PROHIBITION FORMS POWERFUL THEME AT METHODIST SERVICE

Rev. W. W. Wiant Praises Local Papers for Stand on Subject.

Taking for his theme "Has Prohibition Come to Stay" Rev. Warren W Wyant in a powerful sermon delivered at last evening's services in the First Methodist Episcopal church, spoke as follows:

"The story of the coming of the national amendment to the Constitution of the United States prohibiting the sale and manufacture of alcoholic liquors is well known. Notwithstanding the statement that it was "put over" on the country before the people fully realized what was on, and while the young men were in the military forces of the nation, the facts stand that before the amendment was made the law of the land, prohibition was effective in 32 out of the 48 states. The amendment was "ratified not only by three fourths but by all the states in the Union excepting two." The congress that voted for the submission of the amendment was elected before America entered the war. Back of the majority of the campaigns that elected the various members of that congress the question of prohibition entered largely into the fights with the overwhelming majority of "dry" men winning the elections. Long before the war practically every politician in the United States knew of the progress of prohibition and of steadily gaining momentum everywhere.

Soon after national prohibition came into effect a number of its enemies met in a prominent hotel in Washington for a consultation that lasted several days. There were the brewers, the distillers, the wine merchants, the race track gamblers and the president of the American tobacco trust who was elected to the position of the first vice-president of this new society opposed to prohibition. The same degenerate crowd that did so much to drop the standards of the movies as they did the fairly respectable saloons of the old days run by the owners themselves, making them places of unexampled vileness and crime, were present in large numbers. This assembly published that they had two billions of dollars to defeat the enactment of the Volstead law and its enforcement, and then eventually the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment. This statement was heralded throughout the nation in the leading dailies and in the press around the world. This they published to the American people, holding up to contempt an integral part of the Constitution of their native land. They followed this announcement by publishing broadcast that the victorious prohibitionists were about to prepare another amendment to the Constitution prohibiting the growth of tobacco and the manufacturing of the weed form for personal use saying that it would soon be a penitentiary offense to smoke a pipe or a cigar. Then they drummed up the "blue-law" hoax, the very name of which is a historic falsehood. These enemies of prohibition form one of the most pernicious organizations ever encountered in the long battle for liberty and rightcous in America. They have deliberately joined hands with the throng of foreigners numbering 80 and 90 percent of all the violators of the Volstead Act, to undermine and eventually destroy the greatest law ever enacted by a free people for the elimination of the greater percentage of pauperism degeneracy, illiteracy and crime.

Suffering From Lack of Interest

"Just now prohibition is suffering from a lack of active interest in its behalf, especially on the part of the good people who first made it possible. The people of Mishawaka and South Bend should be justly proud of the two great dailies that reach our homes in this respect. No finer articles have been read nor no more noble exhortations been heard than have appeared in the editorials of these papers. But such cannot be said of many of the daily papers. They seemingly have joined the enemies of this great reform and lend their powerful influence in the attempted overthrow. We must become keenly active to the fact that more than thirty organizations are now in the field fighting against the law and that this is the chief issue in many places in the coming elections. The good citizens looking to the preservation of the Volstead Law and the continued enforcement should look carefully into the record of every candidate for office no matter how insignificant the place may be, and if the candidate is known to favor the repeal of the law or to be "wet" in his personal sympathies then he should be voted against by all.

"While prohibition has many enemies yet it has a multitude of creditable witnesses who bear testimony of its success and declare that it has come to be just as much a part of the organic law of the land as ever the amendment prohibiting the holding of slaves. Bankers, manufacturers, and those engaged in charity and uplift work, all declare it to be the greatest ally for sobriety, industry and thrift that has ever come into the life of the people. Work houses and jails are closed with every one of the old Neal cure institutions gone. Venereal diseases are on the decrease. Children once compelled to work to save the family from hunger and cold while the father exercised his profound rights of personal liberty by being drunk most of the time, now have sober fathers and as a consequence, our grade schools and high schools were never crowded as they are now. Probably not more than one million people are doing the drinking in the United States now. Formerly twenty millions were regular consumers. Last year the doctors of Chicago, one of our wet centers, issued two million, one hundred eighty-nine thousand prescriptions for liquor, less than one for each person in the city, during the entire year. Of all liquor now used in the nation annually, including those imported and all held in stock and manufactured illegally, there is less than enough for one drink per capita per year for our entire population.

"It was not thought by the most ardent prohibitionist that the law would be universally observed by all right at once. The habits in the use of alcoholic liquors are the deepest ingrained and established in the human race. To wipe it out effectually will take more than one generation. All ready the results are so many and so much more than had been hoped for, that all indications point to the opposition growing less and less as the law has opportunity to speak for itself. The hope for its permanent establishment not only on the statutes but in the hearts and minds of the people as well lies in the union of many forces. Not only the distinctly church people of the country, but the great manufacturing interests, the business and professional people, social workers and those officials dealing with the delinquent and criminal, have all joined hands against this monster that has shackled the minds and souls of men and women for ages. The granting of the ballot to women and the teaching of the effects of alcohol in the public schools only adds to the overwhelming force already pledged to see this enemy of all remain an outlaw in our fair land, and stand with the other forces a solid phalanx to fight until the victory has been completely won. Prohibition has come to stay, the only question being the date when its enemies shall have been so completely overwhelmed as to be driven forever from "the land of the free and the home of the brave."

MICHIGAN TEAM IS SWAMPED BY LOCAL GRID AGGREGATION

Revamped Matz-Firstbauer Eleven Runs Away With Three Rivers, 54-6.

Staging a comback, the ferocity of which demoralized their opponents, the Matz and Forstbauer city football team downed the Three River Wolverine Independents to the tune of 54 to 6 on the Dodge gridiron Sunday afternoon.

From the first whistle the game more resembled a "track meet" than a football match, the Mishawaka city team confusing the Wolverines with a number of clever shifts and passes that left them in doubt as to whether there was a football on the field at all.

A fumble on Mishawaka's 10 yard line and an end run gave the Michigan team their only score, near the close of the first half, but they were unable to follow up their advantage.

Capt. Beehler called in practically all the men on the bench, and during the last half, employed a number of second stringers, both in the back field and in the line with great success.

Line-up of the winners is as follows: Ends, Montine, Bauwens, Martens and Neland; tackles, Hoppe, Heick and Beehler (Capt.); guards, Dennis and Garns; center, Beisbrock; quarterback, Minzy; halfbacks, Howland, Crum, Buysee and Gage; fullbacks, Neland and Ghyselinck.

TWO MEN ARRESTED AFTER COLLISION

Booze Said to Have Caused Auto Crash—None Injured in Accident.

Said to have been driven by an intoxicated driver, the Chevrolet car driven and owned by Harry Light of River Park, rammed into a Gardner touring car, driven by Miss Gertrude Stoeckinger, R. R. 2, Mishawaka, Non Union st., near Fourth st., Sunday evening, about 7 o'clock.

Light was said to have been accompanied by two friends who fled from the scene of the accident, and by Ross Thompson, 118 Homewood av., who was said to have been also drunk. Neither car was damaged seriously.

Both Light and Thompson are well known in police circles and were taken to the local police station where they were booked on the charges of driving a car while intoxicated and public intoxication, respectively. In default of sufficient funds, they were jailed until their hearing this morning in the city court.

TEMPLE

Mr. George Arliss, the distinguished actor, star of "Disraeli," the great photoplay sensation which will be shown at the Temple theater beginning today, started at the bottom of the ladder. On April 10, 1868, in Bloomsbury, over against the British Museum, George Arliss was born.

It is one of the great thoughts in connection with Mr. Arliss in this role that within a year of the time the Hon. Benjamin Disraeli, M. P., and Prime Minister of England passed away at his country place in Hughenden there was born in London a boy who in after years was to depict the great English statesman on the stage. George Arliss is a son of William Arliss and the boy was not born with a gold spoon in his mouth. True, the boy obtained a common school education but this he afterward augmented by a life of study.

HOSPITAL NOTES.

Well Known Resident Of Mishawaka Dies

Mrs. Mary Moran-Baughman, formerly a well known resident of Mishawaka for 34 years, died at her home, 826 N. Johnson st., South Bend, Saturday evening at 5:30 o'clock. Death followed an illness of seven week with complications.

She was born Oct. 10, 1867, at Mishawaka, and was married 18 years later to James Moran, whose death preceded hers. On Oct. 8, 1902, she was united in marriage to Peter Baughman, at South Bend, by whom she is survived. Besides her husband, she leaves one daughter, Mrs. Pearl McCloud, of Nappanee, Ind., and two sons, Walter Diemer, of Mishawaka, and Cecil, at home. Two brothers also survive, Charles Moran, of Arkansas and Will Moran of Three Oaks, Mich.

Funeral services will be held from her late residence Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, at which Rev. J. H. Evans is expected to officiate. Burial will be made in the Mishawaka city cemetery.

ENTERTAINS AT DINNER.

Mrs. Catherine Bardo, 1134 N. Johnson st., South Bend, entertained a number of friends from Mishawaka at a 5 o'clock dinner Sunday evening. Covers were laid for 17. Following the dinner contests were enjoyed and favors were awarded to Mrs. LaFevere and Mrs. Alphonse Verleye.

RETURN TO MICHIGAN.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Slane, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Riddle and daughter, Betty Jane, left Sunday evening for their home in Kalamazoo, Mich., after visiting with Mrs. Slane's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Albert, 203 E. Eighth st. The trip was made by auto.

FURTHER CHANGES IN DODGE MFG. CO. ARE LOOKED FOR

Capt. Willes Resigns — Interesting Rumors Emanate From Chicago.

Capt. L. Eugene Willes, an employe of the Dodge Mfg Co., will resign from that institution Tuesday. During his term with this organization Capt. Willes has established the band connected with the factory than which there is no better in the state. He also organized to perfection a ladies' band and it is pleasing news to Mishawakans that both bands will be maintained in their entirety distinctly separate from the Dodge corporation. Capt. Willes and his estimable wife will remain in the city where they have endeared themselves to a large circle of friends.

There is considerable talk in Mishawaka about further changes in the personnel of the Dodge organization, and some of these emanating from Chicago mention the name of one of the biggest industrial magnates in the country as likely to take over the Dodge business, while some who profess to know say there is a chance that Melville W. Mix, former president of the company, will be the active manager once the reorganization is completed. Of course, this is mere rumor, although it is said to have come from an authentic source.

It is further stated that additional changes in the staff may be announced during the next 10 days.

CHILDREN SURPRISE PARENTS ON 51ST WEDDING JUBILEE

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilke, 214 E. First st., two of the city's estimable residents, were pleasantly surprised by their children and grandchildren Thursday evening on the occasion of their 51st wedding jubilee. They received many pretty gifts and scores of greetings and congratulations from their many friends. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. Wilke's maiden name was Dorothea Christina Horner and she was married to Mr. Wilke at Wheeling, Va., Oct. 26, 1871. They have eight children as follows: Mrs. C. J. Milbreth, Ernest C. Wilke, White Pigeon, Mich.; Mrs. Mae Weber, Los Angeles, Cal.; Mrs. Louise Motts, Henry Wilke, Mrs. Walter Knoblock, Mrs. C. B. Miller and Carl Wilke, of this city.
