rival.

An ex-type-setter out West signs himself "Non-Compositor." He is evidently non compos.

I am dying for love, said a melancholy young man as he put the coal-black fluid on his moustache.

Curious-Jingle is the name applied by the Louisville Ledger to its contemporary, the Courier-Journal.

It is said that mocking-birds and canaries sickened and died in Tennessee towns where cholera prevailed.

The editor of a Nevada newspaper gives notice that he cannot be bribed with a five-cent cigar to write a five-dollar puff.

They are having very exciting times at Rye Beach, and the Rye has a great deal more to do with it than the Beach.

A Kentucky editor speaks of a local genius who has been a persevering contributor to the office waste basket for several years.

Eat and drink, and scheme and plod,
And go to church on Sunday;

Notwithstanding all they say against it, there is not an editor in the State who would refuse to accept "back pay"—from subscribers.

The girls in a Springfield, Mass., factory are supplied by the proprietors with chewing gum, in order that they may not waste time in talking.

News is scarce in Minnesota; in the effort to present something fresh a Lanesboro paper has found it necessary to publish the Ten Commandments.

The Jacksonville (Fla.) Union states that the genuine tea plant is growing profusely all over the suburbs of that city, and presents quite a thriving appearance wherever it is found.

A merchant who has a class in Sunday school, asked, "What is solitude?" and was visibly disturbed when a miserable boy answered: "The store that don't advertise."

Bogus lard is extensively made in Ohio. A large quantity of Indian meal is stirred into the melted lard. It becomes pulpy and escapes detection. It isn't so good as lard, but is more healthy.

The title of a religious article on "Mirth as a Means of Grace," is perverted by a rural compositor into "Mirth as a Means of Grease." He was doubtless thinking of the proverb, "Laugh and grow fat."

Men's lives should be like the day—more beautiful to the evening; or, like summer—aglow with promise; and like the autumn—rich with the golden sheaves, where good works and deeds have ripened on the field.

A German Jew was eating a pork chop in a thunder storm. On hearing an unusually loud clap, he laid down his knife and fork, and observed, "Vell, did any poty efer hear such a fuss about a leedle peece of bork?"

A Western editor, anxious to do justice to the description of a croquet party, longs for a "pen plucked from the queen of fairies from the brightest and most gorgeously tinted tuft of the bird of Paradise, and dipped in golden ink."

Some idea of the value of land near London may be had from the fact that the government has recently paid £20,000 an acre for Wormwood Scrubbs, in order to keep it as a drill ground for the troops and the volunteers.

Here's a chance for the girls. A Pottsville "patient" advertises: "Fair Offer—To the Public—I have too many boys, and no girls. Two boys came to my house this week. They are twins. I will swap one or both of them for a girl. W. H. B."

The total absence of boot-jacks, pomatum pots, and other household missiles in the remains of Swiss lacustrine villages leads Dr. Hartmann, the distinguished ethnologist, to the conclusion that the domestic cat was unknown to pre-historic man.

An unco' child of Natur' writes feelingly anent a popular topic: "I could stan' bein' called a liar and a thief," says he "or even be told that the old man kept a hoop-skirt factory, but when one of them lonfin' goslins comes aroun' me a-sayin' as I had suthin' to do with that 'ere 'Betsey nor I is Out,' I jest riz onto my hind legs and combed him down."

The New York Commercial Advertiser tells of a Western Congressman who carries his back pay in a leather pouch attached to a strap about his person. The device works admirably. Whenever he has any talk with good, conscientious people, and begins to feel that he ought to return it, he just takes the money out, turns it over two or three times, and the feeling is gone.

The following pathetic lines are supposed to have emanated from the obituary genius of the Philadelphia Ledger:

"Died, suddenly, uncle Alexander McGlue,
An I gave him protracted repose
He wore a checked shirt and a number nine shoe,
An he had a pink wart on his nose.
No doubt he is happier dwelling in space
Over there on the evergreen shore.
His friends are informed that his funeral takes place
Precisely at a quarter-past four!"

One of our local judges lately took a lesson in spelling in a justice's court, when a Mr. Wood was the witness. "What is your name?" asked the clerk. "Ottiwell Wood," answered the witness. "How do you spell your name?" then asked the somewhat puzzled judge. Mr. Wood [illegible] "double T, double E double L, Double U, double O D." The astonished judge thought that was one of the most extraordinary names he ever knew; and after two or three attempts to record it, both he and the clerk gave it up, amid roars of laughter.

This Cut illustrates the manner of Using

DR. PIERCE'S Fountain Nasal Injector, OR DOUCHE.

This instrument is especially designed for the perfect application of

DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY.

It is the only form of instrument yet invented with which fluid medicine can be carried high up and perfectly applied to all parts of the affected nasal passages, and the chambers or cavities communicating therewith, in which sores and ulcers frequently exist, and from which the catarrhal discharge generally proceeds. The want of success in treating catarrh heretofore has arisen largely from the impossibility of applying remedies to these cavities and chambers by any of the ordinary methods. This obstacle in the way of effecting cures is entirely overcome by the invention of the Douche. In using this instrument, the fluid is carried by its own weight (no snuffing, forcing or pumping being required) up one nostril in a full gently flowing stream to the highest portion of the nasal passages, passes into and thoroughly cleanses all the tubes and chambers connected therewith, and flows out of the opposite nostril. Its use is pleasant and so simple that a child can understand it. Full and explicit directions accompany each instrument. When used with this instrument, Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy cures recent attacks of Cold in the Head by a few applications. Chronic cases of Catarrh require longer treatment. Important benefits follow the first application. Perfect hearing, discharge falling into throat, sometimes profuse, watery, thick mucus, purulent, offensive, &c. In others a dryness, dry, watery, white or inflamed eyes, stopping up or obstruction of nasal passages, ringing in ears, deafness, hawking and coughing to clear throat, ulcerations, scabs from ulcers, voice altered, nasal twang, offensive breath, impaired or total destruction of sense of smell and taste, dizziness, mental depression, loss of appetite, indigestion, enlarged tonsils, hacking cough, &c. Only a few of these symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.

Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, when used with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, and accompanied with the constitutional treatment which is recommended in the pamphlet, is warranted to cure each bottle of the Remedy, is a perfect specific for this loathsome disease, and the proprietor offers, in good faith, $500 reward for a case he cannot cure. The Remedy is mild and pleasant to use, containing no strong or caustic drugs or poisons. The Catarrh Remedy is sold at 50 cents. Douche at 75 cents, by all druggists, or either will be sent by proprietor on receipt of 60 cents

LYON'S KATHAIRON

Only 50 Cents per Bottle.

It promotes the GROWTH, PRESERVES the COLOR, and increases the Vigor and BEAUTY of the HAIR.

OVER THIRTY YEARS AGO LYON'S KATHAIRON FOR THE HAIR was first placed in the market by Professor E. Thomas Lyon, a graduate of Princeton College. The name is derived from the Greek "KATHRO," signifying to cleanse, purify, regenerate, or restore. The favor it has received, and the popularity it has obtained, is unprecedented and incredible. It increases the GROWTH and BEAUTY of the HAIR. It is a delightful dressing. It eradicates dandruff, it prevents the Hair from turning gray. It keeps the head cool, and gives the hair a rich, soft, glossy appearance.
