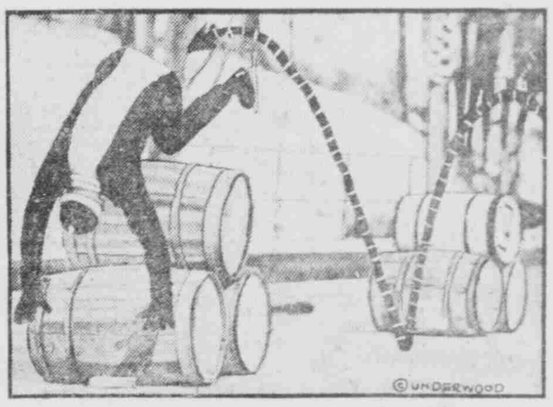
IN THE NEWS

IN TANGLE OF YOUTH AND AGE—Mrs. Robert E. Dickerman, above, is suing her mother-in-law, Mrs. Frank L. Dickerman, for $100,000, charging alienation of her husband's affections. Dickerman is 27. His wife, who is 47, was his Sunday school teacher at Somerville, Mass. Their courtship occurred when they were overseas during the World war.

A PROHIBITION NUT—Prohibition enforcement officers recently seized a shipment of cocoanuts at Jacksonville, Fla. The shells were filled with 100-proof corn liquor. As you see in the photo, the contents of one cocoanut almost fills a water tumbler.

THE COHAN KIDS AT PALM BEACH—There are hundreds of children of prominent families spending the winter at Palm Beach, Fla., but none of them are attracting more attention than those of George M. Cohan, actor-author-producer. Here George, Jr., Helen and Mary are at play in a swimming pool.



A HURDLE, THEN A DIVE—HEAD FIRST—Earl Palmer hurdles a three-barrel obstacle, then dives head first over a similar obstacle. This, at Plattsburgh, N. Y. No, he hasn't been injured—yet.

VALUES OF HOME INCREASED. The value of a great many homes has been increased by protecting them with Elaborated Roofing. Not only have the home owners increased the beauty of the home but have added untold fire protection as well.
