VILLISTAS BEGIN LEAVING TORREON

Troops Sent to Chihuahua With Great Quantities of Provisions—Cattleman Held for Ransom.

EL PASO, Texas, Sept. 10.—The evacuation of Torreon by the Villistas has begun. All rolling stock except that needed for the transportation of troops has been sent to Chihuahua City, together with great quantities of provisions, and within 36 hours, according to semi-official advices, most of Villa's troops will be out of Torreon.

Carranza outposts appeared Thursday morning near San Pedro de Las Colonias, 40 miles east of Torreon, according to messages received from Gen. Villa, who is in the latter city.

Villa's troops will be concentrated at Bachimba, a narrow fortified mountain pass on the Mexican line 60 miles south of Chihuahua. An exodus of Americans in Chihuahua has begun, many refugees having already reached El Paso.

John Lowenbruck, an American cattle man, was captured Wednesday by Mexican bandits opposite Columbus, N. M., and is being held for $2,000 ransom. Friends of Lowenbruck left here today with the money to purchase the cattle man's freedom.

GUTIERREZ DYING.

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, Sept. 10.—Eulalio Gutierrez, elected president of Mexico by the Aguas Calientes military convention, is on his death bed at a mining camp north of Mexico City, according to friends who arrived in this city Thursday. While fleeing from a band of Carranistas a few weeks ago, Gen. Gutierrez was wounded in the right leg. The limb became inflicted and his physicians now give the former Mexican president only a few days to live.

Said Pasha, the governor of Adrianople, is being tried by court martial for refusing to deliver the town of Karagatch to the Bulgarians.
