SUCCESS--POWER

Almost Successful

Most travelers on the road to success are stopped at the barrier of Not Quite. They lack the fight to come through to their goal.

The man who never had a chance has never been born. The trouble is that there are too many men who never took a chance.

There isn't a man today who has arrived who didn't fear until the very end of his fight for achievement that his life might turn out to be a failure. But he refused to quit—and won!

Push is the power that enables us to prevail—half-hearted is no better than never started!

Laurels won't spring up like mushrooms—over night—you have to give your life to winning them.
