SUCCESS—POWER

Never Retreat!

Leaving a loophole for retreat defeats half your purpose to succeed.

The most fatal error at any stage of life is to start on an important undertaking with the thought that if your efforts do not succeed, you can go back and start over again.

You will never use every energy and all your reserve strength when the battle is only half-hearted.

Failures are made when discouragements and difficulties make men retreat. Leave out grit and purpose, and you will never go far.

Positive resolution to win at all hazards—without turning back—leads to the greatest success.
